Bringing Sugar Here.
The S.S. Walter D. Munson sailed from Cuba Monday afternoon with 35,000 bags of raw sugar for this port.
She is expected to reach port within a few days.

Canadian Shipping.
It is often said that Canadian shipyards could not compete in cost of construction with British shipyards.
This contention was no doubt applied in the past, but judging from the change in conditions, Canadian shipyards can compete with the world.
It was recently stated in the shipbuilding and Harbor Construction magazine, that the cost of steel shipyard in British yards was between $160 and $180 and this estimate is now confirmed by the London correspondent of a well known American shipping journal.

Cunard Building More Ships.
The Cunard Steamship Company is now having built for its London-New York Service a half million tons of new shipping, to be all driven, according to the latest decision of the company. This is an important move, not merely because it will take away the superannuated vessels formerly held on this route by Germany, but because it marks a big victory for the advocates of old-fashioned steamships.

Sailed For The Indies.
The R. M. S. P. Chaleur got away yesterday for Halifax to finish loading for British West Indies.
Loading For France.

The S.S. Lake Stovi arrived in port yesterday from Montreal and docked at the Railway pier, where she will load a full cargo of refined sugar for France. J. E. Knight & Co. are the local agents.

Sugar For Copenhagen.
The S.S. Vika sailed yesterday for Copenhagen with a cargo of 357 tons of refined sugar. This vessel made a remarkably quick job of loading and clearing from this port.

C. P. R. Sailing.
The Canadian Pacific steamships service, in its first list of scheduled arrivals at the port of St. John, has seventeen vessels named for service and there is intimation that five others at least, may be placed on the St. John routes. The list of arrivals scheduled are: November 25, Montcalm; 28, Metagama; 28, Matigawa; 29, Monmouth; December 2, Gramplan; 4, Pretorian; 7, Corsican; 9, Minnedosa; 12, Sicilian; 13, Victoria; 14, War Bery; 17, Sardinian; 20, Holbrook; 23, Tunisian; 23, Sontesuma; 24, War Peridot; 26, Scandinavian.

New Steamers Coming.
A request for wharf space for new services to be operated between this port and French and South American ports was made by W. E. Burke, Montreal, director of transportation for the Canada S.S. Lines, Ltd. It is expected that the French service, which will travel between St. John and St. Nazaire, will be the first of next month and that the South American route, between this port and River Plate, will also be inaugurated soon. It is proposed to put large freighters of at least 5,000 tons gross on both routes and to have monthly sailings.

Commissioner Bullock advises that his department had taken into consideration the proposed new lines and that there would be no trouble in providing accommodation.

WEDDINGS
Ralston-Dalziel.

Centenary Methodist church was the scene of a very interesting event yesterday afternoon, when Miss Margaret Jean, daughter of Mrs. and the late J.
D. William, was united in marriage to D. William Dalziel of Victoria, Saskatchewan. The Rev. H. A. Goodwin performed the ceremony in the presence of about thirty invited guests and a large number of friends of the bride. Learning on the arm of her uncle, John Ralston, the bride entered the church amid the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Henry Dunlop. She was attended by Miss Mildred Bustin, as bridesmaid and the groom was supported by John E.
Rivington. The bride looked charmingly sweet in a gown of white georgeette over white satin, with pearl ytri-minims and bridal veil. She carried an armful of American Beauty roses.

The bridesmaid wore an embroidered mauve georgette gown with black picture hat, with mauve tye, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. During the ceremony Mrs. Louis LeLacour sang "O Promise Me." Albert Ralston and Clarence Wetmore acted as ushers.

After the wedding, the bridal party and guests repaired to the home of the bride's mother, at 85 Elliot Row, where a reception was held and lunch served. Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel left on the Montreal train for a short trip to St. Stephen and other border towns and on their return will reside at 85 Elliot Row. The bride, who has been a prominent worker in Sunday school work and teacher of the primary department at Centenary, was made the recipient of a handsome electric reading lamp by the officers and teachers of Centenary Sunday school. She was also presented with a beautiful silver service by Haley Bros. Ltd., by whom she was formerly employed. Many other handsome presents were received, including a substantial cheque from the groom's parents in Saskatchewan. The groom is a popular commercial traveller with the Willard Chocolate Company.
