Trained Worker to Head Social Service Activities Also Discussed

The lack of a social tervice clearing station in the city and of a trained worker to head up social service activities in Saint John was the subject of general comment at the meeting of the board of governors of the Health Centre last night. It was the general opinion of the meeting that such service would be of very great material benefit to the city.

The subject was first brought up by Dr. William Warwick who told of wany times when the Health Centre had been made to serve this purpose.

Miss H. MacKay, superintendent of the V.O.N., addressed the meeting and told of the work of the nruses.

Miss MacKay, spoke of the antipathy to the Municipal Home found among the poor for whom the home would really be a haven of refuge.

Dr. G. A. B. Addy, president, was in the chair and the meeting was well attended.

The clinic reports showed the attendance at the 87 Health Centre broadcast at the 88 Health Centre broadcas

Local Man Recalls Queen At Regatta

Edward Southwick, head waiter at the Royal Hotel, is one of those in the city who has personal recollections of Dowager Queen Alexandra, whose death was announced yesterday. Mr. Southwick was present on the yacht Chazalie, owned by M. deFalbe, Danish Minister to England, when Alexandra, then Princess of Wales, was a luncheon guest of Mme. deFalbe. He was at that time in the employ of Mrs. Forbes, daughter of Mme. deFalbe.

The occasion was during the Cowes regatta and a number of the cream of England's aristocracy was present at the luncheon. Among those present
