LOCAL NEWS

Boston steamer Governor Dingley is due to arrive at 5 o'clock this afternoon. She takes the place of the Governor Cobb.

British schooner Earl Gray, Captain Salter, arrived at Annapolis last Sunday from New York in ballast to load potatoes and lumber for Havana.

Battle line steamship Leucra has been fixed to load ore at Carthagena and New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore at nine o'clock, December loading.

Engineer Scammell, of the dominion public works department, said this morning that with the blowing up of the big boulder that had been obstructing Nos. 3 and 6 barrels, in Baltimore, he believed that both berths were now quite clear.

Detective Hanerhan of Halifax arrived in the city today with a warrant for the arrest of Noah Tulk, the young man arrested by the police here yesterday. He is charged with not providing for his family and his wife. The detective will return to Halifax today with his prisoner.

The man on the street will find a welcome and enjoyment at the Every Day Club this evening. There will be songs, readings, music by the orchestra, and presentation by Postmaster Sears, of prizes won at the indoor sports. Refreshments will be served and all men are welcome.

Attorney General Hazen, when asked this morning if any action would be taken against Conductor J. H. Thompson, of the I. C. R., as a result of the verdict rendered by the coroner's jury in the inquest held into the Nash's Creek disaster, said he had not received a copy of the evidence, and until he had the evidence and the verdict of the jury before him he could take no action.

MAYOR THINKS THAT SOMETHING SHOULD BE DONE

Rodney Wharf Danger Matter Rests Where it Was — May Be Taken up Again Friday

The matter of protecting the public from accidents at Rodney wharf, west side, is still in abeyance. Some time ago the city sent a communication to the St. John Railway Co., requesting them to erect a fence and properly light the wharf where their rails are laid. The company in a letter to the council disclaim any responsibility in the matter. This letter was read at yesterday's council meeting, and it was moved by Ald. Frink that the matter be referred to the engineer, the chairman of the board of works and the recorder. This committee would ascertain the city's position in the matter and determine if the corporation of the street railway should provide proper safeguards.

The aldermen voted the resolution down, however, and the matter now stands as it did before. Neither the city nor the street railway will move in the matter, it seems, and in the meantime more accidents are liable to occur.

Mayor Bullock said this morning that he thought something should be done at once. The city might protect itself by erecting a fence along the northerly side of the track, but he thought the railway should protect the face of the wharf. The subject may be again brought up at the council meeting on Friday.

GAME TO COURT AT WAR, LEFT IN PEACE

A case of assault developed into a reunion in the police court this morning, when Edward Kyle, arrested on a charge of striking his wife, was allowed to go. He admitted the charge but said that he was justified in acting as he did.

His wife told Judge Ritchie that her husband did not use her well and had taken her two children from her and given them to a cousin of his mother, with whom he and she were now living. Yesterday morning about 3 o'clock she arose and was attending to her sick child when her husband struck her in the face, seemingly without provocation.

Mr. Kyle, Sr., said that the woman was lazy and hard to agree with and deserved all she got.

His honor told the three people to step into the anteroom, off the hallway, to see if they could not arrive at a settlement of their troubles, and if it happened that they could not, he would take a hand himself. Evidently the matter was smoothed over, as it was not long before they left court.

MRS. W. M. MACKAY BREAKS LOCAL BOWLING RECORD

The bowling record of 165 held by Miss Grace Fairweather, was broken on the afternoon of the Victoria Bowling Academy this morning and Mrs. W. Malcolm Mackay is the new leader.

Mrs. Mackay made 175. She rolled an excellent game, strikes and spares in cheering succession with only one break, when only seven pins went down.

The record made by Mrs. Mackay is within seven of the Canadian ladies' record of 185.

The marine department has received notice that White Head, Grand Manan, Antigonish buoy is four and a half miles out of position, and the Rockport buoy is seven miles west-southwest out of its position.

BENCH IN POLICE COURT FILLED THIS MORNING

Seamen in Row in the Metropole — Mr. Pott Must Give Up His Dog—A Fine of $40.

Space on the prisoners' bench was at a premium this morning when a long row of prisoners greeted Judge Ritchie, on various charges.

They Smith, aged eighteen, and Chas. Murphy, aged nineteen, pleaded guilty to drunkenness but denied using profane language. They were remanded.

Policeman McCollum said the boys had been using filthy language in Mill street last night. Murphy belongs to Moncton and has been in the city about two weeks.

Daniel Fritz was fined $8 for drunkenness, and evidence as to his trying to "block" Philip Buhlan of a meal, worth twenty-five cents, was given.

Buhlan said that the prisoner went to his restaurant in Mill street on Saturday night and ordered a "real big supper." He ate this and ordered another, and did not pay for either. The police were called and the man was arrested.

Barney Kennedy was remanded on a charge of drunkenness.

Wilbur Totten, arrested on a charge of being drunk, pleaded guilty, but denied having been fighting in Brussels street.

Policeman McFarlane said he saw the prisoner engaged in a scuffle with another man, who made his escape. Totten's face was badly cut, evidently the result of a fight. He was fined $2.

Alfred Pott, reported for allowing his ferocious dog to run at large, said the dog was not ferocious and he was not guilty of the charge.

Win. Daley said that the dog had bitten him three times. Pott said that the dog was not ferocious and he did not, the latter must have kicked him.

His honor said that the dog would have to be destroyed or sent out of town.

Isaac Williams, reported for allowing waste paper to blow in Dock street, admitted, and was fined $2.

Four seamen were in court, charged with being drunk and with breaking a stove in the Salvation Army Metropole. They were fined $8 on the first charge and instructed to see that the damage done the stove was repaired. Each of the men denied both charges and all were quite positive that they had not been drunk and had not broken the stove. They are Peter Murphy, Thos. Griffin, Thos. Fagan and Joseph Tweedie.

Policeman Semple said that he had been called to the Metropole and found a stove broken there. These men, who were drunk at the time, were accused of doing the damage, and with Sergeant Campbell and Policeman Rankine, he arrested them.

Ald. Carter, of the Salvation Army, said that the men had been drunk and had raised a disturbance in the rooms after being given beds for the night.

Peter Jackson said that he was trying to get to sleep last night in the Metropole but could not, owing to the noise being made by the defendants. He saw Murphy knock the stove over, and it fell on the legs of the witness.

A fine of $40 or forty days jail was imposed on Joseph Fleming for cutting a companion named Wm. Johnson, on board the steamer Casanbra.

Arthur Cowell, a young boy, was charged with throwing snowballs at Louis Bragar. The latter said that it happened in Union street on Friday last. The young fellow said that he had been one of a crowd of boys who had been throwing snowballs at people passing, but they had not hurt anybody.

His honor allowed the boy to go. He said that if Bragar had been a resident of this country when a boy, he would appreciate the spirit which takes possession of a boy at the first appearance of the snow.
