A Column Which Is Supposed To Be Of Interest To Women

Herein are Related Facts and Fancies Concerning the Activities of Individuals and Organizations, the Home, Fashions and Other Matters.

NEWS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

We are always pleased to receive any news of Women's Societies, fashion notes, new or tried recipes, etc., which may be of interest to our readers and we will publish same when suitable. All communications for these columns to ard, St. John.

Woman's Canadian Club.

An executive meeting of the Woman's Canadian Club was held Saturday evening at the residence of Mrs.
James F. Robertson, Mrs. Kubring the president in the chair. Miss Jarvis, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Melrose, the corresponding secretary, read communications from the local Council of Women, and the principal and teachers of the Alexandra school, reporting details of their donation to the Parks Convalescent Home. A letter was read from the secretary of the St.
John Ambulance Association stating that Colonel Birdwhistell was in town and it was decided to invite him to put the work of that association before a general meeting of the Canadian Club on Thursday evening, March 23rd, at eight o'clock. This meeting all members of the Voluntary Aid Department, the Young Woman's Patriotic Association and others interested are asked to attend. A letter has been written congratulating Hon. Raoul Dandurand upon the success of his efforts towards the relief of Dr. Deland, and Dr. Deland returns by the port of St. John the club will extend a hearty welcome to him.
A notice was read of an exhibition in Toronto of Canadian made toys, with the view of having a similar exhibition in St. John. The treasurer, Miss Mc-Givern, reported $25 paid and a number of suggested names of new members. Reports were read from the Convalescent Home, and it was decided to appoint an official visiting committee. A gramophone has been secured as a gift for the Siege Battery, donations for which have been received from the various Chapters of I. O. D.
E. MacDonald, of the Canadian Club and Mr. J. A.
McDonald, Plans for celebration of Loyalist Day were discussed. The lecture committee reported that J. R.
Vanwart read letters expressing the gratitude of relatives at home for sympathy shown their soldiers. Mrs.
Arthur Coster was added to this committee. Miss McGivern reported for the prisoners of war fund in the absence of Mrs. R. O'Brien, who is expected home this week.

Belgian Aid Pantry Sale.
The sale on Saturday in the Dufferin sample rooms was most successful, between sixty and seventy dollars being raised to be sent to Miss Jones to assist the Belgian family in which she is interested. The tempting wares were early disposed of and bare shelves greeted the late comers. The moral of this, Go early to the next one.

WHO WILL HELP THIS MOTHER TO GET TO HER SON?

A strong appeal has come through Mrs. Walter Harrison for assistance in a sad case. If anyone will give if only a little, the sum needed would soon be made up. Mrs. Harrison says:
"While in England, I was asked to visit a member of the 26th Battalion who was in the Military Hospital at Folkestone. He was wounded in November last, and cannot possibly recover; but the matron told me he would probably live for several months or longer. Knowing how serious his condition he is very anxious to see his mother, and on leaving him, his parting words to me were: 'Please tell my mother that if she thinks she can stand the trip, I am longing to see her before I die.' His mother lives here in St. John, and has given her three sons, her entire family to the army. One other boy has been wounded, but returned again to the trenches.
In view of her great sacrifice, it does not seem unreasonable to grant the request of this dying son."
"The Soldiers' Wives League, and the Patriotic Fund have offered some assistance, but not sufficient to pay her return passage or to meet incen-dial expenses, while in England, which would at least amount to $75.
She is anxious to reduce her expenses by any kind of work while there, and Mrs. Malcolm McAvity will interest herself in her case and endeavor to secure her employment, and would make all the arrangements, and control any financial matters in connection with her return passage. She can only make this journey through the interest and kindness of those other mothers, wives and sisters, who in a similar case, would not be compelled to consider ways and means of reaching their dear ones on active service, in the shortest possible time.

THE MAN WHO IS NERVOUS CAN BE CURED WITH FERROZONE

At the usual weekly meeting of the St. John W. C. T. U., held in their rooms, Gernale St., the President was in the chair, and devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Hipwell. There was a large attendance of members. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read, and discussed, many of the members expressed appreciation of The Standard giving a space in their valued column, and were glad to notice that advertisements against prohibition had been withdrawn. The usual committees report good work being done in the Hospital and Convalescent Home. One hundred dollars was voted to be sent to the Provincial Treasurer of the Dominion Temperance Alliance for work in this province. The next meeting will take the form of a parlor meeting, and at the home of Mrs. R. B. Patterson, March 24th, from three to five p. m.

Women's Institute of Lower Millstream.

The Lower Millstream Branch of Women's Institutes, held their regular monthly meeting, on March 14th, at the home of Mrs. T. D. Pearson.
The Institute voted to adopt one friendless prisoner of war, in Germany, the money for his support to be sent to London, to Mrs. Rivers Bulkeley. The husband of one of the members has signified his intention of adopting a prisoner also. If there are any others who would like to do likewise, the secretary would be pleased to obtain a prisoner's address for them.

Art.

The painting which has attracted the greatest attention in the exhibition of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, and which has been awarded the Philadelphia prize of $250, was done by a Boston woman—Mrs. Marie Danforth Chase. It is entitled "The Mother and she shows a woman of the tenement districts holding her baby tightly to her bosom, with its head against her left shoulder.

Mothers are the only goddesses in which the whole world believes.—Old French Proverb.

For Irish Babies.

Inspired by what the women's clubs have done to forward the baby-saving campaigns in this country, Lady Aberdeen, wife of the former governor general of Canada and recent viceroy of Ireland, has written to these American organizations, telling them this week of St. Patrick's Day—is "Irish Babies' Week," says the Daily Argus, Portland. She invites them to follow up the educational work of last week, done particularly for the American babies by some effort this week for the benefit of the babies of Ireland, who are in dire need of assistance and are not likely to get it from anywhere but America.

More than 2000 women's organiza- tions throughout the United States have received this appeal from Lady Aberdeen, who is president of the Women's National Health association of Ireland, which conducted a very successful baby-saving campaign in the Emerald Isle until the war broke out and seriously curtailed its supply of funds. Since the outbreak of war, the infant mortality rate in the Irish cities has been increasing and the birth rate decreasing, while at the

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days.
Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics.
How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.
With our children, it's different.
Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.
If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only the delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies.
Children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with content.

street.

Married in Calgary.

The many friends of H. M. Law, son of A. L. Law, Deputy Collector of Inland Revenue, will be interested to learn of his marriage to Miss Dorothy Wood. The ceremony took place on March 14th at St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Calgary, Alberta.
The bride looked very charming in a navy blue suit, with hat to match, and carrying a bouquet of roses.
Rev. H. D. Marr, uncle of the groom, officiated. Following the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the rectory by Mrs. H. D. Marr. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl necklace. After spending a short honeymoon in Calgary the happy young couple will take up their residence in Chase, British Columbia.

CURE YOUR BAD COUGH BY BREATHING "CATARRHOZONE"

You may dislike taking medicine—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "Catarrhozone"—it isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor full of pine essences and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed—Irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold and Catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, so sure, so pleasant as Catarrho-zone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhozone. All dealers sell Catarrhozone, large size which lasts two months, price $1.00; small size 50c; sample size 25c.

New Glasgow Man's Good Example.

New Glasgow has one man who is bound to do his bit for the Empire in the person of John Williamson, who, after spending three months in an eye infirmary trying to qualify himself for overseas service and failing, has offered to do recruiting work at his own expense. A trip from the land of perpetual snow at an altitude of 15,856 feet down a steep mountain to Mataneau is a journey to another world.
An unique, thrilling and altogether awe-inspiring transportation from one extreme of climate to another. At it only takes about ten minutes—dashing, twisting, drop-precipitous grade.

News Of The St. John Theatres Told In The Right Way

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage --- Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

The Opera House turns into a pic- ture theatre every so often, and it did so on Saturday night, showing four pictures. A Gaumont Film with a number of good views of the French army under Ypres (Canada). French troops in the snow; the Belgians in action at Ramscapelle; the capture of the Hun—a ruined crucifix; floods in the Thames Valley, and a fine musi- cal ride by British cavalry. The sec- ond film was a comedy, featuring Fay Tischer "Caught by the Hand," a story of diamond thieves and an un- willing partner. The third was a house picture with graceful Florence LaBelle in the role of an artist. The last was advertised as 1,000 feet of real laughter, and it was like most comedies, funny, if you think so. Maybe I didn't feel like laughing.

HATS OFF, PLEASE!

When the latest hats were worn, ladies gradually grew to realize the rights of those sitting behind them at the picture theatre, and it was the fashion to remove one's headgear.
The small hats of this winter have made people a bit careless, and now offenders against politeness are many, and the people who try to follow the fashion, suffer from cricks in the neck and loss of temper. Consideration for others is a certain mark of breeding, and no lady will refuse to remove even her new Easter bonnet (however much she wants to show it off), when politely requested to do so. The request comes both from the management and the audience. It is left to the good feeling of the St. John ladies —in other cities it is compulsory.

Standing at attention for the Na- tional Anthem is a mark of loyalty and taking off one's hat, is a mark of good manners. Can't we make a reso- lution to do both?

Additions to the V. L. S. E.

E. H. Sothorn, the famous Shakespearian actor, has joined the V. L. S.
E. Companies. On May 1st, he will begin to act before the camera. The intervening time, Mr. Sothorn will spend in making himself master of all the details and technicalities of the studio. He is the greatest actor America has produced. Mr. Sothorn states that his only regret in leaving the legitimate stage, is the fact that it gives another blow to the spoken drama. The stage's loss is undoubtedly the peoples' gain, when one realizes that for one who could witness a Sothorn performance on the stage, there are hundreds who will see the well-known man living upon the screen.

House Peters, the English actor, who is such a matinee favorite, is now with the Metro Company.

Edna May, the "Belle of New York" favorite, will shortly finish a production for the Vitaphone Company, called "Salvation John."

Rev. A. E. Saunders, formerly of Fredericton, and now at Marquette, Michigan. He left the mercantile business, which he was engaged in, to enter the ministry and was ordained at King-field, Maine, where many will hear with sorrow of his early death. His kindly manner won him many friends. He leaves a widow, one daughter and five sons; also one sister, Mrs. A. M.
Brown, and two brothers, Zephiah, of Havelock, Kings Co., and Joshua of Portland, Me.

Another Change.

Harold Lockwood and May Allison are fond of variety. They have been with the Paramount Company, with the American Film Company, and now they have joined the Metro Company, and will play in Quality Pictures.

Carl Von Schiller, who plays in "Vengeance is Mine," at the Lyric today, was born in Columbia, Ohio, educated in Chicago, and has been on the stage since 1909. For some time he was with the Morocco Company, then the Universal, and now is under

Now in Vancouver.

"The battle cry of peace," the monster film showing the Hun methods of warfare as applied to the United States, is arousing that nation to the stern realities of war and what it means to a conquered country, when at the mercy of the Prussian kind. It is a striking answer to men like Bryan and the pro-German pacifists in that country who are acting as tools of Germany in trying to prevent the United States getting in position to protect its people from military and naval pirates and Huns.

It has aroused the people of the United States in a way that at once convincing them of the peril which lies within and without their gates, and to the necessity of being able to protect their citizens with something more than words.

Canadians who have seen this picture are enthusiastic about it and when describing the mythical foe which invades the country invariably speak of them as the Germans, because their methods are so typical of the German invaders of Belgium today that they are easily recognized.

The pro-Germans in the United States are bitter against this film, and men like Theodore Roosevelt, who appear in the film, but commend it in an unreserved manner.

As the book "Uncle Tom's Cabin" fused the sentiments of that country, so "The Battle Cry of Peace" will have a deep and lasting impression of what happens to a country which comes under the heel of a foe to whom honour is unknown.

The scenario was founded on the book "Defenseless America," by Hudson Maxim, the inventor-author, and it clearly shows the weakness of the United States, if invaded by a first-class power, who would spell culture with a "K" and introduce it with machine guns turned ruthlessly on the noncombatants.

The size and immensity of the film has been to some extent overhauled, by the tremendous message it carries, but the fact that 16,000 National Gardmen, 800 G. A. R. members, 5,000 horses and 17 aeroplanes, with Zeppelins, submarines, torpedoes, battleships, dreadnoughts, torpedo boats and armored motor cars are shown on the screen, gives some idea of the tremendous size of the production.

The officers and men of the United States army have approved of the picture as a body, and National Guards have attended the showing of this film in the different cities as regiments in uniform. This film began its Canadian showing in Vancouver.

BRIGHT LINES.

Bright lines from "The Earth," by James Bernard Fagan, which Grace George has presented at the Playhouse in New York.

"A woman with a motor and a nasty mind is sure to see things."

"There's no doubt that motor cars are making a lot of difference to the Ten Commandments."

"You rich men assume that because a man or a corporation of men isn't strong enough to stand up to you, they are, therefore, idle and thrifless! You assume all the virtues."

"There never yet was an idealist who was able to carry out a tenth part of what he promised."

"If he went to church often enough, I've no doubt he'd have a telephone laid on to his pew."

Under the direction of James Young, at the Lasky studios, in Hollywood, Calif., work already is in progress on the screen version of "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," in which Mae Murray will make her second appearance as a screen star. This is a picturization of the famous Belasco success in which Henrietta played the title role.
Miss Murray has been surrounded by a notable cast of players and the production will be more elaborate than her first photoplay, "To Have and to Hold," which only recently was shown to the public.

CREIGHTON HALE

Creighton Hale, in "The Battle Cry of Peace," is a striking answer to men like Bryan and the pro-German pacifists in that country who are acting as tools of Germany in trying to prevent the United States getting in position to protect its people from military and naval pirates and Huns.
