THE KING'S HEALTH.

Today's Bulletins Show That His Condition Is Satisfactory.

London Rejoices at the Hopeful News--A Chicago Medical Man Talks--Service in St. Paul's Cathedral.

LATEST.

LONDON, June 26.—At 4.30 p. m., it was said at the Palace that King Edward continued to make remarkable progress.

6.15—"His Majesty passed a good day and has taken nourishment well. He is less weak and his temperature is now normal."

LONDON, June 26.—10.04 a. m.—The Duke of Connaught called at Buckingham Palace this morning at nine thirty o'clock. Later he said: "The news concerning the King this morning is most encouraging. The King's pulse and temperature are normal, and his condition on the whole is most satisfactory."

LONDON, June 26.—The official bulletin on the condition of King Edward issued at 10.15 o'clock this morning, is as follows: "His Majesty has had a better night and has had some refreshing sleep. He has improved in all respects. His constitutional condition is quite favorable, and the state of his wound also satisfactory."

LONDON, June 26, 1.30 p. m.—The King's satisfactory condition was fully maintained by the bulletin issued at 1 p. m. today. His Majesty looks well and his healthful appearance quite bears out the tenor of the medical bulletins.

LONDON, June 26, 2.12 p. m.—The following bulletin was issued from Buckingham Palace at two o'clock in the afternoon: The King's condition still remains satisfactory.

(Sgd.) Treves, Laking, Barlow. SAW HIS FAMILY.

LONDON, June 26.—King Edward saw several members of his family in the course of the morning. The Queen remained at the palace, but the Princess Victoria drove out this morning. In most of the churches throughout the land today the services which were to commemorate the coronation of King Edward are taking place in the changed gloom of intercessory services.

JOY IN LONDON.

LONDON, June 26, 11.30.—King Edward's convalescence occasions the greatest satisfaction in all circles. His Majesty is already displaying the greatest interest in all public questions and is expressing his gratitude over the evidences of the world's solicitude by opening a number of telegrams with his own hands as reported in these despatches last night. This action excited him slightly, caused some restlessness during the night, and aroused some trifling solicitude on the part of the attendant doctors. All this really was unimportant, as His Majesty soon quieted down, and on the whole rested satisfactorily. Improvement was most marked. Everybody in Buckingham Palace is delighted and high hopes are entertained that his convalescence will be much more speedy even than as expected last night. At no time has there been any serious suggestion of the establishment of a regency. The most that was done was in the way of pure speculation, a suggestion that the Prince of Wales might act for his father as King Edward (then Prince of Wales) frequently did for Queen Victoria in former days and particularly during her last illness, but without his having formally been appointed regent. The good news given out by the Duke of Connaught at Buckingham Palace before the doctors morning consultation and which the subsequent official bulletin completely confirmed, occasioned the liveliest satisfaction to all persons at the palace, Mansion House and elsewhere collected to await tidings from the sick chamber. The absence of ambiguity in the language of the medical bulletin, which, unlike previous statements, has no qualifying phrases, has done much to restore confidence in the public mind in regard to the outcome of the King's illness.

CHICAGO EXPERT SPEAKS.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Dr. John B. Murphy, of Chicago, dean of the faculty of Rush medical college, has telegraphed to the New York Medical Journal the following statement regarding King Edward: "The official bulletins are very vague and indefinite, as the doctors do not state whether the abscess was due to appendicitis carcinoma or perforating ulcer. They infer that it was appendicitis, but the clinical course for five days preceding the operation does not correspond with that inference. If it be an appendicitis perityphilitic opened and drained with no attempt at removal of the appendix, his chances of recovery, allowing for his age and mode of living, should be 97 per cent. Even if he has a gangrene of a small area of the oecum from a perityphilitic abscess, his chances of recovery should be good unless the infection be very violent. One would infer from the mild symptoms of the day previous to the operation that it was not violent. If the abscess be from a perforating ulcer of the oecum, the prognosis is more grave, for these perforating ulcers are grave in themselves, particularly the tubercular. If the perforation occurred through a malignant ulcer his chances of recovery would be very meagre, as a resection of the caput coli would be demanded. This is such a long and grave operation that he could scarcely withstand it, as it would involve an immediate risk of 40 to 43 per cent. The assumption that the abscess is of appendicial origin is the most logical from his symptoms of pain and syncope on the fifth or sixth day preceding the operation. There was every reason for his physicians withholding from the public as long as possible. If the diagnosis of appendicitis had been made early, it is probable the operation would have been performed immediately, as the consensus of opinion of the American medical and surgical profession is that immediate operation, that is, the operation within the first 24 hours gives the best results and subjects the patients to the least risk.

IN ST. PAUL'S.

LONDON, June 26.—At the hour when the King should have been crowned a great and distinguished gathering, almost identical with that which would have sat in Westminster Abbey, gathered in St. Paul's cathedral. The approaches to the cathedral were lined by silent throngs, through which drove priests and pages, colonial premiers, foreign envoys, ambassadors and members of the house of commons, all in sombre clothes. In the chancel were Joseph H. Choate, the U. S. ambassador, Whitelaw Reid, the special ambassador of the U. S. to the coronation; J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and the leading members of the nobility. In the nave, about a thousand of the Westminster Abbey ticket holders, mainly women, were seated. Shortly before noon the big western doors were swung open, sunlight streamed in and the Duke of Cambridge, leaning heavily on the arm of an esquire, walked to the chancel.

As 12 o'clock struck there arose from the far end of the nave the clear notes of the opening sentences of the litany, chanted by four of the cathedral clergy. Their tones were in such unison that that seemed to emanate from one powerful voice. The choir took up the responses. At each supplication, the procession, headed by the cross, advanced a few steps and then stood still until the response was completed. Through the kneeling congregation the choir advanced to the chancel steps. A score of the clergy followed, and behind them were ten bishops in gorgeous robes. Then came the Archbishop of York, the Most Rev. Wm. Dalrymple, McLagan, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev. Frederick Temple, and the Lord Mayor, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, the corporation in full state, bringing up the rear.

With evident feeling the choir sang the three Psalms of intercession, after which the Bishop of Stepney, the Right Rev. Cosmo Gordon Lang, read the lesson, Isaiah, chap. 3, verse 7—"I said in the cutting off of my days I shall go to the gates of my grave. I am deprived of the residue of my years."

FATAL EXPLOSION.

MADRID, June 26.—A gunpowder magazine at the encampment of Carabanche, five miles from here, exploded this morning, two men were killed and fourteen were wounded. The shock was felt for miles. Scores of houses were damaged, the doors of the royal palace were thrown open by the force of the explosion and many windows were smashed. The king, accompanied by the members of his household, joined the crowd which hurried to the scene, in order to ascertain the extent of the damage.

SHOT WAS FATAL.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Anthony Sherman, cashier of the Merchant's National Bank of this city, who shot himself last week because of a heavy shortage, died this morning.

THE DEATH ROLL.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., June 26.—The Right Rev. Wm. Garden Cowie, D. D., Bishop of Auckland, and primate of New Zealand, is dead.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Eastern states and northern New York—Fair tonight and Friday; Cooler tonight, frost is probable in extreme north portion. Erik west winds, diminishing.

The flavor of Red Rose tea suits the taste of people from Newfoundland to Vancouver, who are good judges of tea.

FREDERICTON.

The Teachers Institute in Session—Large Attendance—Distinguished Speakers.

(Special to the Star.) FREDERICTON, June 26.—The biennial meeting of the provincial teachers' institute convened here at the assembly hall at the Normal School, at 10 o'clock this morning, Chief Supt. Inch presiding. There is a very large attendance, even greater than anticipated, there being an enrollment of between 300 and 400 teachers and many other visitors. Among the principal persons to address the institute are Mrs. Oberholtzer of Philadelphia, Pa., Prof. Robertson of Ottawa and John Adams, an eminent educationalist of Glasgow, Scotland.

After devotional exercises, conducted by the chairman, Dr. Inch referred in feeling terms to the critical illness of the king. The whole assemblage rose and sang God Save the King.

Dr. Inch then addressed the meeting referring to the departure to South Africa of the New Brunswick teachers and to the progress along educational lines in this province. The Sloyd system and the school in this city was spoken of and all the teachers advised to make a visit to the Sloyd school exhibit in connection with the institute meeting.

The report of the executive committee was read by Secretary Brittain, showing receipts $565.30, and expenditure $547.42.

On motion of Mr. Oulton, seconded by Mr. Horseman, the enrollment fee was fixed as follows: Gentlemen, $1.00; ladies, 50 cents.

Prof. J. Brittain was re-appointed secretary and Miss Harriet Gregg of St. John, was elected assistant secretary pro tem.

Mrs. Oberholtzer then addressed the meeting, speaking upon school savings banks.

TERRIFIC STORM.

Causes Loss of Over Half a Million Dollars in Dakota and Iowa.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, June 26.—The storm which swept Dakota and northwestern Iowa was one of the most terrific in the history of this section. The path of the storm covered a space about 60 miles wide and extended from Pierre, S. D., to a point near Lamars, Iowa. Within its track there is not a community that has not suffered loss of property. At Hudson, S. D., the loss will amount to about $50,000. The entire loss from the storm will be more than $500,000. The storm was like a fierce tropical gale, and swept across the country for more than an hour with unabated fury. Its velocity was from seventy to eighty and at times ninety miles an hour. Store fronts and plate glass windows were blown in, houses were unroofed, barns were overturned and throughout the entire section there is not a windmill left standing.

A TRIPLE MURDER.

CHARGED AGAINST THE OWNER OF A SHANTY RIVER BOAT.

RIPLEY, Tenn., June 26.—O. J. Thompson, a fisherman and owner of a shanty river boat, has been placed in jail here upon the charge of a triple murder, committed near Caruther's Mill. The allegation is brought by Mrs. Ellen Thompson, who declares that Thompson killed her husband, at the point of a shot gun compelled her to move her household goods into Thompson's boat, and follow down the river with her two little children. Shortly after leaving the shore, according to the story of the woman, Thompson administered poison to the two children, who died a few hours afterwards.

Mr. Haydon came here from England and was for a time employed with Manchester, Robertson & Allison. When the first contingent went out to South Africa he was one of the members of G company. He was about 25 years of age and has a brother, Bertram Haydon, residing in this city. No particulars were given in the despatch, but it was stated that search was being made for the body.

SERVICE OF INTERCESSION.

At nine o'clock this morning a special service was held in St. Luke's church by the Rev. R. P. McKim. The coronation service was to have been held at this hour today, but owing to the illness of the king all the Episcopal churches in the empire decided to hold a special service of intercession to the hour appointed for the coronation service.
