

Barry Beesley

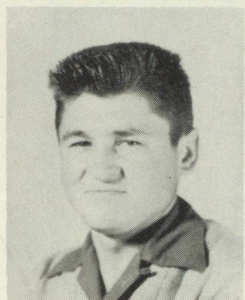

Sue Bilbro

Burke Barker

Chuck Alexander

Allan Beke

Chuck Alexander — Regina. Work fascinates him, he likes to look at it. His future lies in Optometry and he plans to continue his studies at Toronto next year.

Sharon Bruce — She's following a four-year lab. tech. course. This quiet miss took her high-schooling at Scott Collegiate.

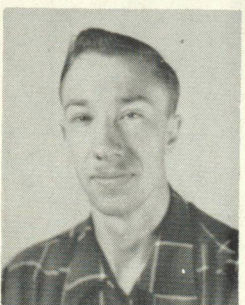

Sharon Bruce

Burke Barker — "The A bomb — the H bomb — we'll all be killed!" He plans to be a criminal lawyer. Watch out, all you crooks!

Gerald Bitney — Gerald took his high-school education at Central Collegiate. We wish him luck in the future.

Sue Bilbro — From Monday to Friday, she thinks of Saturday. Our efficient secretary is the only American taking Canadian history.

Barry Cook — "I know the earth exists, it's not my business why!" Barry is one of the shy type — seldom seen at school.

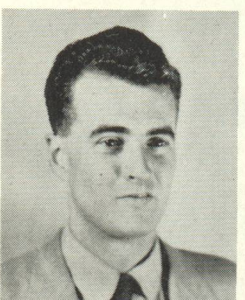

Gerald Bitney

Barry Beesley — Regina. Better known as "Beez". The ministry will claim his attention when he is finished University.

Paul Barschel — "Bushels." "Sir, are you accusing me of working?" Paul goes to classes when he gets tired playing bridge.

Allan Beke — Comes from Kipling. One of the loyal supporters of the hockey team.

Florence Cantalope — Regina. Started reading the dictionary, but found the stories too short. Flo takes to heart the saying, "Better late than never!"

Barry Cook

Paul Barschel

Florence Cantalope