But a change of thought has occurred; organization is spreading, and with it gradually dawns a realization of some rights belonging to manhood. These may be somewhat ideligible, for a time, but once the workers, and other crossession can compare to the development of their minds. You no other crossession can compare to the development of their minds. Organize by all means, everywhere, everybody, but READ and THINK, and do it every day of your lives until you really know how and like the sensation—then, workers, you can ACT, and capitalists will know better than to oppose you. Bubonic plague is spreading so the world. Look after material wants of course, but do not forget that your body.
