

OPEN NEW GARAGE 90 DUKE; MAY 1

John M. Bates and Oliver W. Woods in Splendid, Roomy, Fire Proof Quarters.

With the coming of May 1 St. John will boast another garage—and a very fine one. It will be conducted at 90 Duke street by two hustling young business men as the United Garage Company. The proprietors are John M. Bates, who resigned as manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia Paradise row branch to go into business, and Oliver W. Woods, manager of the United Automobile Tire Co., Ltd., which post he also will continue to hold.

The garage is a large building in Duke street, near Charlotte, built of brick set in concrete and so fireproof, cement flooring, large entry and exit, a roomy yard before the street is reached and no bothersome street car rails to worry about.

There is storage room for fifty-five cars. A machine shop for repair work is being set up and Frank Cornier, an expert workman, will be in charge.

The new firm is going to make "Service" the watchword and with their excellent personal equipment and their fine quarters they expect to be able to give auto owners the very best of satisfaction.
