THE SCENE OF THE EXECUTION Andover Court House and Jail Where the Execution was Carried Out—The Fence Surrounding the Scaffold can be Seen at the Right of the Picture.

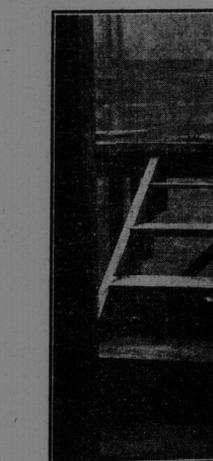

Leon Seppil

Andover, N. B., May 4.—(Special)—With the words, "Good-by, boys," on his lips, Tony Arosha stepped on the trap and met his fate without flinching, at the hands of Radcliffe, the executioner, in the jail here at six o'clock this morning.

Johnston and Jacob Kilburn, he entered the corridor in which the cells are situated. The handcuffs were quickly adjusted on the wrists of the condemned men, and without further delay the mechanical procession started on its way to the scaffold. The executioner appeared first, and Fr. Ryan, reciting the Litany to the Virgin, with the sheriff by his side followed. Arosha in charge of Kilburn, came next, with Seppil and Johnston a few paces behind. Dr. R. W. LeBlanc, the doctor in attendance, brought up the rear.

As the procession crossed the hallway of the court house, Arosha glanced up at the spectators who were standing on the stairs, but made no sign. Passing through two rooms and the kitchen, the steps leading to the gallows were reached. The doomed men walked up the scaffold unassisted, and were quickly taken in hand by the hangman. Seppil uttered a few words in Italian as he was placed on the trap. When Arosha's turn came, he said "Good-by, boys," to those standing round, and took his place about a foot behind his companion. The legs of both were pinioned and then the black cap was pulled over Arosha's head and the noose adjusted behind his left ear. He was heard to speak some words in a low tone, as if in prayer, and shivered slightly, but showed no signs of collapse.

One man was discovered hiding under a barrel close to the fence. Another man in a fur coat was found by Deputy Sheriff Armstrong, of Carleton county, who is here for the execution, lying on all fours under the veranda. The Sheriff caught him by the coat and hauling him out from under the veranda, he was taken to the jail where he was held until the morning.

The Steps Leading to the Scaffold Where Arosha and Seppil Today Met Death for "Paddy" Green's Murder.

While these preparations were in progress, Seppil turned half round and a look of horror came into his eyes as he caught sight of his companion. But a moment elapsed before his head was covered with the symbol of death and the noose was fixed about his throat. Fr. Ryan at this time began the Lord's Prayer, but was stopped by the executioner, who was not yet at his post at the lever. A moment later and the words familiar to all Christians, "Our Father who art in Heaven," reached the ears of all those within the enclosure. The strain on the spectators became intense as the priest proceeded. As he reached the words, "but deliver us from evil," the executioner pulled the lever to the right. The doors of the trap swung downwards. The black-headed figures, which had been standing motionless, shot below, out of sight. There was a sharp rattle as the trap fell, and the sentence of death had been carried out.

The murderer of Edward or "Paddy" Green near Master Rock on Dec. 19 last, was a cold blooded affair. Green had been selling jewelry in the construction camps of the G. T. P., and was known to be carrying about a large sum of money. On the morning of the murder he was walking down the right of way in company with Alexander Panarsky, a Hebrew pedlar, when they were shot at from behind a pile of logs by Tony Arosha and Leon Seppil.

The city government has been organized for another year, and six new men this morning took the oath of office along with the aldermen who were re-elected for another term.

The organization of the various boards and committees, as determined in caucus, was affected and the usual formalities incidental to the first meeting of a new council were carried out.

again. He hoped some time in the future he might ask to represent the people again. The newspapers had always treated him fairly and he had no complaint to make. He spoke in warm terms of the ability of his successor, R. T. Hayes.

The proceedings were very harmonious, several of the retiring aldermen delivering farewell addresses, while the new men made their maiden speeches.

His worship the mayor then addressed the council, and on motion of Ald. Baxter the mayor's address was referred to a committee to be named by himself.

The boards and committees were then elected as follows: Treasury board—Baxter, chairman; Public works—McGouldrick, chairman; Elkin, Holder, Sprout, Scully, Kelly, Kodner.

The following ladies were present, as well as a number of other citizens: Mrs. T. H. Bullock, Mrs. C. B. Allan, Mrs. E. G. Elkin, Mrs. W. Vanwart, Mrs. J. H. Frink, Mrs. F. S. Thomas, Mrs. R. T. Hayes, Mrs. W. A. Christie, and the Misses Kelly.

The worship the mayor presided, and called the meeting to order about ten minutes after 11. Ald. Whittet, McGouldrick and Hayes were the only aldermen present.

It was decided to abolish the harbor facilities committee as it was claimed its duties would be performed by the new harbor board.

The first matter taken up was the report of the harbor committee, which was read from yesterday's meeting. The report was taken up section by section.

The first section taken up was with reference to the salaries in the public works department.

It was decided that the engineer's salary be $2,500, the chief clerk's $800, with a maximum of $1,200; superintendent of streets $1,000, maximum $1,200.

The harbor master's salary was fixed at $1,200. In the water and sewerage department the director was fixed at $1,200, maximum $1,400, chief of the department minimum $1,200, maximum $1,600; superintendent of fire alarm $800, maximum $1,000; chief of the market $725 a year.

The appointment of the portwainers of the harbor board was fixed at $900, with maximum of $1,200, and foremen at $25 to $40 a month.

The superintendent of the ferries salary was fixed at $800 a year. Ald. Elkin moved that the salaries of the captains on the ferries be increased to $70 a month, the same as the engineers.

After some discussion the matter of the salaries of all ferry employees was referred to the ferry committee.

Ald. Holder thought Mr. McIntyre, the police clerk, should have an increase in salary. The matter was referred to the safety committee.

Ald. Baxter gave notice that he would move for an issue of debentures for paying for water pipe work lying on the Millford road. The amount is $20,000.

Moderate to fresh southerly winds; a few scattered showers, but mostly fair and milder.

Mayor Bullock's address was as follows: Gentlemen of the Common Council.—It again becomes my duty to preside over your deliberations, and right here I desire to express my sincere thanks to the citizens for their friendship and trust.

Some of you are new to the work you have been summoned to do, but you have been chosen to your responsibilities, honored by the general expectation and confidence that you will endeavor in your public service to advance only the welfare of the city. We bid you a hearty welcome to our council. Those of you who were members of the previous council bring to us a reputation for work well done, together with a helpful experience in, and a wide knowledge of municipal affairs. Association with both new and old members is therefore cause for personal gratification.

We regret the illness of ex-Alderman Hamu, who has served the city so long and faithfully. The responsibilities incumbent upon us are difficult and laborious, and to perform them well and wisely needs our careful and candid consideration, for we have in the reputation and prosperity of our city something worthy of our best efforts.

Permit me to give a review of some of the activities of the past, as well as a few recommendations for the future.

Harbor Commission The finding of the special audit reveals the fact that the city harbor properties, capitalized at 3 per cent, carry a book value of $2,964,677.00. The annual interest against these properties, after providing for sinking fund, is estimated $90,000.00. The net revenue based on three-year average, is $34,600.00, or a shortage on the year's working of $28,000.00 for the whole harbor. In separating the values, the Sand Point properties are charged with a floating debt of $1,127,000.00. The annual interest, including sinking fund, being $60,401.52. The net revenue based on three-year average, is $23,192.00, or an annual deficit of $31,209.00, on that portion of the harbor; but it is gratifying to know that this deficit is being curtailed every year.

We have been handicapped in only being able to use No. 5 and No. 6 berths to a partial extent. With these two berths available and an increase in tonnage and traffic, we can safely estimate our net revenue from berths one to six, inclusive, for 1909, as $37,000.00, with a certainty of an added increase each year the revenue will be sufficient to meet all charges against these respective wharves in a few short years.
