BY W. C. BENNETT. Winter-A Street outside an Alehouse-Man, his Wife and Child.

Oh don't go in to-night, John—
Now, husband, don't go in'.
To spond our only shilling, John,
Would be a cruel sin.
There's not a loaf at home. John—
There's not a loaf at home. John—
There's not a loaf at home.
And cold comes down the snow:

Then don't go in to-night!

Ah. John, you must remember—
And. John, I can't forget,
When never a foot of yours, John,
Was in the Alchouse set.
Ah, those were happy times, John,
No quarries than we knew,
And none were happier in our lane
Then I, dear John, and you:
Then don't go in to-night!

You will not go? - John, John, I mind, When we were courting, few

Or cheek as stolen you strength, John, But drink has stolen you strength, John, And paled your cheek to white, Has lottering made your young firm tread, And bowed your manily height.

You'll not go in to night!

You'll not go in !—Think on the day
That made ine. John, your wife.
What pleasant talk that day we had
Of all your future fine!
Of how your future fine!
Of how your steady earnings. John,
No wastings should consume.
Out weekly some new earnings bring
To deck our happy from:
Then don't go in to-night.

Then don't go in to-night.

To see us, John, as then we dressed,
So tidly, clean, and neat,
Brought out all eyes to follow us
As we went down the street.
Ah, little thought of neighbors then,
And we as intle thought.
That ever, John, to rags like those
By drink we should be brought:
You won't go is to night!

And, will you go: If not for me,
Yet for your baby say:
You know, John, not a taste of food.
Has prissed my lips to day:
And tell your father, little one,
"Tis mine your fife hangs on."
You will not spend the shilling, John?
You'll give it him! Come, John,
Come home with its to-night!

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Con-

THE most celebrated and infallible temedy for L. Colds. Coughs, Asthona, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAN OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great English Respecty.

MAISAM OF LIFE, discovered by that emitted medical chemist, 11t. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great English Remedy.

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only tennedy for this awful malady, and now introduced, to the public under the immediate superimendence of the inventor. Within these years it has been distributed from Main to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike axron/suino and transplant.

As a precentive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invalidable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate cough, Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. It is unrevaled. But the Proprietoris so comfident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms for consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID. rather than by persons afflict ed with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs—this may seem strong lain guage, but it is the result of experience in thou sands of cases, sustained by the most intelligene and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounce and infallible remedy in all cases, but it is the simplicin—it is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best remedy for incipien consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful securge, and which are transcensely supposed to be beyond the reach of other medicines dare not claim for their preparations a power like him; they know that it no case have such effects been produced—the grand object and pripose of the common remedies is simply to give relief—not to care; this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggsit; but while dally ing with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declimes, and every d

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]
There is certainly some mysterious and occuse virtue in the famous. "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the ireatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has five, to our knowledge, been offered to he public.
