Office s.

London, Aug. 1.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Parliamentary Secretary Brodrick announced the re-ceipt of a despatch from Gen. Sir Alfred Gaselee, commanding the British forces in China, stating that he contemplated an immediate advance on Pekin, and that he hoped to have the co-operation of the allied forces.

CHINESE JUGGLING.

Charges lampering with the Dates

London, Aug. 1.—(4 a. m.)—A ensational Shanghai correspondent sensational Shanghai correspondent sum hints that the Chinese are jug-gling with dates, but, in face of the that the Ministers were safe on July 22, and despite the omission from all the despatches of anxiously deired information regarding the real streation, political and otherwise at Pekin, there are very few in London who do not believe the despatches genuine and reliable.

The allies now confront a most difficult and dangerous problem. Without doubt the Ministers are leaded by the Chinese as host areas and held by the Chinese as hostages, and the outcome of the advance on Pe-kin, which, in all probability, has already begun, will be awaited with already begin, will be awatted with intense anxiety. To-day's despatches show that the allies, notably the Japanese, have been pushing their preparations with feverish haste, organizing a service of pack carts, trains and junks.

Gives the Besuits of the Attacks on the London, Aug. 1.—A special despatch from Tien Tsin yesterday says: "A Pekin message, dated July 21, reports that the first outside news reached there July 18. The failure of the relief expedition made the siege far more perilous." "On June 19 the Tsung li Yamen broke off relations. June 30 China (teclared war.")

Baron Von Ketteler and Francis mes, an English professor, were greated. "Over 400 non-combatants occu-pied the British legation. I underpred the British legation. I understand converts are holding the north cathedral. A thousand refugees occupied the palace of Prince Li.

"A truce began July 17, after 26 days of fierce assault. One night shelling was uninterrupted for six hours. "Four attempts were made to fire the British legation. Two attacks resulted in the ruin of Han Lin col-lege, the Chinese National College. The cowardice of the Chinese pre-

The report that a large relief force was coming produced this change. "Foreign Governments should be aware of being hoodwinked."

NEWS FROM PEKIN JULY 23.

Military Attache at U.S. Legation Calls For Holp For Liberty.

Washington, Aug. 1.—Adjutant-General Corbin yesterday received a despatch from Lieut.-Col. Coolidge. commanding the 9th Infantry at Tien Tsin. It came by way of Che Foo. and is as follows:

'Tien Tsin, July 27.—Following letter of Lieut.-Col. Shiba, military attache at the legation of Pekin, dated July 23, arrived Tien Tsin 25th, at 9 o'clock in the evening:

We are all awatting impatiently arrival of reinforcing army. When are you coming? All legations have been blockaded since 13th last month, and since the 20th we have been attacked continuously by the Chinese by more continuously by the Chinese by more than 10 encampments. By a supreme effort we are still defending. We are daily awaiting with the greatest anxiety reinforcing army, and if you can't reach here in less than a week's time it is probable we will be unable to hold out any longer. Emperor and Empress Dowager appear to be still at Pekin. Were our reinforcements to arrive, very probably that they would flee to Wanshoshan. Killed and wounded up to date—Killed, one captain of infantry and an ambassador's attache; 7 seriously wounded; the first secretary of the legation being one of 20 slightly wounded. The number of Europeans killed is 60 in all. Coolidge.'"

ANOTHER MESSAGE FROM CONGER ing on Legations since July 16. Washington, Aug. 1.—The War Department last eming received two cablegrams from China. The first

"Che Foo, (undated)—To Corbin, Washington: Tien Tsin, July 27. Message just received from Conger, says since 16th, by agreement, no firing. Have provisions several weeks, little ammunition; all safe, well. I (Daggett) report allied force soon advance, Practically no looting by Americans, no unnecessary killing. Indiana arrived 26th, Order MacCann, Sladen, both Allens, Mitchell, Brice, joined regiment here. Sgd. Daggett."

Sladen, both Allens, Mitchell, Brice, joined regiment here, Sgd. Daggett."
The second read:
"Che Foo.—Corbin, Washington: Tien Tsin, July 30.—Flintshire arrived 27th. Two hundred and fitty-seven 9th Infantry sick, 10 doctors, 100 hospital corps men, 20 single men needed; unavoidable delay unloading transports. Foreign troops arriving. (Sgd. Daggett.)" Russians Captured Forts

Berne, Aug. 1.—Communication between Che Foo and Shanghai has been re-established, and a despatch from Che Foo, dated July 29, confirms the report that the Russians captured the forts at Niuchwang on Lin 28 July 26.

A Call For Help. Remie, Aug. 1.—The commander of the Italian cruiser Elba, at Tien Tsin, received the following teleyesterday from the Japanese y attache at Pekin, dated gram yesterday from the Japanese military attache at Pekin, dated July 22:

"The legations are eagerly awaiting relief. Cannot hold out long. Sixty Europeans killed." London, Aug. 1.—Important additional confirmation of the safety of the legations was received in London last evening by Mr. Duncan Campbell, representative in Europe of the Chinese customs service, from the Commissioner of Customs at Che Foo, in the shape of a Pekin de-spatch, not dated, but believed to have been written on July 21, signed by both Sir Robert Hart, Inspector-General of Customs, and Mr. Robert Bredon, Deputy Inspector-General, to the following effect:

to the following effect:

"Staff and family are still safe."
This has been confirmed by the Commissioner of Customs in Shanghai, who telegraphed last evening:
"Authentic, Inspector-General safe, twenty-second."

London Arg. 1.—(4 a. m.)—It is reported from unonicial, but usually reliable source, that the Chinese Minister at St. Petersburg wired to Li Hung Chang, intimating the possibility of obtaining favorable terms of settlement with Russia if China would adopt a conciliatory attitude, would adopt a conciliatory attitude, and compel a cessation of the attacks on the legations. Thereupon, according to this information, Li Hung Chang memorialized the throne, representing that he was ill and unable to come to Pekin, but urged that every endeavor be made to send the Ministers to Tien Tsin, and to ensure the safety of foreigners and missionaries.

Rome, Aug. 1.—A despatch received here says: "The Chinese Government is detaining 600 Europeans as hostages, including the Ministers and their families and the members of the locations."
