

Much excellent council has been handed forth both yesterday and to-day, and the prayer of our hearts is that we may be not only hearers of the word, but doers also.

This meeting adjourned to meet at ten o'clock on Second Day next.

Second Day Morning, 6th Mo. 25th, 1883.

Friends met near the hour adjourned to.

Essays of epistles for Iowa, Western and Kansas Yearly Meetings were presented by the committee on essays, and have been read and approved by this meeting, and the clerk was directed to sign and forward them to the correspondents of these yearly meetings respectively.

This Meeting is united in printing the women's minutes ourselves, and we appoint Margaret Jane Jones as treasurer. We also appoint Eliza H. Varney, Margaret Jane Jones and Rhoda Garratt a printing committee, and they are to call on the treasurer for funds to defray expenses, said funds to be raised by voluntary subscription by the members of the Quarterly Meetings in attendance and placed in the hands of the treasurer. The Monthly Meetings are requested to appoint two women Friends to receive funds for defraying expenses that may be incurred in printing and send to the Yearly Meeting treasurer, who is to report to this meeting next year.

Eliza H. Varney is appointed to gather up the exercises of this meeting in the form of a salutation of love to all our absent members, and present it to our next meeting.

The minutes of the representative meeting have been read, also the report of their committee, showing that many of our members have been brought into very close trials, and under straitened circumstances.

The report was satisfactory to this Meeting.

The Meeting then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.
