ENGLISH SOCIETY WOMEN'S TRAPPINGS

London (Correspondence of A. P.)—The trappings which the fashionable English woman must have are becoming more luxurious almost every week, the latest (August) instance being the diction that umbrella and handbag must match.

Tortoise-shell and ivory fittings are the favorite choice for silk umbrellas and bags and, with ivory, bottle-green silk is liked for its Old-World effect.

Both ivory and tortoise-shell are costly, which may account for their popularity, but ivory is the higher priced. An umbrella fitted with a solid stick and a bag as much more. Both umbrella and bag are, as a rule, finished with the owner's initials, at an additional cost of $7.50.

In the country and at the seaside, where covered sunshades, with handbags to match, are popular. The sunshades are domeshaped, and are patterned with Chinese garden, pagoda, large bird and flower effects. Bags, commodious enough to carry a stock-ette bathing suit, needlework, knitting or crochet, and even a light luncheon, accompany the sunshade, the wearer slipping the composition bracelet handle over her wrist.

DUBLIN GRAVE DIGGERS AND HEARSE DRIVERS ON STRIKE

Dublin, Aug. 25.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—A strike of grave diggers in Dublin maintained for some weeks at Glasnevin Cemetery has caused much inconvenience and some risk to the public health. It was mitigated however, by the decision of the Cemetery Committee to permit interments by people having plots in the cemetery provided that they opened and closed the graves themselves without calling on the committee for assistance. The grave-diggers have now appealed to the hearse drivers who have declared a sympathetic strike and refused to convey bodies for burial.

A PAVING PROBLEM.

Some difficulty has been encountered in the paving of Germain street. Near the entrance to the city market it was found that the seepage from the high levels was running under the street foundation at this point and it was found necessary to dig the street up again and put in some large stones as a foundation.

MAKES CHILDREN HAPPY IN OVER FORTY CITIES

J. D. O'Connell's Appeal to all to Help The Orphans and Children of The Poor

In the course of an address at his picnic for children on Halifax common last week J. D. O'Connell, the orphans' friend, said:

"I have been giving children picnics for more than thirty years and give them now in more than forty different towns and cities in Canada, United States, Central America and Cuba. I give them in all of the places in Central America and Cuba in winter, the weather there being like our summer here, and I send money to the mayor of each city to give Christmas treats to every orphan in all of these places, and I have left a fund sufficient to perpetuate these picnics and Christmas presents for all time."

"And now I will offer advice to those who are charitably inclined and who would be glad to help the poor people if they were sure that they were worthy. To those I say: Help the orphans, seek out poor children anywhere they may be, whether orphans or not they are always worthy no matter what brought them to poverty, no matter whether their parents were lazy or drunkards or murderers they are not to blame. I am a great believer in the old saying 'an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure,' only I would like to change the word 'pound' to 'ton' or 'hundred tons,' and I know many a child may be saved from a life of shame or a life of crime and disgrace by a kindly act or encouraging word or friendly advice. Let them know that somebody is interested in them, that somebody cares for them, that somebody loves them. Oh! ladies and gentlemen, if you could realize the effect these things have upon the minds of children, if you realized how easily the young mind may be turned to the right or to the left when they come to the 'parting of the ways' you would all agree that the greatest good for humanity can be done with the least effort among the orphans and children of the poor and you would never get tired of helping them."
