The beautiful weather of the past week has added materially to the citizens whose interest centres in the several children's playgrounds, which are now in full swing for the summer holidays. The principle of training and clean sport for these little ones is greatly to be encouraged and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of the opportunity to visit the grounds and see their co-operation help in this very worthy object.

Fifty years ago, July 12th, 1866, marriage bells rang forth merrily at six o'clock in the morning for the double wedding which was solemnized by Rev. William Armstrong and the Rev. Mr. McNair, before a large number of invited guests in Trinity church, of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas MacKay and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin N. S. Stewart.

The bride, who looked charming in her handsome white silk wedding gown, with flowing bridal veil, carried bouquets of roses and were attended by the now Mrs. A. O. Skinner, Mrs. Mellick (Boston), and Mrs. Fairweather (California), gowned in prettily befrilled white muslin dresses with tulle veils, carrying bouquets in handsome silver bouquet holders, the gifts from the grooms.

The groomsmen were Mr. Henry Mellick, Mr. John Sandall, Mr. David Stewart and Mr. Charles Kerr. Immediately after the ceremony the bride party held a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas MacKay, Sr., where a delicious breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. MacKay and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left on a wedding trip.

Thursday evening, July 12th, 1916, a merry party of immediate relatives met at the summer residence of Mr. Thomas MacKay to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary and do honor to these popular brides and grooms, to whom time has dealt so lovingly, surrounded by their children and grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. MacKay have three children, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mr. Harry MacKay and Mrs. Horace Porter. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart have five children, Frederick Stanley Stewart, George Howard Stewart, Mrs. J. H. Evans, Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton and Miss Nora Stewart.

After the guests had assembled at Rothsay a delicious luncheon was served on the lawn. The table decorations were most artistically carried out, the color scheme being white and yellow, pretty cake baskets being entwined with roses. A large bridal cake occupied a conspicuous place, which was cut by the brides of fifty years ago. Speeches, appropriate to the occasion were given by the brothers of the interested parties, and the health drunk with best wishes that Mr. and Mrs. MacKay and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart might be spared to celebrate their diamond anniversary. After a most delightful game of "Flowers," at which Mrs. George MacKay was the successful prize winner, afternoon tea was served and the guests returned to the city. Many very elegant gifts were received by both parties. Amongst the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George MacKay, Miss Rosamond MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. G.
