Nelson Board of Trade Has Adopted a Vigorous Policy.

OF ADVERTISING

The work of advertising Nelson and district has been placed on a substantial and permanent footing by the appointment of a standing committee of the board of trade representing the financial, commercial, professional, lumbering, mining and land interests, says the Nelson News. The board of trade is satisfied with the general response to the appeal for funds necessary for the work and will prosecute it steadily and vigorously.

J. L. Buchan reported that the real estate men of the city had guaranteed $250 per month conditionally on the rest of the city guaranteeing an equal amount. This condition the committee believed would be easily met. They recommended that the city be advertised at Calgary, Winnipeg and other western Canada fairs. They also recommended that a collector be engaged to collect the sums promised monthly E. B. McDermid, also for the committee, reported that the members of the committee when canvassing had been invariably well received and felt highly encouraged. port, moved by Mr. McDermid, J. M. Lay expressed his pleasure at the prospect of the continuance of the adver-tising campaign. He felt strongly, as he had for many years, that Nelson had more to offer to tourists and setlers than any other place in Canada. The report was then received and On the question of appointing a per-manent committee on advertising it was resolved that a standing commit-
