

OVER 20,000 ENJOY TO THE FULL FINE BIG CIRCUS OF COLE BROS.

Seldom Has a Circus Visiting St. John so Completely Fulfilled the Expectations of Those Who Saw it as Did the One Which Showed Here Yesterday—New and Startling Acts—Big Menagerie—Clowns Who are Really Funny

The show was opened with the ponies of the six Dellmeads, who with remarkable truthfulness represented famous animals of antiquity. The horseback work was good and there was lots of it. The double work was especially well done. The trapeze work was a good feature, one of the men doing the double air-act very easily and gracefully over the backs of the camel herd. The work aloft was well up to any seen here before. It included work as the flying trapeze, trick rings, and hanging poles and ladders. The revolving wheel from which half a dozen trapezes were suspended and on which charming young ladies did difficult feats gave a thrilling and beautiful effect. The upside-down walk of a couple of the performers also took well. On the triple horizontal bar the work of a troupe of acrobats was not only good, but startling. The giant waving with strings for the net was a very effective stunt on this piece of apparatus. One of the faintest and most original events on the programme was the aerial work of one of the ladies, who suspended by a strap held in her teeth, swung high in the air and performed a beautiful butterfly dance. The Acrobatic Troupe of black wire artists were a strong favorite with the audience. They did many feats on the wires that were new and difficult. They made a hit with their cake-walking on the wires. The Hilarious and Mims, Hildare, the contortionists, gave a striking exhibition of the different kinds the human form can be twisted into. The barrel and table jumping of a group of the clowns was a piece of high work. The Shirik Family of bicyclists gave a splendid exhibition of difficult work on wheels. Races arranged with a crowd of small boys added a amusing feature to the long programme. The horse races which brought the show to a close were well run and were really exciting. The evening included jockey races, races between a jockey and an unriden horse, bareback races and croquet races. A department of the circus which proved a gratifying surprise was the concert given by the evening. It was in quite a different class from the usual show passed off as an entertainment. The excellent programme given, consisting of minstrel work and high class vaudeville acts. The songs were rendered in a laughable and amusing way. There was a charming dance which was skillfully executed, and a trained dog which walked the tight rope was included. Taken altogether the circus of the year was a big success, and every one who saw it was well satisfied. An attractive feature was the brightness and cleanliness and apparent neatness of everything connected with the show. The weather man was almost too kind. The day was clear and cloudless and rather hotter than was needed. In the afternoon there were almost ten thousand people present. In the evening the big tent, which seats twelve thousand people, was filled. Immediately after the conclusion of the evening performance the tents were struck, the equipment was packed up and quickly loaded and Cole Brothers' circus left with pleasant memories in the minds of over twenty thousand people of their St. John performance.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION OPENED AT DENVER TODAY

DENVER, Colo., July 7.—The Democratic National Convention of 1930 which is to nominate candidates for the office of President and Vice-President of the United States in opposition to Wm. Taft of Ohio, and James H. Duffman of Ohio, who, when the Republican Convention nominated four weeks ago at Chicago, is at the point of action, and the early morning of the morning found thousands of delegates, alternates and spectators from all parts of the country beginning to stream towards the great auditorium, which the enterprise of the people of Denver has reserved for this purpose. The unusual feature of the first day's programme is the plan to adjourn at an early hour as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Ex-President Grover Cleveland, the last Democrat who occupied the position of Chief Magistrate of the Nation. This adjournment, however, is not expected to delay materially the work of the convention for today's session was, as usual, planned to be preliminary in its nature, including only the reading of the report of the National Committee, the reading of the call for the convention by Secretary Trevelyan Woodson, the opening prayer by

NEW YORK, July 7.—The cotton market, after opening at a decline of 1/2 to 3/4 points, and then making a slight rally on a brief covering interval, showed a downward tendency, which culminated in a net loss of 1 to 1 1/2 points. In the afternoon a deliberate drive was made against October, which carried that position down to 21 1/2, against 22, the high point of the day, and 22 1/2 the closing price. Thursday. The bears found the market without support, and while conditions were unfavorable in their favor, persistent though not large sellings, especially in the afternoon, was in evidence. The riders had the advantage of a weak average of southern spot accounts, a poor run of cables and a statement by a respected Georgia authority to the effect that of late cottons have been favorable as to 92 per cent, and unfavorable as to 8 per cent of the cotton belt. The same authority, however, mentioned the fact that the crop is now entering on that stage of growth where the danger lies in deficiency of rain and excess of temperature, and especially in a combination of both and that while a continuation of existing showery conditions over the entire belt would not be decidedly beneficial, disregard is paid that fact that the large crop of grain and cotton, whether in the hands of the cross-road merchant, jobber, or the manufacturer, has run to the market faster than the demand could be met. Once the country becomes satisfactory with the current crop, and it is the opinion of not a few that with or without the consent of any political issue, the usual political position is bound to improve in the large crops of grain and cotton, and with capital already becoming restless, want of something to do, means a little stir, and a few more cents it was a year ago.

CAUGHT LARGE WHALE IN ST. LAWRENCE RIVER

MONTREAL, July 6.—This is the open season for whales in Montreal. On Saturday evening Joe Simard, a hotel keeper, happened to see one of the city and secured him to a stake when he was enough down to allow it. Today he is dead. He measured 27 feet and weighs 2,000 pounds. This is not the first whale that has been caught in the river near the city. Last year one came up but got away from the scores of hunters that were after it with a rifle. The year before that he was captured one. They come up by mistake, and when they get into fresh water have to come to the top very often for air, and so are easily caught. Besides they become so weak that they would die if they were not harpooned.

The chauffeur was thrown out of the car and slightly injured, but the grand duke and countess despite the shower of splinters and glass were unhurt.

CHOSE DEATH BY FIRE RATHER THAN DYNAMITE

Two Expert Blasters Killed in an Ontario Quarry—Were Terribly Burned.

HAMILTON, Ont., July 7.—Given their choice of being burned to death or blown to atoms, James Sturrock, West Flamboro, and Bert Green, of Greenville, expert blasters, chose the former. Sturrock's body lies in the morgue and Green is dying at the hospital. They were drilling at Dundas quarry when the gas became ignited, setting fire to their clothing. Stopping to extinguish the flames meant death from a terrific explosion, which, however, followed a minute later. As they ran the wind fanned the flames, burning their clothes off. Green was the inventor of an explosive known as Greenite and drew a big royalty.

The Duke was wounded in the shoulder. The Duke published an article some days ago which the censor, M. Breitmayer, took up. The Duke refused to fight him because he was not noble, and the Baron substituted himself for M. Breitmayer, saying that the insult was to a Princess of the Royal house of France.

MONCTON, N. B., July 7.—The reception of the reports and the appointment of committees occupied the opening session this morning of the New Brunswick Grand Lodge I. O. G. T. There are over fifty representatives from the various lodges of the province and the sessions promise to be of unusual interest. Grand Secretary L. R. Hetherington, in his report this morning made reference to temperance legislation and said little progress had been made along this line in New Brunswick. The present government, he said, has up to the present time not given any great encouragement so far as new and better laws are concerned, but he declared that the existing laws must be enforced to the hilt and that the prohibitionists should be more active in their efforts to obtain legislation extending the ban to women and that every constitutional means be employed towards that end. Grand Secretary L. R. Hetherington, in his detailed report showed the present membership of the lodge to be 3073, the present number of lodges being eighty-five. The total receipts were $119,587; expenditure, $104,022. BAND OF DESPERATE MEN TO FREE DRUNKHOBORS

WINNIPEG, July 7.—Advices from Pierceon indicate that the mounted police fear serious trouble with the party of fanatics, who have invaded the country from Dakota and announced their intention of going to land the Doukhobors. There are only six in the party but all are well armed and desperate. The government would have to pay all the reinforcement costs. They are camped twelve miles above Pierceon and the police have asked Regina to send reinforcements to assist in their arrest in the hope that superior force will overcome the deluded cranks. It has been learned they are a section of the dreamers party of whom several were on trial at Medicine Hat recently for arson and attempted murder. The party is headed by James Sharp, a desperate and thoroughly bad character, who was deported from Lethbridge four years ago for causing a riot. He declared that he would return to Canada with fire and sword, and that he would not be taken alive. He further declares he will shoot the first man who attempts to take him.

HON. MR. FIELDING ON THE STAND AT THE QUEBEC BRIDGE INQUIRY

OTTAWA, Ont., July 7.—Hon. Mr. Fielding, the Minister of Finance, was examined before the Quebec bridge committee today. Asked by Mr. Monk whether he could give any idea of the present financial resources of the bridge company, Mr. Fielding said he did not know that the company had any resources of its own, except the very modest amount of stock they had subscribed. Mr. Monk suggested that in event of liquidation of the company the government would have to pay all the subsidy of $1,000,000. Mr. Fielding said the government had never treated the subsidy as a loss, and as for guaranteed bonds they had always assumed that they would take the responsibility. Mr. Monk said it appeared from the records that Mr. Schriber, deputy minister of railways, obtained authority from the government to employ an expert in regard to the examination of the plans of the bridge, and he asked Mr. Fielding why the government abandoned the idea of obtaining the services of an expert. Mr. Fielding said he could not remember whether he was acting as minister of Railways at the time that was spoken of, and his recollection was not clear as to the details. Mr. Monk said both Mr. Cooper and the Bridge Company engineer objected to employment of an expert, and the proposal was subsequently abandoned. Mr. Fielding collected discussing with Mr. Schriber the appointment of Mr. Cooper, and the contract awarded him.
