

FEARFUL TALE OF MASSACRE OF ARMENIANS

Some 950,000 Counted as Destroyed Since Turks Began Their Terrible Work

Rome, Nov. 29.—We solemnly believe that out of the million or more inhabitants of the provinces of Trebizond, Erzerum, Sivas, Van, Bitlis, Diarbekir and Kharpout hardly 50,000 have escaped.

These few words reveal a tragedy without parallel in the history of the world. They show that the fragmentary reports which have reached the outside world of the Armenian massacres give only glimpses of the actual situation.

It was an Armenian prelate who made this statement to the International News Service correspondent today. He has a personal knowledge of conditions in Armenia and has received official reports telling of the fate suffered by the helpless Armenians.

Commander Agostino Gorriani, who is Italian consul-general at Trebizond for six years, gave the first authentic news of conditions in Armenia, and it was through him that the International News Service correspondent was enabled to get the interview with the Armenian prelate.

950,000 Slain. While Commander Gorriani had partially lifted the veil behind which he had concealed the Armenian horrors, it remained for this prelate to reveal the fact that 950,000 Armenians are believed to have been massacred after suffering terrible tortures or been driven into the desert to die of hunger and thirst.

It was in the Armenian College at Rome, also the residence of the general procurator of Armenia, that the prelate received the correspondent. He said: "We have only been able to collect facts of the massacres since the beginning of the Ottoman Empire, namely Trebizond, Sivas, Van, Bitlis and Erzerum.

Full Story Not Known. "There have been revealed to us by the few of our people who have been warned in time had been able to escape to Russian Armenia. But the facts are hard to collect even now. It is a thorough investigation either by a neutral country's accredited representative or out of the question for the present. It will be a year or two before we shall be able to reconstruct in full the greatest of the massacres which Constantinople has ordered against its people.

Greatest Massacre of All. "Yes, the greatest, that of 1894-7, ordered by Abdul Hamid, when two hundred thousand Armenian men, women and children were slaughtered in the streets of the capital and in the principal cities, is nothing compared with the magnitude of the present one carried on under the auspices of the Young Turks, or rather the Young Turk empire, which is now in progress. I deem it superfluous to speak of the 1896 massacre ordered by the Young Turk empire, which was a repetition of the Hamidian despotism and securing a constitution, in that massacre, only, thirty thousand were slain.

Refined Murder. "But today we are confronted with a determined, well organized, better executed attempt to wipe off the face of the earth the Armenian race. Even the methods employed to accomplish this end are different. Abdul Hamid was a poor, primitive savage compared with the refined Young Turks. In those days we knew the massacre would last only a few hours, or a few days, and that those who had somehow succeeded in avoiding the fury of the mob would be safe when the troops were sent in to stop the massacre. Besides this method was quicker and less painful. A man was slain and his torture ended then and there. Also we were able to count our dead.

"Today the method is radically different. Blood is no longer flowing under the eye of the shocked European in the streets of cities of Turkey. The heads of the victims are no longer carried on the pike of the brutal Kurd, nor ornamenting the gates of the Mosques and the entrances of the houses and shops. The Young Turk knows that this offends the sense of justice and humanity of even his allies and in the present massacre he has endeavored to hide the appalling crime he has planned.

Priests Slain on Altars. "But the Kurds, and the Ottoman fanatics' lust for blood could not be wholly restrained. Here and there in the cities of the interior blood has flowed as in the Hamidian days. At Angora ten Armenian priests were slain before the altar of their churches, and twenty-seven Armenian employees of the Angora-Constantinople railway were found along the tracks with their heads severed.

"The Bishop of Maridin in the province of Diarbekir, Monsignor Mahajan, was beheaded on the threshold of the convent where he was endeavoring to prevent the mob from breaking in.

Bishop Murdered. "At Cesarea, the Armenian Bishop, Monsignor Anthony Bahaban, and the Bishop of the Schismatic church were both murdered while defending their flocks.

"At Diarbekir, three Armenian bishops were burned in the public square before the eyes of the assembled Armenian population, on the point of being interned in the desert.

"But these are only a few instances hardly worth mentioning in the great catastrophe which has befallen our race. From the reports already received we know that a positive fact, that out of sixty or seventy thousand Armenians inhabiting the province of Van, only ten thousand succeeded in crossing the border and finding a place of refuge in Russian Armenia.

"Of the sixty or more thousand Armenians residing within the city of Trebizond only about a hundred are left, but we do not know anything of the forty thousand Armenians of the province of Sivas. We know that Sivas has been burned to the ground and that the same fate has befallen Tokat, Amassia, Gurin and Merzifun. From a priest of Amassia, we know the Catholic convicts of

COL. DANSEREAU AND TWO REGIMENTAL BANDS

Will Attend the Automobile Drawing at St. Andrew's Rink Friday Evening

In view of the enormous sale of tickets and the general interest aroused in the automobile drawing tomorrow evening, a very large attendance is anticipated. The bands of the 104th and 69th Regiments will participate, assembling at the head of King street and marching to the rink at eight o'clock where a program of music and speeches will be carried out, after which, at sharp nine o'clock, Colonel Dansereau, who will be introduced by Colonel Sturges, will select from a mammoth chuff the lucky ticket that will place some fortunate person in possession of a handsome "White" touring car.

The Nurses' Red Cross Club have worked energetically in their efforts to secure a substantial sum for the British Red Cross and are anxious to see a very large gathering at the climax of their efforts.

IMPERIAL THEATRE OFFERS A BIG FILM VARIETY

Miscellaneous Programme Concludes Tonight—John Barrymore in "The Dictator" Tomorrow, Also "The Broken Coin"

There was a little hull at the Imperial Theatre yesterday following the brilliant Lauder engagement but it is expected tonight's business will resume with ordinary spirit and volume. A variety programme offered yesterday and to be concluded tonight, is particularly interesting as it contains three new plays, a visit to Rouen, France; a visit to the Pacific during a hurricane; and a good steam travel in the North Sea and a budget of photo-news in the Hearst-Selig Weekly. Miss Lely's singing is also a pleasing item. Surely this is a splendid mixture of pictures for those who like variety.

John Barrymore, who appears in "The Dictator," at the Imperial tomorrow, is quite justifiably said to be the prince of comedians in tomorrow's variety. He is about to be the scapegoat for a lot of plotting and double-crossing, and a general disappointment in love. The whole story is a riot of merriment and will wind the week up with plenty of laughter. "The Broken Coin" will be continued in the same programme for those who like variety.

Quebec is Loyal Says Mr. Lemieux. Two-Fifths of Canadians in First Contingent of French Descent Declares Criticism Unjust

Quebec's part in the war is no mean one, according to Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, in an address to the Women's Loyal Association in the Y. W. C. A. hall, Montreal, recently, when he described what his province was doing in the great conflict. At the outset he declared that Quebec was largely an agricultural province and that labor was in demand. Out of the 4,000 Canadian-born soldiers who went with the first contingent, he said, 2,000 were of French descent. He gave Sir Sean Hughes' estimate of 10,000 as an approximate figure of the number of French-Canadians in France.

Condemnation of the Nationalist policy and reminders that Laurier was now sought to appeal to his compatriots rally to the colors, while the Nationalist leaders were "believed," were made by Mr. Lemieux.

"In spite of the fact that labor is in strong demand, recruiting is proceeding quietly in Quebec. When the roster is finally made up the Province of Quebec will very nearly measure up to the rest of Canada. Toronto was referred to as the city where charity is the first prospect. The appeal was made that the judges between the two peoples would vanish if the grass was not allowed to grow on the trail between the two provinces.

"We cherish the same ideals for which our boys are dying on the Flanders and France," declared Mr. Lemieux. Referring to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the speaker said that he was in "better shape now than ever before, and that he was ready for a tussle if a tussle was necessary." "Notwithstanding the campaign of 1911, I am proud to say Quebec is honorably represented in the trenches," said Mr. Lemieux. "In spite of his age, Sir Wilfrid will still appeal to his fellow-men to stand by Great Britain, the flag and the king. There is not a hamlet in Quebec that is not working for the various patriotic funds and for the soldiers. Funds are provided to support peasants of the invaded French territory. Quebec is at heart entirely with you in this struggle. You cannot libel a whole province because of the protests of a few men who do not represent the heart and soul of the people."

A series of monster recruiting meetings was planned, he said, which were calculated to fan the flames of French-Canadian patriotism. "It will never be said," he declared, "that Great Britain's difficulties were Quebec's opportunities."

GREEN GRASS IN DECEMBER To go along the Gernain street boulevard on Dec. 2 and see the grass as green as in summer is a joy to the man who wants an excuse to tell about the "old-fashioned winter."

Tokat and Amassia were destroyed and the most shameful of all fates befel the harmless, defenseless inmates, whose only crime was that of assisting the despicable Mohammedan women and girls.

"Of the province of Kharpout, Diarbekir, or the Armenians residing at Sumra and Beirut, of the small communities of the interior we know nothing yet and will probably know little for a long, long time. The facts are slow in coming in, above all it is difficult to collect them and avoid exaggerations, but we are working hard."

A SIGNAL HONOR FOR THE PRINCESS PATS Capt. C. McDonald Writes They Are Instructing Hundreds of British Subalterns—Only Unit With Colors

(Montreal Gazette) Montrealers will be glad to hear that the P. P. C. I. E. are still winning signal honors at the front, so much so that they have now been detailed to act in an instructional capacity to a large number of young British subalterns and N.C.O.s. This information is contained in an interesting letter from Captain George McDonald, who had a commission with the 3rd Universities Contingent, that left some time ago as reinforcements for the Princess Pats, and has evidently been with them for some time.

Capt. McDonald's letter is dated from France, Nov. 10, and is, in part, as follows: "On Monday we had a delightful march of about ten miles to this village, or rather town, for it is much larger than any of the other places in which we have been billeted.

"Before leaving in the morning we were received by General Smith, Brigadier of the 90th Brigade, to which we were saying farewell. He made a good address and spoke very highly of the P. P. C. I. E. I could not speak very highly of the regiment, and is most popular with the other battalions and very highly thought of by the O. C. I was detailed to carry the flag on this occasion. This occasioned standing or marching at attention for 1 1/2 hours, with a squad of three sergeants with fixed bayonets. When the men saw me come on parade, they thought I was under arrest. They told me that the P. P. C. I. E. is the only battalion in the army which is carrying its colors to the field.

"We have now been paid the signal honor of being attached to the 30th Division as instructional battalion. I understand this entails our being used during the next ten weeks for the instruction of between one and two hundred young subalterns and N. O.s.

"Our march was again westwards and northwards. By that we are gradually slipping up toward the Canadian division.

"I am billeted over a butcher shop. Fortunately it is small and clean, and carry little stock on hand. I have a very comfortable room and go in for the luxury of a bath every morning. Today the men of our company are having baths in the baths of a nearby factory. They are billeted in a music hall, which has encouraged them to give a concert.

"I have just been practicing my French. Madame Boudier, a French girl, short and stout and possessed of a very quiet, gentle voice, much appreciated after the terribly noisy time at last billet. Madame has had all kinds of troops to entertain during the year. French Artillery, Cavalry, Turcos, Algerians, English, and now Canadians. There have also been Indians in the town. We shall probably be here for several weeks, and the officers all agree that it is the best billet we have had yet."

GOVERNOR A WITNESS. The case for the people of Sackville, Light & Power Co. of Sackville case, before the Public Utilities Commission. Evidence regarding the speed of electricity power during the day time, which the company wishes to curtail, was given by Lieutenant-Governor Wood, H. C. Read and George E. Ford. The hearing was continued this afternoon at three o'clock.

THE NEW HOSPITAL. The formal opening exercises of the new county hospital will take place at four o'clock on next Thursday afternoon when speeches will be made by the warden of the municipal council, the Mayor and other prominent citizens. The building will be open for inspection from two to six o'clock that afternoon.

Sunshine in the Home. A sunbeam is a small thing, yet it has a power to fade the carpets and curtains, to rot the blinds, and for this reason some folk carefully exclude the sunshine. What is the result? The family is always ailing, the young girls have a waxen white skin and a weary, pinched expression of countenance. The appetites fail; they fall into such a bad state of health that the doctor is called in. In older days he would have shaken his head, perhaps, and friends would have whispered that dread word, "decline." Nowadays he notes the pale gums and waxen skin, and says "anemia," prescribes iron and milk, fresh air, exercise and often a change. If he knows nothing about the darkened rooms, he will be puzzled as to why no permanent improvement comes, and possibly the patient will seek other advice.
