TONITA DEAD. AMHERST, N. B., July 21.—Tonita F., 211, which took the first two heats of the free-for-all at New Glasgow yesterday, died on board the train at Amherst this morning on her return from New Glasgow. The cause of death is not known, but it is supposed the heat of yesterday had something to do with it. The mare was a very valuable one and was purchased last season by parties in Boston for Amos B. Eiter of this town.

A CLEAN CAMPAIGN.

If Theodore Roosevelt runs the coming presidential campaign as he says he will and is elected next November, the so-called "practical" politician will have to begin and learn his trade all over again.

In the United States, as elsewhere, elections are not, as a custom, "made with a mill"—there, as in some other countries, the party which has the control of the patronage and which can accumulate the largest campaign fund, is usually conceded to have a great advantage. And during a presidential election the patronage power and the "boss" have heretofore been worked to their full extent.

In the last two elections the Republican party has had the advantage on both points. Naturally it has had a monopoly of the office promising and free silver advocacy of the Democrats, had the practically unanimous support of the great financial interests of the country. For the coming contest, supposing both sides were to fight with equal unscrupulousness, the chances would be more nearly even, as it is financial index of the country and the greatest contributor to the campaign fund, is as heartily opposed to Roosevelt as it was to Bryan.

In the face of all this, it is stated that the president has declared that he will throw away whatever illegal advantages he has; that he is determined to run a clean campaign and will not buy votes either with money or the promise of office. Under usual conditions such a declaration would be meaningless as the campaign manager would arrange this to suit himself regardless of the candidate's scruples. But in this case the nominal manager is Mr. Cortelyou, formerly the president's private secretary, who was appointed at the president's demand in the face of the determined opposition of the machine politicians. This means that the real director of the contest will be Mr. Roosevelt himself and that he will be in a position to carry out any campaign policy he chooses.

The Democrats are standing on no such high ground, and considering their unenvied alliance and their long absence from power, it is not likely that they will. So, if President Roosevelt were to make the declaration attributed to him, this election promises to be something entirely new. If, fighting clean handed against the free use of money, he wins, Mr. Roosevelt will have done his country a service that will far outweigh anything else that stands to the credit of his remarkable career of honorable and effective work for the public good. If he loses, however, as the politicians say he will if he persists in his folly of refusing to arm himself equally with his opponent, he will only be classed as another rattle-brained Quixote who charged impossible windmills.

The risk is a big one, but for a man of Roosevelt's calibre the game is worth the while.

GEORGE GEE.

The qualities in George Gee that enabled him to die as he did would have made him a strong man and a valuable citizen had he been rightly directed.

There is no evidence of any innately violent trait in the lad. The crime for which he has paid the penalty was the outcome of passion which no attempt had ever been made to control, inflamed by intoxicants in which he had freely indulged, apparently without parental hindrance, from his boyhood. He had the power to win the liking of all his acquaintances and that he possessed unusual courage is proved by his dying.

With that courage to strengthen him, with those passions, well under control, to stimulate him, and with the moral ideas that an upbringing under good influences would have given to govern him, George Gee might have been a pride to his community instead of a horrible dead thing to be pointed out as a warning.

And, as the lad did not choose his environment, who is to blame for his distorted life and the crime that brought it an end?

AS USUAL. Another mission of the attorney general's undertaken at great expense to the province has failed. In spite of all his prophesies in spite of all his loud expressed confidence in the strength of New Brunswick's contention against the reduction of its representation in the Dominion parliament his case proved so weak that, after he had finished his argument, the imperial privy council did not even consider it necessary to listen to the argument in favor of the Dominion, but made their decision summarily. That power of ingenious gubblings, which gives Dr.

Pugsley his chief claim to legal eminence does not carry much weight with the common sense of the privy council. But of course there is a bright side to this as to every other matter. The province may be a little worse off but the attorney general has had a nice trip and is some thousands of dollars richer.

The remarkable discrepancy between the number of Russian and Japanese killed in the war correspondents' reports and in the official casualty lists is another proof of the truth of the saying: "The pen is mightier than the sword."

FORGIVENESS.

(By Alfred Austin).

Now hush with the dead years conflict dead, And with fresh days, let all begin anew, Why longer amid shrivelled leaf-drifts tread, When buds are swelling, flowers, sheaths the vernal through?

When buds are swelling, flowers, sheaths the vernal through? When trial seems the struggle and the crown, Course down the channel worn by vanishing flows, How few men half the bitterness they speak!

Words more than feelings keep us still apart, And, in the heat of passion and of pride, The tongue is far more cruel than the heart; Since love alone makes it worth while to live.

Let all be now forgiven and forgive, —From the Independent of June 2, 1904.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, July 21.—Hon. Mr. Fisher in reply to a question today said the amount paid out for taking the census was $1,184,728. The work is practically completed.

Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick gave a most unqualified denial to the report in the Mail and Empire that he was to be solicitor of the G. T. P. He said that the men exposed to be charged with all the crimes in the public calendar short of murder, but it was a different story when men were attacked professionally. The report in the Mail was an attack on him professionally.

The minister of railways intends introducing a bill to provide pensions for employees of the government system of railways. The men will contribute personally to the fund, and the government will also contribute towards the scheme. The bill is expected to pass about $50,000 a year.

Sir J. Sproule of East Grey made a vigorous expose of the manner in which diseased and pauper immigrants admitted to every martinet of these classes are kept out of the United States by wholesome quarantine inspection. Sir Sproule told only the plain truth.

FRUIT AS FOOD.

Fruit is largely water. Considered for its nutritive value only, it becomes expensive to the larder. In the extremely hot weather, fruit is a mild poison. In the centres of population, too, many of these fruits are handled with care to sanitary precautions. Many of the ills of childhood are chargeable to overindulgence in fruit.

A breakfast dish of fruit in any season is the truest "health food." In summer it is doubly beneficial. Raw fruit has been accorded an undeserved faintness of praise. As unquestioned gold in the morning, some one has said that it is "silver at noon" and "lead at night." It may be best in the morning, but it is good enough at any point on the dial. You should eat it after getting up in the morning; you may eat it freely before going to bed at night.

THE BATTLE LINE.

Sir. Plates, Capt. Marsters, sailed yesterday morning from West Bay for Cardiff.

Sir. Nemes, Capt. Shaw, left Freemantle for Adelaide.

Sir. Tanagra, Capt. Kehoe, will sail Friday from Manchester to Fernandina.

Sir. Cheronea, leading at New York, is expected to sail Tuesday next for Chilean and Peruvian ports, Punta Arenas, Corral, Coronel, Talcahuano, Valparaiso, Coquimbo, Coldera, Antofagasta, Iquique, Arica, in Chili, and Molendo, Pico, Callao, Salaverry, Pucallpa, Eten, Pimental and Paris, in Peru.

Sir. Leucra, Capt. Grant, will sail from St. John today for Brow Head, ready for her initial trip on the river as one of the Star Line fleet. She will in all probability be what is known as an "accommodated" boat, that is in the same roundabout-trip class as the "ready-made" boats used by, and as the Elaine is.

MURDERER IS WORSE; MAY DIE.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 21.—Thos. Cimnick, the man who shot his wife at Chapmanville a few days ago, was brought to the city this evening by Deputy Sheriff Foster and Officer Worton. Cimnick is now in the county jail, where he is being carefully looked after, receiving the best of attention. In a cell near the old man the son, who is accused of being an accessory after the fact, is confined, and is very anxious as to his father's condition. Dr. Cummings of Bath, who accompanied the officers and their prisoner here, was at first of the opinion that Cimnick would die, but was now inclined to believe that he will recover, although he says that the case is one of the most remarkable he ever heard of. The bullet entered the head back of the right ear, and all the doctor's efforts to locate it have failed. He has probed several times, and on each occasion without finding the lead. When the train arrived about 5:30 this afternoon Cimnick was out of the car and calmly took a seat in an open double seated carriage that Chief of Police Kelley had in waiting. Several officers were present, and Cimnick was escorted to the magistrate's office by a body-guard of men who have lately locked up Jesse James. Magistrate Dibbles read the charge to the prisoner, wifful murder, but he was not asked to plead and was committed to jail till Monday at 2 o'clock.

Cimnick is a man who holds his age well, and despite the many cuts and heavy bandages showed a clean and sharp countenance. His hair in his younger days was red, and his two sons who are now here resemble him greatly. One of the boys is in jail, the other is in the hospital, and his mother is employed for some time. With J. C. Hartley he had a long interview with his brother, and it was understood that the younger Cimnick was not within several miles of the place where the murder took place, and that he will have little difficulty in clearing himself.

Before leaving his home Cimnick made an ante-mortem statement practically the same as he made the other day, but of course if he recovers this cannot be used against him. Carleton and Hartley, who have known Cimnick for years are satisfied that he is crazy and should be sent to the provincial lunatic asylum as soon as his health would allow of the long trip. Neighbors have noticed for some time that Cimnick was acting queerly, and the news of the shooting was not such a big surprise to them as to outsiders.

Next the doctor, having been in the asylum at St. John, and after several months' treatment was discharged as cured. He is a native of the United States, having been born in Lepreux. His sons seem fine fellows and feel very badly over the affair.

The boy woman he married about eight years ago, the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. A. Giberson, of the Methodist church, the man who will be with Gee till the last. Mrs. Cimnick was never divorced from Boyd, who is in the lunatic asylum and it was only about a year after Boyd's imprisonment that she went through the Canadian Assize court with Cimnick's name. Previous to this Mrs. Boyd asked legal advice in Woodstock, and was advised not to marry, but disregarded the advice. The officers who came in today say that Mrs. Cimnick is very low, and it is doubtful if she will recover. Her brothers are rapidly recovering.

LOCAL NEWS.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Thomas E. Hicks, 16 St. Andrews street, when Miss Elizabeth J. Fleming was married to George Murray Rodgers of the north end by Rev. Thomas Marshall. Miss Marian Hicks was bridesmaid. The bride was given away by her cousin, Arthur Thomas, and received many beautiful remembrances from friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers will reside on Millidge avenue.

Mr. Ford is meeting with much success in his compositions for the church. Following closely upon the appearance of his prize anthem, "Hail, O God, Art Praised in Zion, comes the publication of a Te Deum and Jubilate in E flat by the Boston Music Company—Schirmer's.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Maxwell were pleasantly surprised at their residence, 203 Waterloo street, when some forty or fifty friends dropped in and presented the worthy couple with a handsome parlor lamp. A pleasant time was enjoyed with music, games, etc.

PROVINCES LOSE.

LONDON, July 21.—In the judicial committee of the privy council the case of the Maritime Provinces against the Dominion of Canada, Aylesworth, K. C., spoke for two and a half hours, and Attorney General Pugsley one and a half hours before lunch. Aylesworth advanced a new line of argument on the interpretation of sub-section 4, section 51, of the British North America Act, contending that no reduction of the number of members of the Dominion Council takes place until there had been a readjustment. Increasing that number. He also gave a graphic historical review.

Pugsley's contention was that the four provinces named in section 51 of the British North America Act could not now include the whole of Canada, including the territories and British Columbia.

After lunch the court decided it was not necessary to call upon Pugsley, but reserved judgment. Blake, speaking to the Canadian Press Association, said no comment is made here today on the case which won the case, that is all.

Hon. Mr. Lennox speaking to the Canadian Assize Press, declared himself delighted with the result. It was a clear victory on every point of the Dominion's contention.

CHURCH UNION. TORONTO, July 21.—The general committee of the Methodist church met here today and discussed church union. It was decided to increase the membership of the church, to that of the union committees of the Presbyterian and Congregational churches. The following members from New Brunswick were appointed on the union committee: Clerical—Dr. Evans, Rev. Geo. Steele, Dr. Paisley. Lay members—Dr. Inch, Dr. Allison, H. E. Chipman, who died there some days ago. Mr. McLeod spent several months in St. John in 1902, when he preached in Calvin church. A call was extended to him to come here to take charge of the church, and the congregation of Calvin church speak very highly of the late gentleman's ability as a preacher.

HAMILTON, July 21.—At the police court today J. Amberg, tailor, was found guilty of aiding and encouraging the importation of foreign labor. He admitted bringing two Russians under contract from the United States, paying the fare of one. Dozens of foreigners have been brought here under contract recently, and labor men urge that the alien labor act be strictly enforced and an inspector appointed the same as on the states border. This being the first case here, Amberg was allowed on suspended sentence upon paying all costs.
