MUST GO TO WAR

Montreal Man Who Has Objection to Killing Any of God's Creatures

Montreal, April 18—"I object to the killing of any of God's creatures," said James Rowland Blennerhassett to Justice Dumas yesterday in an examination duelling appeal court. "What would you do if you saw your sister attacked in the street?" the judge asked.
"It is impossible for me to imagine such a situation. As a Christian I believe God will look after all His creatures and permit them no harm," was the reply.
"I shall give you an opportunity to test your theories in France," said the judge, and Mr. Blennerhassett will go to don khaki.
