LONG TIME IN CITY SERVICE—Many will be sorry to learn that Patrick McHale, 82 Exmouth street, teamster in the city employ, is very ill at his home. He has been kept in the hospital for the last twelve weeks. Mr. McHale has been a valued man in the city public works employ for twenty-seven years and stands high in general estimation.

DEATH OF URIAH DRAKE—General regret was expressed this morning when it was learned that Uriah Drake, of West St. John, a well known and highly respected citizen, had passed away. Mr. Drake was a member of the board of assessors for many years and at one time was one of the aldermen of the city. He was a member of St. George's church, West St. John. He was eighty-five years of age and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. William H. Shaw of this city. Just recently his son, Walter, who resided in the west, died. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon from St. George's church.

NOVELTY SHOWER—On Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Emery, Tower West End, about twenty-five friends gave a novelty shower to their daughter, Miss Kathleen, in honor of a coming event. The presented a novelty shower in honor of Miss Bertha Laskey, who is to be a principal in a happy event in the near future. After a social evening of games and music, refreshments were served.

ENTERTAINED SOLDIERS—The Men's Association of St. Andrew's church entertained about 300 members of the 17th and 21st battalions in the lecture room of the church last evening. An excellent programme was carried out and the band of both battalions added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Benevolent Society. J. H. Hamilton acted as chairman. A small British flag was presented to each soldier as a souvenir of the occasion.

THEY NEED ATTENTION—There are serious acts of vandalism by boys in Haymarket square reported, and the boys are not all young ones. Last evening some thirty were carrying on in the square. Some tramped over beds of shrubs, damaged the railing around the flag, uprooted a young tree and two of them were seen digging at one of the trees. Citizens who spoke to the Times about it were naturally indignant and suggested vigorous police action.

WON FLAG CUSHION.—The drawing of a lottery conducted by the Russian young men took place in Carleton street hall last evening. Mr. Saunders of the Boston restaurant in Charlotte street, was the lucky winner. The proceeds will be donated to the Russian Relief Fund. The sum of $100 was realized. Isaac Webber presided at the drawing.

Had Russia been equipped with railway transportation, say as in Canada, there would have been able to have played a much greater part in this war.

"I happened to be in Petrograd during the revolution and perhaps saw as much of it as any one. The casualties in Petrograd were heavy as were those in the navy amongst the officers. Foreigners were not molested deliberately and any killed was due to accident.

"When the revolution was at its height, I went to the Duna. It was rather a long walk from the British embassy so we asked some soldiers to take us on a sleigh filled with revolutionists. They did so. Arriving at the Duna we had to make our way through a dense mob of soldiers, sailors, workmen, etc. Recognizing the British uniform cheers went up for the Angliaki (English). It would make the heart of the least emotional man beat faster to think he was on a sleigh filled with revolutionists. They did so.
