CELEBRATED FIFTY YEARS MARRIED LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Purdy, of Great Shemogue, Surrounded by Unbroken Family Circle on Anniversary.

Fifty years ago last Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Purdy, of Great Shemogue, N. B., were united in marriage, and, on the 21st inst., surrounded by their entire family, most of their grandchildren and a number of relatives and intimate friends, they celebrated a half century of happy wedded life. The event which was marked by presentations and speeches, will stand out prominently in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Purdy, both of whom in their advanced years are enjoying excellent health.

The family, with relatives and friends assembled last Wednesday at the home of the happy couple, where, on behalf of the sons and daughters, Frank S. Purdy, of this city, in a graceful address, presented to their father a handsome gold mounted cane and a pair of cuff links, and to the mother, a gold mounted umbrella and a gold signet ring. Another presentation which took the form of a substantial purse was made by Rev. Mr. Hudson, of the Methodist body, on behalf of the assembled friends.

The room of a half century, replied in a happy vein, expressing his own and Mrs. Purdy's appreciation of the gifts bestowed and their keen sense of pleasure at again having about them their yet unbroken family circle with the grandchildren and friends, who had gathered to congratulate and wish them Godspeed with a still greater span of happy companionship in life's journey.

Other speakers were P. S. Mahoney, M. P. P., of Great Shemogue; Smith Owen, and James Tremblay, all of whom attested the sterling qualities of Mr. and Mrs. Purdy.

Mr. Purdy, who is of Loyalist descent, has for years been a prosperous farmer in Great Shemogue, where he holds the esteem of the entire community and his wife by her gentle, kindly disposition has won hosts of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdy were married at Great Shemogue, on August 21st, 1862, by the Rev. James Tweedie, of the Methodist denomination in the home of her father, which is still standing. Mrs. Purdy was Miss Sarah E. Wells, daughter of the late Gius Lewis and Susannah (Freeze) Wells.
