

Social Notes of the Week

Mrs. Arthur Legere. The proceeds were for the patriotic fund and to the regimental fund of the 16th Battalion. Colonel D'Aigle and Mrs. D'Aigle were among the many guests.

It was with great pleasure hosts of friends read in the papers on Thursday that a cable had been received that Hon. Captain Rev. G. A. Kuhring was coming home on a short furlough. Captain Kuhring will receive a hearty welcome not only from his congregation at St. John's (Stone) church, but from all citizens.

Miss Portia Mackenzie left on Tuesday to visit Mrs. E. Alban Sturges in Fredericton.

St. Andrew's Day! One of hallowed memories to every Scot, was observed in a manner befitting the spirit of the times in St. John this year. The Rampant Lion of St. Andrew with the Union Jack floated from many buildings in the city on Thursday in honor of the Patron Saint of old Scotland but with the war clouds still hanging over our loved Empire and Auld Scotia's Sons freely laying their lives on the altar of Empire in many a hard fought fray it seemed impossible for the dear "folk at home" to make "merrie" as of yore; so, instead of the usual brilliant assemblage and the lively Scotch reels the St. Andrew's Society of St. John met at eight o'clock for the installation of officers, and this was followed by a supper and smoker during which the usual toasts were honored and suitable greetings exchanged with other Scottish societies.

Rev. A. L. Flemming and Mrs. Flemming leave the first of the week for Toronto to close their residence in that city and will return to St. John and will occupy Mrs. R. Gray Murray's residence, Crown street, until the first of May.

The ladies and gentlemen who took part in "The Climbers" at Fredericton on Wednesday evening before a very large and appreciative audience returned home on Thursday greatly pleased with the reception tendered them while in the capital. On Wednesday afternoon the cast with the officers of the Women's Volunteer Reserves, were entertained at a delightful tea by the Countess of Ashburnham at Ashburnham Place.

At the Wednesday night special meeting of the members of St. Paul's (Valley) church it was suggested that their rector, Rev. Captain Hooper, who went overseas with the 25th Battalion, be asked to return to St. John. The many friends of Captain Hooper will extend a welcome home again to him if he decides to return.

The assembly given by the St. Vincent Alumnae Association on Wednesday evening in the Knights of Columbus Hall was one of the most enjoyable dances given for some time. The pretty gowns worn by the ladies with the large number of officers made a brilliant scene. An excellent programme of dance music was provided by twelve members of the 16th Battalion band. Mrs. Joseph Quinn and Mrs. Edward O'Toole presided at the supper table which was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and a number of the alumnae assisted with the refreshments. Among those who arranged the delightful evening were Miss Sadie McLaughlin, Miss Annie Gossell, Miss Muriel Corkery, Mrs. Arthur Legere, Miss Monica King, Miss Josephine McGuire, the Misses Kane, Miss Ida Kennedy, Miss Agnes McLaughlin, Miss Mary Killom, Miss Vera King, Miss Regina Lavior, Miss May Connolly, Miss Fannie McGuigan. The chaperones were Mrs. James MacMurray, Mrs. Leonard A. Conlon and

The patriotic fete to be given at the Union Club December 12th by the Royal Standard Chapter I. O. E. D., promises to be a very delightful entertainment. At the meeting on Tuesday evening at which the regent, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, presided, different reports were heard from the committees and from the appearance great surprises await those who attend. Two huge illuminated Christmas trees will be in evidence; here everybody will find (for a small sum) a real Christmas present on purpose for them; here also will be found fine gifts for Christmas. The candy table will be most artistic; the dainty filled baskets and fancy boxes of home made sweets will no doubt find many willing purchasers. There will be a wonderful wheel of fortune where many elegant gifts will be disposed of after tea and evening. One of the best features will be "Mrs. Parley's Wax Works," a continuous performance. This committee has been able to secure the very best talent in our city who have kindly consented to take part. In the evening those who care to can "trip the light fantastic." A fine orchestra will be present. Last but not least will be the fine domestic home cooking table and afternoon tea which under such a competent committee could not help being a great success. The proceeds of this fete will be given by the off-cers and members of the Union Club under the auspices of the Royal Standard Chapter I. O. E. D. for patriotic purposes.

The bridge of ten tables given at the residence of Miss Morgan, Douglas Avenue, on Monday evening, the first of a series the object for raise funds for the Field Ambulance Regimental Fund, was a most delightful function and thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of guests present, among whom were many officers. The fortunate winners of the pretty prizes were Captain Robertson and Miss Mary Roberts. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bedell entertained last week at an Imperial party in honor of their sister, Mrs. Tinker, after which a very enjoyable supper was given at Bond's.

The dinner at the L. M. Club on Thursday evening was thoroughly enjoyed. After the delicious dinner bridge was played. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frink, Mr. J. M. Robinson, Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bowman, Mrs. L. P. D. T. Smith, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Dr. and Mrs. J. Lee Day, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cudlip, and Mrs. L. W. Barker.

The concert given by the choir of St. David's church on Tuesday evening was one of the best amateur concerts given in our city for a long time. Every number was a gem. Those taking part were Miss Gilchrist, Miss Bayard, Miss Climo, Miss Brown, Miss Carmichael, Miss Livingston, Miss Thompson, Miss Stammers, Mr. A. C. Smith, Mr. E. C. Girvan, Mr. Smith and Mr. Wood.

Mrs. J. Royden Thomson is a guest of Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Wellington Row.

Mrs. Simeon Jones entertained informally at the Sign of the Lantern on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Keator (Hallifax). Other guests were Miss Armstrong, Mrs. P. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. P. W. Thomson, Mrs. W. E. Foster and Miss Ethel Sidney-Smith.

Mr. Gordon Holder, 115th Battalion, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Holder, 146 Mecklenburg street, has been promoted to be Lieutenant. Lieutenant Holder has many friends in this city, his native city, who will be pleased to hear of this well merited promotion.

Word has been received by friends in this city that Major Herbert McLean is daily convalescing at a hospital at Bath, England, where he had been sent from a hospital in England for special treatment. Major McLean's hosts of friends will hope that he may have a speedy recovery.

Dr. T. D. Walker entertained at the tea hour at the Sign of the Lantern on Thursday in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Chipman.

Mr. Boyer Sidney-Smith was host at an informal dinner on Wednesday evening at the Union Club in honor of his sister, Mrs. Keator (Hallifax). Other guests were Mrs. Bertram Gordon, Mrs. Charles Coster, Colonel Powell, and Mr. Joseph Rennie (Hallifax).

Mrs. H. N. Stetson entertained at a small but delightful drawing room tea on Monday in honor of Mrs. Franklin Stetson. The prettily appointed tea table had for its decoration yellow and white chrysanthemums. The guests were Mrs. William Vassie, Mrs. H. W. Harrison, Mrs. Dowling, Mrs. George McA. Blizard, Mrs. F. Gordon Sanction, Miss Mary Harrison, Miss Jane Stone and Miss Frances Stetson.

HAD BOILS For Six Months. J.B.B. DROVE THEM AWAY

When the blood becomes impure the very first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, sores, etc., apt to get rid of these troubles you must cleanse the blood thoroughly with a good blood remedy.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market today is Burdock Blood Bitters.

Thousands of people from one end of Canada to the other have used it during the past forty years; and have nothing but words of praise for its cleansing properties.

Mr. Rufus Beers, Upper Main River, N. B., writes: "I want to say a few words about your medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters. I had boils for six months and sometimes was so bad I could not work. I tried lots of cures but nothing would drive them away for good until I took B. B. B. In a short time I was all better. It is a dandy medicine. I keep it in the house all the time."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., but so well and favorably is it known that there are many imitations on the market. See that our name appears on the wrapper.

Major Morgan was unable to be present, having left for the Pacific coast on a recruiting mission for the Kilties.

A marriage of much interest to many St. John friends took place at Ottawa on Thursday of last week when Miss Janet Fielding MacPee, daughter of the Hon. W. S. Fielding and Mrs. Fielding, was married to Mr. John Allan Cameron, son of the late Hon. John Cameron, at the residence of the bride's parents. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a very becoming gown of pearl grey crepe de chene embroidered in grey, a hat of the same shade, and a corsage bouquet of violets. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron left on a trip to New York. The bride's going away gown was plum colored broadcloth with hat to match and a seal coat. Congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. Cameron from hosts of friends in this city.

Mr. E. C. Crawford, assistant manager of the head office of the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city, has left to reside in Toronto. Mr. Crawford will be greatly missed by his many friends in St. John, amongst whom he is justly popular.

WELSFORD

Welsford, Dec. 1.—Fowler's Corner school has restarted with Miss Coy of Gagetown as teacher.

Mr. J. L. Gilbert formerly of British Columbia, has purchased the Malcolm McKeown farm at Welsford. He and his wife and children are taking up their residence there this week.

Word has been received from Pte. G. C. Armstrong from France stating that he is well and happy but exceedingly busy and wishes to be remembered to all his friends.

News has also come to hand from Ptes. James and Heber Howe, who are in the trenches, stating they are fine; the former has been promoted to corporal.

The many friends of Willard Wilson will be glad to know that he is still making rapid strides towards recovery and is still able to sit up.

One of the best meetings of the season in connection with the Boy Scout Movement took place at the Victoria Hall on Monday evening before a large audience. There was a review of 2nd class work also a keen competition on tenderfoot test work between the Wolf and Owl Patrols, the Owl Patrol winning by two points. The boys showed a vast improvement in the performance of the stave drill and company drill. The patrol leaders took the boys through the drills. The boys were also tested in their good turns. Camp fire yarn, "Charity to Others," was read. The freestyle report for the year was also read and discussed. Next meeting night first aid work will be continued.
