FAIRWEATHER-HENDERSON

The wedding of Norman Percy Fairweather of Lower Norton to Eliza Aileen Henderson of Rethesay took place this morning in St. Paul's church, Rethesay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Norman Parker, assisted by Rev. Canon A. W. Daniel.

WORK RESUMED

The men who have been on strike at the plant of the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, Ltd., resumed work this morning according to the terms of the agreement referred to on another page of the Times-Star. Almost all reported back this morning and were notified as to the shift in which they would work.

BODY OF INFANT FOUND

Some ten or twelve days ago the body of a female infant was discovered under the railway bridge near Base Verte station. At the inquest, Dr. H. Allen, who examined the body, expressed the opinion that the child was from six to twelve days old; the cause of the death, and that it had probably been dead about nine days.

WILL DIVIDE EQUALLY.

When the Fair Vale Outing Association failed to agree on plans for the erection of a pavilion and it was decided to divide the money on hand between the Protestant and Catholic organizations, it was decided also to sell a lot of land which had been acquired as a site in 1913. Hon. John E. Wilson, who, with William S. Clark, was one of the trustees of the property, announced today that the lot will be sold at public auction at Chubb's corner on Saturday and the proceeds will be divided equally between the Protestant and Catholic organizations of the city.

GERMANS SEEKING BUSINESS

The enterprise which is being shown by the Germans in seeking to recapture the business lost to them by the war, and so establish new connections, is being advertised in a newspaper received by this newspaper from an advertising agency in Berlin. The letter commences:—"Considering the opening of the commercial relations between our countries, our advertising agency has already received a number of inquiries concerning advertisements in your press." This is followed by requests for rates, etc.

Ferhill Directors' Quarterly Meeting—New Method of Arranging Lots

The quarterly meeting of Ferhill directors was held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon with the president, Colonel Sturdee, in the chair. The financial statement for the quarter was reviewed and it was found that labor charges had again increased $10.00 compared with the same period last year. The superintendent's report concerning the recent visit to the convention of cemetery officials of Canada in Toronto was received, and in conformity with the latest plan of these cemetery representatives at the convention, Mr. Clayton was authorized to lay out the new section of the graves to be level or fashioned in low rolling mounds. This system is adopted to save path weeding and the hand tending which is necessary for squarely mounded graves, the low mounds being adaptable to machine work. It is thought that greater care can be given and better result obtained in this way, and if the plan proves successful it may be adopted in other sections of the cemetery. The meeting deprecated the holding of Sunday funerals except in cases of absolute necessity. Many modern cemeteries are ruling against funerals on Sunday.

A specification for individual sailor and soldier headstones, as adopted in other parts of Canada, was approved; the markers to be a horizontal gray granite slab to be set flush with the turf. A blue print of the same was secured by the superintendent while in Toronto. It was decided to purchase a power lawn mower at a cost of between $500 and $600. The operation of this machine was observed by one of the directors and the superintendent in cemeteries of Upper Canada and the United States. It is hoped that it will accomplish the work of five hand mowers.

LUSTY ROOSTER NOISY WITNESS

Brought into Police Court And Makes Quite a Commotion—A Busy Morning

In the police court this morning a case against two lads, charged with breaking and entering and stealing goods from the store of T. Collins & Company, at rear of Bank of Nova Scotia building, Charlotte street, was resumed. Francis Collins, a member of the firm, told of finding the store broken into and goods stolen. He said also that the store had been broken into about seven times during the last six months. The lads were found on the roof of the building together with a quantity of cigarettes valued at about $18.45.

Sergeant Scott said that in consequence of information received he went to the store with Policemen Dykeman and Linton. Before entering the store he told the policemen to go to the rear of the building. He went to the roof, where he saw the lads, one sitting near the edge of the roof, the other was hanging by his hands over the edge, preparing to drop on the ground. He also told of finding three boxes of cigarettes on the roof. He lifted the lad from over the edge of the roof and handed both boys to the policemen, who were waiting at the skylight, and they took them to the central police station. Policeman Dykeman gave corroborative evidence and added that one of the lads made a break for liberty, but was soon caught again. This case was again postponed for further hearing.

The magistrate said that if the lads had been arrested when they were seen in the street they would not be before the court on such a serious charge. He continued by saying: "Last night at 10.55 I saw girls marching in battalion order, and when they came to a store, 'right wheel,' they marched up to a window, 'hull' looked in at the window stopping pedestrians who wished to get by." He said the girls and boys should be kept off the streets at nights and there would not be so much crime.

Fred Keefe was charged with breaking and entering, and stealing hens from George L. Craig, Brussels street. The complainant told of missing from ten to a dozen hens and a rooster from his henhouse on October 2. To prove property, a rooster, which had been lodged in jail, was ordered into court for identification. Policeman Linton, who made the arrest, brought the bird in and it created quite a commotion, and even the stern command, "order," given by the court sergeant, did not lessen its shrill cries for liberty. The bird was identified as being similar to the missing one. Policeman Linton was then put on the stand and as his charge, now becoming accustomed to him, would not be kept quiet by anyone else, the policeman was compelled to give evidence while holding the bird. He said that on Monday night, September 29, while passing the Star Cafe he heard the noise of a hen or rooster, and on investigation found the accused with the rooster under his arm. He arrested him and took him to the police station.

Han Sun, proprietor of the Star Cafe, said that the accused entered and wanted $100 to buy the bird. The case was postponed for a further hearing.

Inspector Merryfield, while walking along Chubb's street, accompanied by his wife last night, noticed a man walking along suspiciously. The inspector accosted him and told the man to move on, but noticing an enlarged hip, he slapped his hand on it and produced a bottle. The man was brought to the police station by the inspector. As a result, William Pierce, Moss Glen was charged with being drunk and having liquor in his possession. He pleaded guilty and said he got the liquor on the train paying for it. A fine of $8 or two months in jail was imposed for being drunk, and $200 or six months for having liquor in his possession illegally.

JOHN CANTY FOUND DEAD IN WEST END

John Canty, about sixty-five years of age, was found dead this morning at 6 o'clock on Wellington wharf, West St. John by Alice Nixon. Mr. Canty was employed as watchman on the dredge Beacon Bar, and was a native of Yarmouth, N. S. Dr. E. L. Kennedy, coroner, viewed the body. Mr. Canty had been a patient of Dr. Kennedy's for some time, being afflicted with heart disease. No inquest was necessary and the body was moved to Brennan's undertaking parlors to be prepared for burial. It will be taken to Yarmouth tomorrow for interment. Mr. Canty leaves two sons, Richard B. Canty of Britain street and Isaac L. Canty of 160 Princess street. A large circle of friends extend sympathy to the bereaved ones.

MUNICIPAL POLITICS IN LANCASTER STIRRING

The political pot over Lancaster is still boiling over the councillors' election which is to be held in the near future. Besides Warden Wm. Golding and councillor John O'Brien, the present members, C. H. Belyea is offered as the third man on the ticket.

Friends of Dr. M. Queen are anxious that he should run, saying that his business experience and the fact that he is a large property holder, would win him much support. Richmond H. Cushing, formerly city engineer, and a resident of Lancaster, is likely to be a fourth man for Mr. Queen. Yesterday it was said the latter had not definitely decided to come out for election.

J. J. Dwyer of Milford has been generally mentioned as a possible candidate, but it is reported that he has decided not to seek election this year.

Glendon H. Allan and Murray Campbell are actively on the job these days and are regarded as definitely in the race.

Meanwhile it looks as though Lancaster was bestirring itself for a merry election.

Furniture Selling Methods

The after-the-war period—with its readjustment and its unprecedented prosperity—has materially changed the conditions in the Furniture markets. Prices have been constantly going up—labor costs more and materials are hard to obtain. In fact, it has been practically impossible to purchase Furniture in any quantity at any price.

This necessarily calls for a readjustment and rearrangement of policy among Furniture Retailers.

Everett's policy of "quality first"—High-grade Furniture at as low a figure as it consistently possible—will continue as it has since the foundation of the business. Our stock will constantly be kept up-to-the-minute with fresh new styles and patterns, and as fast as odd pieces accumulate or pattern and styles discontinued by the manufacturer, they will be offered at specially reduced price for quick disposal, irrespective of the time of the year.

Keep posted on these special values by reading our ads. regularly. You'll profit by doing so.

Our service to the people of this city, in showing only reliable furniture and asking only a reasonable profit on each sale, will continue to satisfy you.
