POOR COPY

MIRAMICHI ADVANCE, CHATHAM, NEW BRUNSWICK. FEBRUARY 12, 1880.

blean and in order, and you will be paid to you through the MIRAMICHI ADVANCE. for its" On the same day and at the same I now send you a copy, (not for your inplace, he instructed me, personally, to formation, although, perhaps, Sir A. J. seize what he called an illegal net off Smith and the Hon. J. C. Pope, Minister CHATHAM, Rock Heads ; he told me to take it on my of Marine and Fisheries, might want a sleigh, and take it home, and put it in my sight of it.) It is as follows :---- sleigh, and take it home, and put it in my barn and I did so. There being a heavy pole attached to the net, I had to procure the services of one John Blake to assist me. Now, Mr. Whitcher, was this done on proper authority or not? Please ex-plain. A day or two before this he told me that it was a great deal of trouble to write to all the Overseers, so he would write to all the Overseers, so he would write to all the Overseers, so he would my instructions the same as if they came from the Department. Mr. Wyse was present at that time. I submit copies word for word, of that person's instruc-tions, others from Inspector Venning and some of your own :— CHATHAM, 23rd Jany. '77 collection on 5th prox if not paid by that time. Yours, Wm. Wyse, O. F. P. S. —Your answer to Government for letter of 22nd should be, "no licenses issu-ed, and no defaulters to collect from." CHATHAM, 23rd Jany. '77 CHATHAM, 23rd Jany. 77 DEAR SIR :- Enclosed is a list of nets, numbered for Napan River so as you can ee whose net comes and goes, any net from Napan that is not already numbered, you Nothing more was necessary, the fisher-men have enough of vexation without putting them in a further plight. W. W. can number as fishing in your district, and if he leaves at any time, to show to Wardeu McDiarmid or any other Warden they may happen to go to. Yours WM. WYSE. good many proofs of my authority, and I CHATHAM, 25th Jan.'77, Mr. Findly McDirmid :--Registered Mr. Angus McInnis's smelt net, having examined his invoice, and A. Loggie, I thad his statement correct, as to the time it was shipped. Yours, WM. Wyse O. F.

Mr. Amos Perley :--SIR:--Mr. P. Loggie, senr. has produced the necessary certineate through A. & R. Loggie to satisfy me, he is entitled to fish two nets, according to law, you can num-ber as usual. Yours, WILLIAM WYSE. Chatham, 26th Jan., 1877.

CHATHAM, 5th Feb., '77

Mr. Amos Perley:-SIR -- I was at Black Brook this morn-ing, and find large quantities of tom cods are not being put back. You will require to attend those holes all the time in day light and insist on tom cods being put back. If this is not done, report the net and number, and I will assist you to re-move it. Yours, WILLIAM WYSE. P. S.—It is reported to me here, that manure is being made of the tom fish. W. W.

Снатнам, 27th Feb., 1877.

Mr. Amos Perley :--DEAR SIR :--Allow any one that wishes to fish to do so, if it is any benefit to them, until the first. I had a telegram to that effect from Ottawa. They are pro-hibited to enter Bostou market after the first, and in New York they are worth nothing. Yours, Wm. Wyse. NEWCASTLE, 1st Nov. 1877.

SIR :--Please send me to St. John by ext mail, a list of all smelt nets fished in your district last winter, together with the owners' names commencing at the lower end of the district with No. 1, and These are wanted inmediately for the dinister's information, I have the honor tc, W. H. VENNING, Amos PERLEY, EEQ., In Fishery Overseer, Chatham. Inspector.

Fisheries Office St John 15th Dec '77 SIR :--- Information has reached me that large quantities of young bass and tom cods are killed in the smelt bag nets. This ought not to be, and such tish should be

In 1877 I registered 50 smelt-bag-nets powers of self-government enjoyed by the inhabitants of Cape Colony may be extend. worked by about 80 men. The number worked by about 80 men. The number of lbs caught was 180.000, the value $2.000, $2,000. In 1878 I licensed 159 smelt-bag-nets Gentlemen of the House of Commons : worked by nearly 200 men. The number | I have directed the estimates for this of lbs of smelts caught was 396,718. Value $4,199,29cts. Value $4, 199, 29cts. In 1879 I licensed 187 bag-nets for Lords and Gentlemen :

Now, Mr. Whitcher, you have got a could give you more if needed. What do you think of Mr. W. H. Venning's report

I am a poor man, but I would scorn to ask for anything, that I did not work for,

or had not a perfect right to get. You are aware that I have efficiently attended to a district of about 25 miles in length, rotten as his general character.

In 1879 1 licensed 187 bag-nets for smelts, worked by over 200 men. The number of lbs. caught was 425.934 and the value $4.990,90 cts. I sent returns of all this to the Inspec-

Miramichi Adrance. act thereon at once. FEBRU:RY 12, 1880.

The "City of St. John." The British Parliament.

Her Majesty, the Queen opened the British Parliament in person on Thursday of last week. The people were very enthusiastic in their greetings of the Queen as she proceeded to the House of Parliament. Lord Cairns was the reader of Her Majesty's speech,

It is with much satisfaction that I again resort to the advice of my Parliament My relations with all the Powers continu-friendly. The course of events since the prorogation has tended to furnish addition al security to the maintainance of Euro

at security to the maintainance of Euro-pean peace on the principle of the treaty of Berlin, Much remains to be done to re-pair the disorder the late war caused in many parts of the Turkish empire. A convention for the suppression of the slave trade has been concluded with the Sultan. At the close of the last session I ex-pered the house that the Treater of Cur-

A St. John Circuit Court jury could not agree that Messrs. Lunt, owners of damages on account of that vessel run-colonal at the joint expense of the three waiting, and the procession formed to ning on an anchor of a Dominion Provinces, the road to be built through the the ferry boat, the Common Council Dredge which had been placed in the valley of the St. John. When, however, preceding. channel of Bathurst harbor without a the delegation went to England they were proper buoy, causing Messrs. Lunt's refused assistance on the ground that the steamer to sink. On Thursday last a road should be a military road, and that it

York County Circuit Court jury, having could not be by the valley of the St. John. had all the evidence before them, re- Then Mr. Chandler took up in England turned a unanimous verdict in favor of with the offer of Jackson & Company to Messrs. Lunt for $45,720 of which $9.- | build all the railroads New Brunswick 720 was for interest, because the Domi. might require for certain subsidies. Out nion Government so long resisted the of that arrangement grew the Railway claim. If Messrs. Lunt realise on the from St. John to Shediac, although the verdict within a reasonable time they John to Amherst and from St. John to the will have no reason to deplore the sinking of the "City" at a time when her with delight when the contract was usefulness in these waters was about signed and Major, now Colonel Foster gone.

Death of the Lieutenant-Governor.

At the close of the last session 1 ex-pressed the hope that the Treaty of Guu-damuk terminated the war in Afghanistan. My Envoy with his retinue was honorably received and entertained by the Ameer at Cabul. While engaged, however, in their latter be and the more than other you think of Mr. W. H. venning's report which led Sir A. J. Smith to endorse on it— "As these expenses were incurred without authority, they cannot be paid." Please inform me, also, "how you like Mr. Please inform me, also, "how you like Mr. Fredericton, about 3 o'clock p. m. He being made for the Reciprocity Treaty was in the 80th year of his age and had been Lieutenant Governor about eigh-teen months. The history of Mr. Chand-ler's life when fully written willshow that he was closely identified with the polities Please inform me, also, "how you like MF Wyse's letter, of 30th March, 1878. Has it not been very inconsistent on your part to write to me in the manner that you have done? You know that Inspect or Venning's Reports were as false and bis merchant and my troops, which were withdrawing, were ordered to return. The skill exhibited in advances upon the other lines of action reflects the highest credit upon them, whose bravery shone with wonted lustre in exercy engagement. The shillestion of he was closely identified with the politics of the country for more than half a Westmorland, died during the session of in every engagement. The abdication of the Ameer and the unsettled condition of century and that the part he took in 1853, and Mr. A. J. Smith was elected to the Anger and the unsettied condition of the country render recail of my troops im-possible for the present, but the principle on which my Government has hitherto acted remains unchanged and while deter-mined to make the frontiers of the Indian public affairs was one which reflects till the vacancy. Mr. Smith came in as a eredit on his memory. No public man Liberal in Opposition to Mr. Chandler's has ever, in this province, served the influence. The House was dissolved in people so long, and though he ac- 1854, Sir Edmund Head went home, and to a district of about 25 miles in length, for a great many years—some years before you or Mr. Venning had any thing to do with the fisheries of the Miramichi. I never had a regular assistant, and had not much trouble with the fishermen, until Mr. Wyse was appointed in my district, for what purpose I cannot tell unless it was to fill his pockets with the public money, truck with the fishermen, advise them to fish illegallu and to create trouble. empire strong, I desire to be in friendl cumulated an ample fortune it has the House of 1855 introduced a new Gov never been charged that it was secured ernment ; but the episode of the Liquol at the expense of the public interests. Law turned them out, and it was really

We take from the St. John Globe a 1858 before the Liberal party, with Fisher sketch of Mr. Chandler'spublic career: _____ at its head, was firmly installed in office He had in his favor family prestige on star, and the coming of a new generation his own side and he connected himself with a powerful family by marriage. He money, truck with the insherhen, advise them to fish illegally and to create trouble. You must know this. How is it, that now there are three and sometimes four officers in the same distrist, travelling with horses, and some of them carrying revolvers, when going among their neighbors? Is this policy of Inspector Venning good government? In 1877 I registered 50 smelt-bag-nets was known to possess considerable ability, and so, when quite a young man, he was called to perform important work. When he was thirty years of age he possessed unbounded influence in the County of Westmorland. Indeed he was only tweaty-seven years old when he sat for that County, which then included what is now known as Albert County, in the House of Assembly. He was only thirty-three years of age when he went to Eugland as a Provincial delegate to secure for the Province the control of the Casual and Territorial Revenues, which, however, was not really granted until 1837, and one result of that mission was the separation in selves whether the ADVANCE has not schemes then before the country, and his and others of the funeral party from the pointment of John Boyd, Esq., of St. York Herald, whose Dublin correspondences superior claims on their support, and speeches in that session are alike able and Capital. Many were deterred from visit- John, who will, in every way, be an ac- dent, in a letter dated 20th January interesting. At that session it was re-isolved to drop for the time the F. & N. that the train had been 20 minutes late, A. Railway. Indeed, in the depth of winter, Messrs. Hincks, Tache, and John Went that the train had been 20 minutes late, winter, Messrs. Hincks, Tache, and John winter has been 20 minutes late, winter, Messrs. Hincks, Tache, and John winter has been 20 minutes late, inter vacates a seat in the Government, at the speakership of the Senate, and be sent to the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly winter was nearly made up, being at most 10 minutes late, when the avpress reached Capitan. The second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly was promoted by the second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly was promoted by the second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly was promoted by the determent was meanly meanly second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly meanly second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly second complete the fund for relieving Irish determent was meanly second complete the fund for relieving Irish Young came down here from Canada and when the express reached Carleton. The they went to Halifax with Mr. Chandler, remains were brought in a special car, the City of St. John, were entitled to any reaching an agreement to build the Inter-

> THE PROCESSION The cortege left the terry boat and

> > " Jones, " Magee,

Coun Em nnington. A'lau, McFarlane, Italinie, Common Clerk, Itev. Geo. M. Armstrong and Collector Ruel.
Dr. Bennet and John March, of the School Board, Gen. Warner, (U. S. Consul) and Mr. Donville, M. P.
J. Murray Kay, Esq., St. John and Maine Railway; Chairanan Jack, of Portland, and Mr. Geo, V. original agreement was for a road from St. American frontier. St. John was crazy

Mr. Everett, of the P. O. Department, and Street got out his battery and fired a salute Inspector Lawlor. Ex-Mayors Reed and smith. Pall Leavers. Pall Beavers. from Chipman's Hill. But when the On Friday last Hon. Edward Barron Chandler, Lieutenant Governor of New-Brunswick died at Government House, being the sector of people began to look deeply into the

Police.] [Police. Edward B.;Chandler and Geo, W. Chandler Dr. Chandler, Charles U. Chandler and W. R. Chandler. Chas. H. Chandler and Jas. T. Kirk. Other Belatives of the family. Col. Drury, and Capt. Hyzen. Lieutensnt Col. Massiano, B. M. Hon. John Flewweiling, M. L. C. Hon. B. R. Stevenson, Speaker House of Assembly, supported by Messrs. Willis and Woods, M. P. P.s. Messrs. Elder and Ritchie, M. P. P's. Dominion Officials, the clergy, and other citizens. As the cortecer moved off the hand plays. purpose. Mr. Crane, who represented

As the cortege moved off the hand played The Dead March in Saul, continu that to the Court House. While the prossion was on its way from the ferry landing the bells of several of the city churches were tolled. The route of march. which was lined with people, was over the following streets: Up Princess to Prince William, along it to King, thence via Charlotte street to the south side of of men upon the stage, Mr. Chandler's King square into Sydney street, where mere political influence declined; and it members of the City Council in adwas not until after a good many years that each of these men recognized the merits of the other, and discovered that the county was large enough for both. After the advent of the Liberal party to power Mr. Chandler was no longer so actively engaged in public work, although he still continued to give The casket containing the remains was the country the benefit of his experience and of his ability as a placed upon rests covered by a black pall, member of the Legislative Council. In in the centre of the Chamber.

1864, with the proposal to unite the Maritime Provinces, he was again called to side and the coat of arms behind, were active work and remained in that work draped in mourning, while standing on the until after the close of the London Con- dias on either side of the Mayor's chair ference, which he attended in 1866, and was a flag drooped. The wall in rear of 1834 of the Executive Council from the Legislative Council and the formal constitution of the latter with nineteen members. In 1836 Mr. Chandler was called to the Legislative Council and the Legislative Council and the formal constitution of the latter with nineteen members. In 1836 Mr. Chandler was called to the Legislative Council and the formal contained in 1868 took a position as one of the Intercolonial Railway Commissioners for New Brunswick, ap-struct that great work.

nonths when he died.

good, while the latter has been given to. Senator MacPherson.

Tho Irish Famine.

moved to the Court House in the following r !cm:-Gen Stockford, High Constable. Gen Function and Constable. Gen Stockford, High Constable. Gen Stockford [Police rent to the landlords. He also said starvation most questionable things against certain Mr. Parnell appears to believe that

and mourners to pass through. The body | side of the Atlantic, and is now looked | with a very grave mis-statement made was taken to the Council Chamber and upon more as a demagogue than a true by the "agitator" :-many desired to view the remains, but on friend to his country. His attack on To the Editor of the N. Y. World :being told that the Chamber would not be the Mansion House Relief Committee Committee telegraphs the following ex-tracts from letters of ('atholic archbishops tracts from letters of Catholic archbishops and bishops in repudiation of Mr. Parnell's charge of discrimination against reut-de-The Mayor's chair, the stand on either faulters in the distribution of the fund :-

it is believed that, Mr. Costigan's chan-ces for securing the former position are not be impartial. He expressed his viction that no one failing or refusi pay rent would receive assistance, how-ever destitute. This very form of partial-The distress in Ireland caused by the by an Irish body which beasts Mr. Par can be given to prevent the death of many of the afflicted people by starva-tion. When so much is required it tion. When so much is required it seems a crime for anyone to prevent contributions from going to the distress-ed and starving ones through any legit-imate channel. Yet this is what has been attempted by Mr. Parnell, M. P., been attempted by Mr. Parnell, M. P., who is on this side of the Atlantic trywho is on this side of the Atlantic try-ing to make political capital out of the misery of his countrymen. There are wealthy and charitable people who would contribute to relieve real distress, but would not give anything through such agitators as Mr. Parnell. The gits of such persons, it appears, were going forward to the Dublin Mansion House Committee from the United States, when,prompted by an unworthy envy, because Irish distress appealed House Committee from the Outled States, when, prompted by au unworthy envy, because Irish distress appealed more effectively than Irish faction to the people, Parnell set himself about the task of slandering, those who were working more effectively than he in the good cause. He practically told the people in his speeches that the aid sent to the Mansion House Committee was extended only to those who paid their a poor man's obligations is to operate as a disqualification for being rescued from ladies and gentlemen connected with he can safely assert his malicious inthe Committee-all because people did ventions in the United States, and that not choose to accept him and his views a natural antipathy for the British, as the correct and most reliable expon- which he believes to exist there, will ent and data of Ireland's needs. Mr. induce his auditors and those who read Parnell has lowered himself very much his speeches to accept and act upon his vance opened out and permitted the hearse in public opinion since he came to this statements. The following letter deals

Sir : My attention has been called to a report contained in the Times as extracted from your columns, of a speech delivered by Mr. Parnell at Newark, N. J., in which he is reported to have said that "in the last famine the money was used for proselytizing purposes, and Catholics for proselytizing purposes, and Catholics who would not turn Protestants were al-faulters in the distribution of the lund :-Most Rev. John MacHale, Archbishop of Tuam, writes that he willingly testifies to the efficiency with which the committee has hitherto labored. The most Rev. Daniel McGettigan, the bis statement the most unqualified con-this statement the most unqualified contradiction, so fat as our operations were concerned, and I feel the more bound to do so because nearly £150,000 of the con-tributions which passed through our hands I may with equal confidence repudiato this charge on behalf of the General Cen-tral Relie Committee of Dublin, by whom upwards of £30,000 was dispensed, and on behalf of the British Association, who me From America. behalf of the British Association, who were intrusted with subscriptions amount-ing to £470.090, the Queen forself heading the list with a contribution of £2,000. How Mr. Parnell can believe that any of the associations formed for the relief of the distress arising from the famine of 1846-47 could have been guilty of such monstrous and inhuman conduct as he has, in general terms, charged them with, is more than I can well imagine. During that fearful time the minds of all were engrossed by the one object of doing what eople he is strongly disposed to question, at Lord Mayor Gray's name and those of engrossed by the one object of doing what could be done to save life, and none but derstand how great were the difficulties, the anxieties and the labors of the volun-Most Rev. James Walshe, Bishop of Kildare, says he is de ply pained to learn that imputations have been cast on the committee. Nobody in this district, he says, questions the honor, motives of judi-cious action of the committee. Most Rev. John MacEvilly, Bishop of Galway, states that it passes his compre-hension how any min could concost such cakimny. It is notorious, he says, that the committee's exerctions have saved the liver of thousands of people. the says of the says tary agents in that work of charity. it used to be under Mr. Brydges. Everybody knows that when that gentleman was General Superintendent the praise of the Intercolonial was sounded by every English mail steamer passenger who passed from Halifax to the Upper Provinces. Now, Tory economy is the order of the day, and the result is that the grades are often found too heavy for the engines, and passengers must wait until the trains are run Limerick, says he has never entertained the slightest doubt of the honor and im-partiality of the committee. The whole country, he says, has absolute confidence get loose and throw trains wholly or Most Rev. Francis J. McCormack, Dis-pof Achority, says he is sorry to learn at statements should be made at home ing the patent nut-locks and other partially from the track, notwithstand 'improvements" which have marked the new regime-causing very exasper-Patrick Logue, of the Diocese of Patrick Logue, of the Diocese of most unfavorable impression in reference to a road that, with efficient. management, has no superior in America. e generous-hearted Americans: Most Rev. Patrick Duggan, Bishop of How they Feel About It?

urned alive to the water, as required

returned alive to the water, as required by the act. Please have special attention to this part of your duty. Please send me a return of all smelt bag nets, now fishing in your district, owners' names and size of mesh, and on the first of January, send me the catch of smelts up to 31st Dec. in order that I may add them to the annual returns. I have the honor to be &c. W. H. VENNING ap to 31st Dec. in order when I have the them to the annual returns. I have the honor to be &c. W. H. VENNING, DEBLEY, ESQ., Inspector.

Fisheries Office, St. John, 2nd Jan. '78. [raragraph 1,]-Stu: -I am directed to supply you with blank smelt net licenses which you are requested to fill up, counter-sign and issue to the owners of bag nets now fishing, or who may desire to fish in your district; you will please keep a care-ful record in the margin, of the name of the narty, the place be fishes and the size the party, the place he fishes, and the size of the mesh of the nets used. You will also, on the back of this margin, fill in the quantity and value there, of the smelts caught under each license, and return to me at the end of the smelt season, to me at the end of the smell season, I have the honor to be, W. H. VENNING, Insp. P. S.-I send you 72 licenses, if more are needed, in your district Mr. Wyse will supply them on application. W. H. V.

Fisheries Office, St. John, 4th March, '78. [Paragraph 1,]—SIR :--You will please send me as soon as possible the return of send the as soon as possible the return of smelt licenses, being particular to fill up on the back of the margin the number of pounds caught, and the price obtained by the party to whom license was issued. [Paragraph 2.]—Please inform me also itity of smelts now remain in your district, waiting to be sent to market. If you cannot ascertain this correctly, please send as near an estimate as you can procure. I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant, W. H. VENNING. obedient servant, W. Amos PERLEY, Esq., Overseer. Inspector.

Department of Marine and Fisheries, Fish eries Branch, Uttawa, 27th Feb., W. F. WHITCHER, for the Hon. Minister of M. & F. Amos Perley, Esq., Chatham, N. B.

Department of Marine and Fisheries, Fish-eries Branch, Ottawa, 12th March '77. SIR:-I am to acknowledge the receip of your letter of the 6th inst. in reply to of your fetter of the oth list. In reply to a previous communication respecting the smelt-fishery with bag nots in the Mira michi River and to inform you that any instructions you may need on this point, a well as any other, pertaining to the perfor mance of your official duties, will be prompt 4y and cheerfully given you on application to this office. o this office

) this office. I am Sir your Obedient Servant, W. F. WHITCH for the Hon. Minister of M. & F.

Amos Perley, Esq., Fishery Overseer, Chatham, N. B.

[By telegraph from Ottawa.] To Amos Perley:— Jan. 3rd, ' Communicate with Inspector of Fisher about details. W. F. WHITCHER. Jan. 3rd, '78

[By telegraph from Ottawa.] Feby. 14th, 1878.

To Amos Perley :-Minister allows bag net licenses smelts to run to twenty-third instant. W. F. WHITCHER.

[By telegraph from Ottawa.] March 1st, 1878.

To Amos Perley :--Minister extends bass fishing licenses to 15 instant. W. F. WHITCHER.

[Circular.] DEPARTMENT OF MARINE AND FISHERIES

OTAWAR AND TISHERTES, OTAWAR, 19th March, '78. SIR :--The fact that several parties in your district are still in arears for their salmon fishing licenses having been brought under the Minister's notice, I an directed to instruct you, to call on each defaulter, to pay within some fixed rea-sonable time—say a fortnight from the date of the receipt of this letter—and failing payment to report the fact to this Department, and to send here any note or other acknowledgment of indebtedness given, for the purpose of sueing to recover the money due

It will not see the purpose of steing to recover the money due. James Russell, Esq., Chatham. James Russell, Esq., Lower Newcastle. Amos Perley, Esq., Chatham, N. B. The Minster also directs that no licenses shall be delivered to any party until the current season's fee is paid in advance and that no fishing is to be allow-ed without or in anticination of a license. ed without, or in anticipation of a license. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, W. F. WHITCHER. For the Hon. M. of M. and F.

Now, Sir, after receiving the last quoted letter, I received a letter from Mr. Wm. Wyse of Chatham, which you have in your ion. It is the same that I referred possession. It is the same that I reterred to in my letter of 2nd January, addressed tor, according to orders. My travelling tor, according to orders. My travelling expenses for 1879 have been paid. For the other two winters, my expenses have not been paid. My claim for 1877. is $50.00, of which $39 is, for smelt service, and the balance for bass service and some of the summer service. My claim for 1878, is $50.31. These, with some interest charged, and part of my half year's salary will make the amount I claimed in my last letter. If I had one hour's interview with Sir could inform them of matters that would astonish them. These I would not like to put upon paper, transactions by Mr. Venning since Mr. Wyse, himself with venning since Mr. Wyse has led him astray, and by Mr. Wyse, himself with the vent 5 or 6 years. But all I want is my money that I work-

Respectfully yours.

For

F

AMOS PERLEY,

or the improvement of the law of bank-ruptcy. Bills will be laid before you for ened hard for. My account is still open for settlement, although Mr. Venning set a arging the powers of owners of unsettle land, for consolidating and amending the lunacy laws and for simplifying the prac-tice of conveyancing, and I commend to yeu these and other measures which may be submitted for your consideration, and I trust that the blessing of Almighly God trap for me. Please lay this before the Minister, that he may consider it, and see with what confidence, he can accept of the reports of his Inspector, or of Mr.

Wmi, Wyse of Chatham, in future, will attend and direct your labors In conclusion I beg to ask if it would The ceremony of the opening was ot have been as just, if you had instructvery brief lasting only fifteen minutes. ed me, last winter, to give up the seized Several " Home Rulers"-as, the Parsmelt-nets to the owners, more and You ivering them to Overseer Hogan? You smelt-nets to the owners, instead of d liamentary obstructionists are calledhave given notice of amendments to the know that Overseer Russell was instruc address in reply to Her Majesty's ed to deliver up some of the nets he seized Speech. These will, of course, only to the parties whom he caught fishing waste time and tend to keep the "fight-If it was on the score of poverty that the parties got back their nets, I ing element" in the Commons in the worse than useless position its members may say that I seized a net from a boy who is without father or mother. Why have occupied of late years. Serious did he not get his net back, instead of work, however, is before Parliament verseer Hogan putting it to the hammer! and there will be a grand struggle be Poor boy ! perhaps he had no friends at Ottawa to intercede for him. tween the two great parties in the politics of the empire during the session.

To Business Men. SANFORD'S Merchants will find their advantage in placing advertisements in the AD-RADICAL CURE VANCE. During the season of trade depression which, we hope, has passed its worser stages hereabouts, our business men have allowed their announcements CATARRH In

CLEAR HEAD. SWEET BREATH

PERFECT HEARING.

PERFECT EYESIGHT

ed Eyes are caused by Catarrh. The Rai cures the most alarming Affections of and the most advanced business enter-Price, with Improved Inhaler, Treatise and Directions, $1. Sold by all Druggists.

This wonderful curative agent instantly ates Pain when all other remedies fail. use life to weak and painful Muscles and trestores the circulation of the nerve fore formant or inactive as no partial Paralysis, atrops all tendency to infammation by they state morphic or unwholesome of the best local paper, and it is by advertising patronage, chiefly, that newspaper publishers are enabled to exist. Owing to our large circulation we place the Stomach it is, prevents Ague and Liv-the Liver and Kidneys Indigestion the price of the paper at one dollar a year, when paid in advance. This is a has a subtravia of an enter he habiash we put it to our business men that many of them have not done their duty in the amation of the Liver and Kidneys, byspepsia, Indigestion, Cramps an Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, 1 Paljitation of the Heart, Sore o Weak stomach and Bowels, Wi I Rack, Female Weakness, Lack of S tivity these Plasters surnage even PRICE 25 CENTS

Do not be satisfied unless you obtain COL VOLTAIC ELECTRIC PLASTERS, a union of that tile agent, Electricity with Healing Gums Balsams Sold by all druggists.

suing its labors. Meantime a serious deficiency in the usual crops in some parts of Ireland has rendered necesion and by feeling, to the "Family Compact" party, and did not look with special favour upon the new-fangled notions which were then creeping in through the agitations of Mr. Howe in Nova Scotia, although his Conservatism was always of a mild type, and the bistorical student of the period will find it hard to tell whether he was indeed a Liberal or a Conservative, though the latter in name. In 1844 Mr. Chandler was a member of the Executive Council, but he resigned early in 1845 with Messrs.

Hazen and Johnson, on the appointment of Mr. Alfred Reade, to the office of Provincial Secretary, vacant by the death of Hon. Mr. Odell (this was before the days of responsible government). These entlemen resigned not because the an cointment was made without the concu ence or advice of the Government, but ecause the appointment could not be defended in the Legislature, inasmuch as Reade's "character, services, and claims to preferment were unknown in this coun try." Reade was Governor Colebrook's on in-law, which accounted for his apwintment The Province floated along for nearly a year with only two or three nembers of Government. In the session of 1845, Hon. Mr. Hazen announced a reconstruction, and the Government was constituted of five members. Attorney General Peters, Col. Shore, Chandler, Mr. Hazen and Mr. Hugh Johnson. These gentlemen had gone into office on finding that the Reade matter would not embarrass them, the Colonia Secretary having condemned and disallow ed it. These five members constituted the his life. Government until 1847, when Mr. L. A. Wilmot and two others of the Liberal party went over to it, and took seats, justifying the act on the ground of duty.

and this Government, with, of course, ing:some changes, really continued until 1858, The obsequies of His Honor, the late being continually assailed by the Liberals Lieut. Governor, in the capital, yesterday like Ritchie, Fisher, and subsequently [Monday] were of a singularly impressive Chapman, Tilley, Smith and others ; al character. While the forms incident to though in that interval Fisher hunself such an occasion had to be carried out, went into the Government, but after- there was something manifest that rose wards left it. In 1850 there was a general election, and twenty-five new members heart went out to the late Lieut. Governor to either fall of altogether, or contract-ed them vcry much. This is a poor, took their seats. It was supposed that short-sighted policy. Owing to an the Liberals had carried the country, but Iy ways. It was that feeling that caused improved feeling in the British and when the test came on a vote of want of the streets to be througed with citizens Continental lumber, markets, the peo- confidence the Government had seven ma- and crowded the Cathedral to overflowing, ple's purchasing inclinations will be jority. Of the six St. John representa- The tolling of church bells, and the many ple's purchasing inclusion greater with the approach of, and dur-ing the next business season than they have been for some time. Merchants and dealers ought to information the members, Messrs. Ritchie, Need-ham, Gray, R. D. Wilmot and Tilley and to turn the Government out. Mr. Could only taken the sentiment. The funeral took place from Govern-ment House. The procession previously announced was carried out. There was a to be against the Government out. Mr.

inclinations to account. The people Chandler's influence then was so great change in the pall-bearers, Mr. Marshall that of the Westmorland members Chap- taking the place of Mr. Young, President information which only advertisements can convey in it. Its editorials, and local and general news, are we venand local and general news, are we ven-ture to assert more full and complete than can be found in any other North members, Reuben Stiles, voted with the than can be found in any other North members, Reuben Stiles, voted with the The pall-bearers bore the body from thre to assert more tun and complete methy, as acrea to the day of the day of the day. Still it must be dealed in our columns, and was of more tun. The County Court. Hon. Geo. E. King, John Costigan, Esq., M. P., Attorneypaper involves a corresponding outlay be confessed that it is difficult to say than a mile in length. of money and time. Our aim is to represent the best thought, the most did not consist, for we find the Gov- the pall-bearers carried the body into the Lower House a measure to make the bore it back to the hearse. The body and Legislative Council elective, which the pall-bearers were met at the door by measure was heartily supported by the Metropolitan and by the Rev. Mr. done, for a time, without the claims Messrs. Chandler, Hazen, and others in Alexander. As the body was borne which such objects establish being ret the Upper House, but it was defeated. through the main aisle, the organist, Prof. cognised in a practical way. We think, In 1849, and, indeed, before, while Mr. Cadwallader, played the Dead March in however, that the time has come when Howe was trying to get the Intercolon- Saul, as he also did as the body was Ind Railway scheme through, New Brunswick was endeavouring to work up ness enterprise deserving encourage her European and North American Rail- read by the Rev. Mr. Alexander. His ment, in the interests of the section of way scheme, and New Brunswick sent a Lordship the Metropolitan followed with country in which it is published. Be- delegation to England upon the subject the other portions of it. The hymn, sides, it is every good citizen's duty to in 1850, in conjunction with Mr. Howe "My God my Father while I stray," was contribute to the revenue and support of Halifax. Mr. Chandler was of that delegation, and he again went home in ment. The attendance in the Cathedral 1852 on the same subject. It was sup- was a perfect jam. The people were posed that the delegation of 1850 had se- obliged to stand and great numbers went > to the European and North American At the close of the service, the procession Railway, and New Brunswick was jubil. re formed and proceeded to the railway ant, but Earl Grey's despatches submitted station. to the House in 18:2 showed "that some AWAITING THE ARRIVAL OF THE BODY AT body had blundered," and the second dele-ST. JOUN.

gation went home. Indeed, at the session immediate past to the journal that has of 1852 Mr. Chandler assumed more the City Council, proceeded to Carleton always aimed to reflect credit on the prominence in the public mind and eye community in which they live. All than he ever had before. He became the of the train which was to bring the body champion and the exponent of the great of the late Governor, his widow, relatives pointed under the Dominion Act to con- before the doors were opened. Besides the " When the room was thrown open at 8 offices and positions which we have named p. m., the two men of the 62nd Battalion. Mr. Chandler filled the office of Judge of who acted as guard, were stationed at the the Probates and Clerk of the Peace in foot of the casket, facing the head of the Westmorland for nearly forty years, and room. Another was posted as sentry outvery lucrative positions ! they were. In side of the door, and Sergt. Connolly was 1878 he was appointed Governor of New stationed at the retiring door. On the Brunswick, succeeding Governor Tilley, southern and western sides of the chamber and had been in office about eighteen were members of the city and Portland

Town Councils, relatives of deceased, and Mr. Chandler had a longer political members of the Government, including the career than any man who has ever entered Attorney General, Provincial Secretary, public life in this Province. It was not a Chief Commissioner of the Board of Works, rilliant career, but it was a respectable Hon. Wm. E. Perley, besides Hon. and an honorable one. He could look Speaker Stevenson, Mayor Ray, and the back over it with a consciousness that his Common Clerk. The civic officials wore life had been of service to the Province, crape upon the left arm, and the Governand, perhaps, with secret delight that ment their sashes of crape. A line Dorchester Corner had been one of the military officers was drawn up on the greatest political centres in New Brunsnorthern side. They were : Lt. Col. wick. He was a shrewd, careful, cool Blaine, Major Likely, Capt. Sturdee, Capt. man ; not a man of enthusiastic feelings, Hartt, Qr.-master Hall, Lieut. Thomas, nor of very warm temperament, perhaps, Lieut. Magee, and Lieut. Sorel, of the but yet a man in his earlier days with a 62nd Batt. ; Lieut. Hunter and Lieut. good deal of buoyancy, and a fair share of animal spirits. It is difficult to judge The coffin lid was raised so that a good view of the features of the departed was clearly by a man of eighty what he was at forty ; it is more difficult still to deal obtained. The face presented the most with one who has outlived almost all, if perfect repose, and looked much younger not all, of his contemporaries. But those than in life. The coffin was wreathed who saw Mr. Chandler's light and elastic with smilax and at the top was a profusion step, his vigor, his quickness of intellect, of the plauts in bloom at this season, the as these were a month ago, can form some variety comprising roses, carnations, judgment at least of the powers which he fuschias, heliotrope, primroses, geraniums, possessed in his prime. He passes away at a good old age full of honors ; with the flowers. The floral tributes were the gifts flowers. The floral tributes were the gifts respect, at least, of the people over whom of Hon. Isaac Burpee and T. W. Daniel, E-q. As the people entered they passed up ruled, and with the warm affection of the country in which he spent so much of

and in front of the officers and around the head of the coffin and down the opposite We take the following account of the side into the retiring chamber, the obsequies of the late Governor from the into the hall. It is estimated that over a St. John Telegraph of Tuesday mornhousand persons viewed the remains from 8 till 10 o'clock, a good many of then being ladies, some of whom were affected to tears. The guard remained on duty all The remains were conveyed to Dorchester, where they were duly interred on Tuesday afternoon. Cur New Lieutenant Governor and Sonator

It is the way of the political world to oreak through the restraints which form the barriers of social propriety, and the matter of the Ligutenant-Governship of New Brunswick was not left in abeyance until the burial of the late

Lieut-Governor Chandler, though nothing was, we believe, definitely an nounced in connection therewith until Tuesday. The gentlemen whose chances were considered good for the position were Hon. R. D. Wilmot, Speaker of the Senate : His Honor intelligent phases of public sentiment, ernment in 1851 carrying through the church, and at the close of the service

cured the aid of the Imperial Government | away not being able to gain admittance

A large number of citizens, including think that the moneys have been inju-dicionsly applied. He says he has no-special fancy for certain members of the committee, whose sympathies with the but Lord Mayor Gray's pame and those of others are ample guarantees that no sub-stantial wrong can be done. Most Rev. R. C. Treuch, Protestant Archbishop of Dublin, says he feels called upon to testify to the spirit of entire fair-ness which has presided over the arrange-ments and to an absence of all consider-ation except for the necessities of appli-cants for relief. Most Rev. Lawrence Gillooly, Bishop of Elbluin, says it would be a mblic calamity

This, says it would be a public calamity f the committee allowed itself to be robbed of the confidence it has hitherto so justly njoyed. Most Rev. James Walshe, Bishop of f Ross, says in his opinion, anything suid c done to diminish the confidence which he public feel in the committee tells avily against the famine-stricken people. Most Rev. Nicholas Conaty, Bishop of Kilmore, says he has the utmost confidence in the committee, and considers that its members deserve the gratitude of the Most Rev. Daniel McCarthy, Bishop of Kerry, declares that the committee is worthy of public contidence. Most Rev. George Butler, Bishop of

Nost Rev. William Fitzgerald, Bishop

Most Rev. Francis J. McCormack, Bisnd abroad which are calculated to arrest e course of charity or discredit the labors aphoe, declares that to cast a breath of suspicion on the committee is a crime gainst the famine-stricken people and that crime is still greater when such sus-picion tends to shake the confidence of lonfert, says he is deeply pained to learn hat imputations have been cast on the hat imp Most Rev. John Pius Leahy, Bishop of ce out

General Fraser, John Boyd, Esq., of St. John and other gentlemen were thought of in some localities, and even Hon. Mr. Mitchell, our late representa-tive in the Commons, was mentioned by friends of the Government in New-castle and Chatham. It was thought that in the event of Mr. Watters not being selected, Judge Fisher's removal from the Bench to the position would entry the that the government to promote' thought of in some localities, and even Judge Watters to the dignity which it is generally conceded he is entitled to. This would also open up the County judgeship of St. John for the leading candidate of the St. John Bar for the place, which it is expected Judge Watters will, ere long, vacate. The general impression was that Sir Leonard Tilley, would, in filling the place of the deceased Governor, de-sire to strengthen his own possition as clothing and shelter, will contribute to much as possible, and the event has the Dublin Mansion House Fund.

place of the determined of the basis of Parnell, which appear to be not exwhich seems to have secured that end. of Parnell, which appear to be not ex-Senator Wilmot is the man chosen, and actly the relief of Irish distress will the choice is one that will meet with send their money to that gentleman. general approval. Mr. Wilmot's place in the Senate is to be filled by the ap-come upon the following in the New

The Freeman says :- A petition of electors of the City and County of St. John

Most Rev. John McCarthy, Bishop of Cloyne, says that the continuent to doubt have arisen which are calculated to check the flow of charity. Most Rev. Francis Kelly, Bishop of Derry, telegraphs that he has confidence in the committee, and Most Rev. Michael mtil the same effect. Most Rev. John Power. Bishop of Water-ford and Lismore, says that Mr. Parnell's) the same are groundless and unwarrant. Most Rev. John McCarthy, Bishop of the same effect. Most Rev. John Power. Bishop of Water-ford and Lismore, says that Mr. Parnell's) the same are groundless and unwarrant.

able, and he trusts that his (Parnell's) reckless assertions will not damage the good work of the committee. Most Rev. Patrick Francis Moran, Bis-op of Osory, states that the committee has already effected an immense amount of hop of Ossory, states that the committee has already effected an immense amount of the free list. That varnishes be subject to an ad valorem duty only, and not to exceed twenty per centum. That all other manufactured in Canada, be admitted on payment of an ad valorom duty, not to exceed the per centum. That the duty on earthenware, white granite or iron stone-ware, and C. C. or cream colored ware be reduced from thirty per centum to twenty per centum, the same as ching and porcereduced from thirty per contain to the and per centum, the same as china and porce-lain ware. Your Petitioners also pray that the ad-your Petitioners also pray that the ad-Those who do not desire to aid Irish

And your Petitioners further pray, That section 9 of the Tariff Act be

