Those Invalid Soldiers.

St. John, N. B., Dec. 4.

Editor Times:—

Dear Sir—Last week you were kind from us regarding the treatment of invalid soldiers off the Corsican; the letter was also published in the Standard, and that paper referred it to Charles Robinson of the Returned Soldiers' Aid Committee, who refuted our statement and said only two men were marched over to the discharge depot. We then sent a denial through the Standard said only two men were marched over to the discharge depot. We then Standard said only two men were marched over to the discharge depot.
