

LLOYD GEORGE SEES END OF IRISH FIGHT

"We Have Murder by the Throat" He Tells Audience at Lord Mayor's Inaugural.

MANY READY TO ACCEPT HIS OFFER

Satisfied, Too, With Way Germany is Paying Off Her War Debt to Allies.

London, Nov. 9.—Mr. David Lloyd George in his address at the Lord Mayor's banquet at the Guildhall tonight discussed briefly and pointedly various problems with which the government is dealing.

Hopeful of Ireland

The premier spoke optimistically of Ireland, intimating that the situation there was well in hand.

Referring to Questions Between Germany and the Allies, Mr. Lloyd George said that the real test of German sincerity was disarmament and he added, "the report I have to give on that subject is very satisfactory."

"The German army is rapidly being reduced to 100,000. There are still too many rifles at large in Germany, but they are a greater menace to Germany's internal peace than to Germany's neighbors."

Huns Ready to Pay

Another important point, said the premier, was reparations. Germany is prepared to submit certain proposals for the liquidation of her obligations, he continued, "and, personally, I am pleased with them. They will be considered at the conference" and it is satisfactory to note that Germany realizes that her first duty is to repair the devastations the German armies wrought.

"I wish I could speak as hopefully of the Russian problem, where we have to do with men professing the ridiculous creed of Bolshevism, who unfortunately fail to realize how important it is they should respect their obligations."

He referred briefly to the industrial situation and the strikes, expressing the belief that there is better temper now all around.

Murder by the Throat

Speaking of the Irish situation, the premier said: "Unless I am mistaken, by the steps we have taken we have made too much attention to details and too little attention to the things which call the horrors of reprisals given out by partisans who stir over the horror of murder. There will be no real peace, no conciliation, until murder conspiracy is scattered."

"We care getting the right sort of men and are dispersing the terrorists. The government will look further power, if necessary, to deal with the situation. If it is war, as the terrorists say, then they cannot complain if the government employs some of the rules of war against them."

Irish Are Afraid

He referred to his offer to discuss any proposals with anyone able to speak in behalf of Ireland, saying: "I had given that invitation to Germany in the middle of the war, it would have had a response. But giving it to Ireland, no man here would have accepted it. You must break the terror before you can get peace. What the government is offering Ireland is partnership in the greatest enterprise the world has ever known at the height of its power."

TURKISH PILLAGE OF RUSSIAN TOWN BEING INVESTIGATED

Constantinople, Nov. 9.—Pillage by the Turks of the Imperial Russian watering place of Abbas Touman in the Caucasus mountains is being investigated here. A large quantity of the furnishings and paintings belonging to the luxurious villa of this little city, where many of the aristocracy of Russia used to pass their vacations, has been discovered in Constantinople. Some of these furnishings are in the hands of the Abbas Touman, former Russian war minister, now exiled in the Caucasus, now occupied by the Turkish general staff.

The additional force has been made a permanent detachment. Not only will the members stand guard over the treasury, stock exchange and banks and brokerage houses, but it will keep a watchful eye on prominent Wall Street figures and other such persons as they carry millions in securities through the streets.

Sealed Up Valuables

Up the beautiful roads from Batum to Tiflis, came in the spring of 1917, the Turkish army, following on the retreat of the Russian army, which had gone Bolshevik. The Turks were amazed at the riches of Abbas Touman. The commandant of the 11st brigade seized up all the valuables he could find. Then came the signing of the treaty by which Abbas Touman was left to Georgia.

No sooner had the Turkish commander learned of this treaty than he gathered up, before leaving, all valuable and buried them in Batum. He notified Abbas Touman at Constantinople that this booty should be offered to the Sultan. Meanwhile, as his army withdrew it is charged that he systematically robbed churches and convents and that these treasures also to Batum. Two other Turkish commanders are alleged to have shared in the loot.

NO POLITICS SAYS MEIGHEN IN THE C. N. R.

Hon. Mr. Meighen Declares C. P. R. is a Model for Guidance of National Railways.

DEFICITS EXPECTED FOR A LONG TIME

Calgary, Nov. 9.—A statement by Hon. Arthur Meighen on the government's policies regarding railways and soldiers' settlement and an appeal by Hon. J. A. Calder for the continuation at Ottawa of a strong government based on sound and moderate management featured the addresses of the Premier and the Minister of Immigration at luncheon here in their honor today.

Much of the Road Through Territory That Cannot Produce Revenue for Years.

Mr. Meighen declared that the management of the Canadian National Railway was free from all government interference. "It is vital," he said, "to establish and maintain the principle that the management of the road is in reality the management and must take full responsibility and that the only interference by the government would be a change of management."

"I am asked," he said "if we are not intoxicated with the prospect of government ownership that we shall eventually take over the Canadian Pacific road, which is the most efficient system operated as efficiently as it is at this time, it constitutes in many ways a model for us to follow. It is operated the road is then equipped in any government system. Our task is to make our own road as efficient as we can make it and then will be time enough to think of getting into waters where we have no cause to be."

Not After C. P. R.

The Premier held out no hope that the Canadian National would be on a par with the C. P. R. for a long time to come. Much of the road was built for colonization and other purposes which would not pay operating expenses for years, he said. The only thing that was to be done was to operate the road as efficiently as possible as far as possible the years between present deficit and future surplus.
