COMMERCIAL

MONTREAL, Nov. 30.—It was semi-officially announced on the street today that a big rubber deal has been put through that will mark another long step in the almost sensational progress being made by the Canadian rubber industry. It is understood that the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company, Limited, has been created with capital in the vicinity of $5,000,000 and a bond issue of $2,000,000. This company will control the Canadian Rubber Co., Montreal; Granby Rubber Co. of Granby, Quebec; and Maple Leaf Rubber Co., Port Dalhousie, Ont.

Robert Walker, the young man who shot Detective Lehouquet three times with a revolver on the evening of September 20 in the Starke Hardware Company's warehouse, St. Peter street, and might have dispatched the detective altogether had not Detective O'Keefe knocked him senseless with an axe handle, was today sentenced by Judge Lavigne in the court of Kings Bench to twenty years in the penitentiary. Walker had pleaded guilty to the charge of attempted burglary, for which offense he was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary to run concurrently with the other sentence.

HURT IN CARLETON.
Robert Donald, a longshoreman, fell twenty-five feet between the decks of the steamer Montezuma last night. He injured his back and right arm. Donald was conveyed to the new emergency hospital. A morning paper stated that the hospital was provided by the C. P. R. Supt. Downie said this morning that other shipping firms here had helped to provide the hospital. The Wm. Thomson Co. paid 20 per cent. of the cost, Schofield Bros., 20 per cent., the C. P. R. steamship line 20 per cent., and the C. P. Railway 20 per cent. Mr. Downie wished the above statement published in justification to the other companies. Dr. Kenney is attending Donald. He was able to leave the hospital for his home which is on Protection street, last night. Yesterday's was the first case for the new hospital. Until this year an injured man had to be brought to the general public hospital for treatment.

LONDON HOUSE, CHARLOTTE STREET.

HIS NAME DISGRACED HE DECIDES TO DIE

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Police Bel-lone, a tailor, is tonight dying at a hospital from a wound inflicted after he had, according to the police, murdered his wife because the two had been disgraced.

The body of the young wife, Caterina, was found in the home of the couple yesterday. The woman had been shot in the head and back. Today the husband was discovered in the hallway of an office building where he had fallen after shooting himself through the head. The police quote him as having said that he had shot his wife and himself after reading letters from Italy, in which the name of his wife was frequently mentioned to his mortification and shame.

FIVE MEN KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE

BRISTOL, Tenn., Nov. 30.—A special from Clinchport, Va., says: Five men, including a foreman and four foreigners, were killed by an explosion of dynamite in a cut in which blasting was being done on the construction work of the South and Western Railroad, several miles from Clinchport.

The reports of the accident, which are meagre, state that several blasts had been fired when the men, thinking all had exploded, returned to the cut.
Immediately after two blasts whose fuses had burned slowly, exploded, resulting in the death of all the men in the cut.

JAMES NOLAN A MUCH MARRIED MAN

An Interesting Story of a Case With the Scenes Laid in Prince Edward Island and Cape Breton—Suit Is Being Brought by One of the Wives

(Charlottetown Patriot.)
Yesterday, Commissioner McEwen, house in St. Peter's. To make the case further complicated, Phoebe McAdam denies in this city, on a rather interesting case, the scenes from which are laid in Prince Edward Island and Cape Breton.

The facts are as follows:—About the year 1885, a half-breed Indian, James Nolan, drifted from Guysborough county, Nova Scotia in a boat to West St. Peter's. There he married in 1870, one Phoebe McAdam. All went well until the year 1882, when their guidedly appeared an Indian woman, from Bathurst, N. B., looking for Mr. Nolan.
At that time he was shingling the roof of a house with another man when the woman approached the building in true Indian fashion, skulking behind a tree. She could not see Nolan from her point of view, and asked the man with him if he was there. Nolan, who instructed him to reply in the negative, rapidly descended from the roof, disappeared from West St. Peter's and moved to Crapaud, where he lived under the name of James Strang, deserting his first wife, Phoebe Mc-Adam. He next went to St. Peter's, Cape Breton, where he married again.
Desiring a change he deserted wife number two (now deceased) and fled to Sydney, where he engaged in the liquor business, and where he married this Indian woman (now deceased) at Bathurst in 1890. Mr. Findlay McDonald, barrister, at Sydney, is conducting the case on behalf of Phoebe McAdam, and Mathison & Macdonald, of Charlottetown, on behalf of Larkins.

The next commission for taking evidence will meet at Bathurst, N. B.
It is said that Nolan, alias Strong, alias McAdam was anything but good-looking, but nevertheless he succeeded in winning attractive women.

Band and races is tonight's programme at St. Andrew's Rollaway. The races will be the best held in the rink since it was opened and not since the days of Skinner and Saunders, have two such fast men met as Viggo and Pol-is. How fast Polli can skate everybody knows who has seen him. Viggo is fast as his recent and former defeat of Polli prove. He has beaten Polli and other good men. This race alone is worth the price, but for good measure Billy Merritt will skate three miles against time, paced by Wilson, Alward, Nixon and some of the other fast ones.
The races will not be started until 10.15, owing to numerous requests from those who are unable to get away from work before that time.
