

together with that of the Board of Examiners to their having passed the said examination.

Regular Students who have passed a sessional examination or examinations in the work of the lower years, and who by superior diligence and attainment are fitted to enter upon Theological studies, must pass an examination in all the work specified, with the exception of that in which they have been previously examined; such examination to be held also on the first Thursday in October.

III. Divinity Students who have already taken a part of their Theological course in other recognized institutions, will be admitted on the presentation of regular certificates of good standing and dismissal from the authorities of such institutions, to their standing in this College.

IV. Occasional Students may be admitted to attendance upon courses of lectures on presenting a Presbyterial order to that effect, or on payment of the fee of four dollars for each full course, or of ten dollars for all the courses. Such occasional Students are not required to pass the terminal or sessional examinations, nor are they eligible for the scholarships and other rewards open to regular Students. Should they, however, desire to take the sessional examinations, certificates of their proficiency may be given them by the Professors whose lectures they have attended. The Senate may remit the fees in special cases.

THEOLOGICAL CURRICULUM.

The course of instruction in Theology extends over three sessions of six months each. In addition to the ordinary subjects taught in the classes of the various Professors as prescribed for each year, in which every student must pass an examination at the close of the session, an honour course is provided, which is optional and in which no lectures are given, but to which certificates of honor, scholarships and medals are attached.
