The action of the medicine is not only to expelivorus, but by its lost powers to prevent a return of them, by removing the weak state of the digestre ogans, on which their production mainly depends.

THE leading points to theory upon which the great use of this Syrup is preminded, is that the stomach is the seal of all unessess of a reversib nature, and any disorder incident to the stomach is cured by this article. There is therefore no lever or could asthma, inflammation or deutility, or sickness at stomach, (except with lemales, enciente,) or dysentery, or jaundice, or dyspepsia, but what it will cure.
