

Blasting Powder

Single and double tap fuse detonators.
Electric fuses, batteries.
Cast steel for drills.

W. H. THORNE CO., Limited
Market Square, St. John, N. B.

INVESTIGATION OF ALL SEPARATORS EMPHASIZES IHC SUPERIORITY

You cannot separate before you compare. The closer you investigate all separators, the more you will be impressed with IHC. You will find how much easier it is to clean, how much longer it lasts, how much easier it is to turn. There are no weak spots in an IHC Cream Harvester.

IHC Cream Harvesters

Is the strongest and most effective found in any separator. It has only one spring—steady—without vibration. IHC Cream Harvesters are equipped with a patented dirt-arrester which removes the finest particles of dirt from the milk before the milk is separated. The crank is at the right height for easy turning, and the tank is at an easy height to fill.

The IHC local dealer will be glad to point out the above features and many others. Made in two styles—Dairy and Bluebell—in four sizes. Write direct for catalogue, or nearest branch office.

IHC Service Bureau
The Bureau is a clearing house of agricultural data. It aims to learn the best ways of doing things on the farm, and then distribute the information. Your individual experience is the basis of the Service Bureau.

International Harvester Company of America at Brandon, Calgary, Edmonton, Hamilton, Lakehurst, London, Montreal, North Bay, Ottawa, Regina, Saskatoon, St. John, Toronto, Vancouver, Victoria.

International Harvester Company of America (Incorporated) U.S.A.

This Fence Has Vast Strength

For a fourth less than the price we pay, we could get hard-drawn steel wire. But that kind, though used in most other wire fences, hasn't the life, the springiness, the strength we insist on for Maritime Wire Fence.

So we make this fence of extra-heavy hard drawn steel wire of nine-gauge. Constantly we test it for quality. And so we know this fence has more strength than it probably will ever need.

Yet the price of Maritime Wire Fence is no higher than you must pay for ordinary fence. But the life of the Maritime Fence is far longer—and the fence surely reliable.

On this extra-quality wire we put a smooth, even heavy coat of galvanizing. We put on

MAXWELL'S Favorite Churn

Any little girl can do the churning with Maxwell's Favorite Churn. It makes the smoothest, richest, most delicious butter you ever tasted. The roller bearings—and hand and foot levers—making an easy task, even for a child.

FOR OUT DOOR WORK IN WET WEATHER NOTHING EQUALS TOWER'S FISH BRAND WATERPROOF CLOTHING TO KEEP YOU DRY. Made for hard service and guaranteed waterproof.

TOWER CANADIAN OILED CLOTHING CO. LTD. Toronto, Canada.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Amasa K. Bagley.

Salisbury, N. B., March 13.—The death occurred on Saturday evening at her home, Lewis Mountain, of Mrs. Amasa K. Bagley (nee Miss Edith Nichol), who had been in failing health for several months. Mrs. Bagley, who was about 28 years of age, was a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late Thomas Cochran. She leaves besides her young husband and her mother, three sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Ansel Lewis, of Boundary Creek; Mrs. Lyman P. Crane, of Barré (Mass.); and Mrs. Dorothy Cochran, at home. The brothers are Ebenezer Cochran, at home; Thomas Cochran, of Moncton; and John Cochran, at present in the United States Army. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning.

Mrs. William H. Weldon.

Amnapolis, N. S., March 13.—(Special)—The death of Lucy, wife of William H. Weldon, occurred at her late residence, Annapolis, at an early hour this morning after an illness extending over several days. She was 67 years of age, and was the daughter of the late John A. Macdonald, a well-known merchant and manufacturer of Montreal, and was highly respected, and will be much missed by a large circle of relations and friends. A husband and three children, Miss Margaret Charles Ellis, of Maine; Mrs. William M. Kellogg, of North Cambridge (Mass.); and Mrs. S. C. Turner, of Bridgetown (N. S.), also one sister and three brothers, Mrs. W. A. Balfour, of Montreal; David J. Hall, town clerk, and ex-governor of Merriville, Ontario; Charles, of New York, and George, of Idaho.

Bedford B. Manzer.

Woodstock, N. B., March 13.—(Special)—There passed away this afternoon, after an illness of a few days, at the age of 58 years, a respected resident and one of our leading merchants, Bedford B. Manzer. This sad news came with a shock to the people of the town and at first it could not be believed, as up to Friday he was in his place of business and was enjoying his usual health. He was a member of the Methodist church. Deceased was practically a self-made man, having first been associated in the grocery and dry goods business as manager yesterday, and he succeeded in ownership in 1894. He came to Woodstock from York county, where many relatives reside. He leaves to mourn one son, Dr. G. R. Manzer, of Woodstock, N. B., and one daughter, who he was married less than a year ago. His first wife was a Miss Belyea, daughter of W. B. Belyea of this town. His youngest son, E. B. Belyea, died suddenly last November. The funeral will be held from his late residence at the Methodist cemetery on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. John McDonald.

The death of Mrs. Lydia McDonald, widow of John McDonald, occurred in this city Saturday morning. McDonald leaves five sons, two by her first husband, James Greer, of St. John, and George Greer, of Boston; and three by her second husband, also five daughters, Mrs. B. Wallace, of Boston; John and Harry, of this city. The daughters are Mrs. M. A. Lamprey and Mrs. Patrick Shields, of Boston, and Mrs. Owen Trainor, Mrs. A. McDermott and Miss Elizabeth, of this city.

Benjamin M. Tilley.

Woodstock, March 13.—(Special)—The funeral took place this afternoon of Benjamin Morse Tilley, who passed away yesterday at the home of his sister, Mrs. G. G. Grafton, and Mrs. P. J. Smith, of Queens county. Rev. H. G. Kennedy conducted the religious services.

Mrs. Katherine O'Brien.

The death of Katherine, wife of Thomas O'Brien, occurred yesterday morning after a lingering illness at her home 375 Brussels street. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Ryan, and was the wife of her age, son Francis, and one daughter, Agnes, as well as three brothers, Michael, John, and William Ryan of this city, and five sisters in Boston.

Mrs. M. V. Wilson.

Tuesday, March 14.—Mrs. Annie Elizabeth, wife of Matthew V. Wilson, tailor, died yesterday morning at her home in Golding street, after an illness of some months. She was a daughter of the late John Ferris, of West St. John, and leaves, besides her husband and infant daughter, a mother, two sisters, Mrs. F. P. Kerr and Miss Clara, and one brother, George Ferris, in the post office.

Mrs. David Dinan.

Moncton, March 13.—(Special)—Mrs. David Dinan, nee Chatham, who was brought to Moncton hospital two weeks ago for an operation, died in the hospital this evening and her body was taken to Chatham on the Maritime Express. Deceased was 47 years of age.

Funeral of Mrs. Stephen Jones.

Apothiqui, March 13.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Stephen Jones took place from her residence on Monday afternoon and was very largely attended. Rev. James McEneaney spoke in a very appropriate and comforting manner and the choir rendered "Nearer My God to Thee, Alas and Did My Saviour Bleed, and Sometime Will Understand." The pall-bearers were W. A. Ebb, Neil Johnson, W. A. Jones, Geo. B. Jones, Herbert S. Jones and Harley S. Jones, sons of the deceased.

John Quinn.

The death of John Quinn, one of the oldest and best known residents of Bellefleur, Restigouche county, occurred at that place yesterday. The deceased, who was in the 86th year of his age, was a brother of the late George Quinn, of Indian town. He is survived by two brothers, Patrick, of Bellefleur; Peter, of Everett, Washington; and one nephew, James, of the marine department, Ottawa.

Phineas Pendleton Nichols.

The funeral of Dr. Phineas Pendleton Nichols, who died in Bermuda on March 13, was held in Searport (Me.), his birth place, on Saturday last, March 11. The services were conducted by the Rev.

Charles H. McElhiney, pastor of the Congregational church of that place, and Nichols, cemetery overlooking Penobscot Bay, where a great number of Dr. Nichols' shipbuilding and seagoing ancestors lie buried.

Dr. Nichols, who was 51 years old, belonged to one of the oldest families in New England, and was descended from the famous Carvers and Gilmores, whose ancestry traced back to the Mayflower's company.

He was born in Searport, his father being Captain William G. Nichols, a well-known shipbuilder, shipowner and merchant commander. In fact, a great many of Dr. Nichols' relatives and forebears had, owned, and sailed ships in the China and East India trade during the palmy days of the wooden shipbuilding industry. Dr. Nichols' father built and commanded many stout clipper ships and carried their crews into a hundred ports scattered over the Seven Seas.

Dr. Nichols was educated at the famous "Little Blue" school and at Williston Academy. He was afterwards graduated from the Pennsylvania Dental College at Philadelphia with the degree of D. D. S.

After practicing some time in Maine, he removed to Northampton (Mass.), where he became one of the leading citizens. He was married in this city in 1891 to Miss Maud McCready, a daughter of J. E. McCready, of the Charlottetown Academy, who was 67 years of age, and was the daughter of the late John A. Macdonald, a well-known merchant and manufacturer of Montreal, and was highly respected, and will be much missed by a large circle of relations and friends.

Mrs. Philip Doody.

The death of Mrs. Philip Doody, a well-known resident of the South End of this city, occurred yesterday morning at her home, 29 Harding street. She was 78 years of age, and leaves five sons, William J., Joseph P., Gilbert, Philip and Henry J., all of St. John. Her husband died some time ago.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hunter.

The death of Mrs. Eliza Hunter, widow of Malcolm Hunter, occurred Tuesday. She was a resident of this city a long time and had many friends, who will learn with regret of her death. She leaves two sisters—Mrs. James Paisley, of Oak Point; and Mrs. Andrew McNeil of this city; also two brothers—Hugh Carson, of Oak Point, and William Carson of St. John.

Mrs. Eliza Nicc.

The death of Mrs. Eliza Nicc, occurred early yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Walker of South Bay. She had been in ill health for some time, and was 85 years of age, and had been sick but little during her life. Her husband died in California in 1865. She is survived by two daughters, one son and many grandchildren, and a great-grandchild. The daughters are Mrs. Appley of Carleton, Mrs. James E. Walker of South Bay, Mrs. Rogers of Halifax and Mrs. W. H. Bull of California. The son is J. B. Nicc, of Portland, Oregon.

John T. Jardine.

Boston, Mass., March 15.—(Special)—John T. Jardine, manager of a door, saw and blind factory, who died at the home of his wife, Mrs. Mary Jardine, on Monday, was born in West Somerville in 1877, and died in West Somerville on Monday. He was a member of the N. B. Military Veterans' Association and will attend the funeral in a body.

Robert Brown.

(Brantford Examiner, March 9). The death occurred early this morning of a well known resident of this city in the person of Robert J. Brown, formerly a resident of Brantford, Ontario. The deceased was in his 54th year and although he had been ill for some time, death came suddenly. The late Mr. Brown was a native of Brantford, N. B., and had continuously resided in Brantford for forty years. He was always held in the highest esteem by his fellow citizens who were his friends and neighbors. He was a member of the Methodist church and was a devoted member of the same. He was a well known and popular citizen. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Brown, and one daughter, Mrs. Henry R. Brown, of Brantford, Ontario. The funeral will take place on Saturday to Greenwood cemetery.

Samuel Howard.

The Charlotte Guardian under date of March 9, says: "Rev. Samuel Howard, who was a member of the Baptist church, died on Tuesday at Fredericton, P.E.I., having called home on account of the serious illness of his aged father, Samuel Howard, who has been lying for some time past with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Weeks. Rev. Mr. Howard was at the bedside of his father when he passed away yesterday at 12 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Howard and J. D. Howard, of Alberta, are brothers of the deceased, and he has four sons and five daughters living. Samuel Howard, formerly in charge of the St. John, N. B., branch of the Sydney Record, is a grandson.

Benjamin Corrigan.

Benjamin Corrigan, probably the oldest man in New Brunswick, died at his home in Melrose (N. H.) Monday night at an advanced age. He was a native of New Brunswick and his father's name was Benjamin. He was a well known and popular citizen. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Corrigan, and one daughter, Mrs. John Corrigan, of Melrose, N. H. The funeral will take place on Saturday to Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. John Daley.

The death occurred at her home, 39 Erin street, yesterday, of Mrs. John Daley, wife of John Daley, of St. John. She was a well known and popular citizen. She is survived by her husband and two sons, William and Joseph Daley, both of St. John. Pneumonia was the cause.

John Quinn.

The death of John Quinn, one of the oldest and best known residents of Bellefleur, Restigouche county, occurred at that place yesterday. The deceased, who was in the 86th year of his age, was a brother of the late George Quinn, of Indian town. He is survived by two brothers, Patrick, of Bellefleur; Peter, of Everett, Washington; and one nephew, James, of the marine department, Ottawa.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miles.

The death occurred at her residence, 292 Waterloo road, yesterday, of Elizabeth C. Miles, widow of the late William Miles. She was a well known and popular citizen. She is survived by her husband and two sons, William and Joseph Miles, both of St. John. Pneumonia was the cause.

LOCAL NEWS

Correspondents who send letters to The Semi-Weekly Telegraph and who wish to have them returned if they are not printed, must send stamps for return postage.

Mrs. Ann Davidson, who was assaulted at Willow Grove last week by George Hector, now in jail awaiting trial, continues to show signs of improvement.

It is announced that suit is being brought against Mr. K. McKean, of this city, by John Fleming for $15,500 for commission on a sale of timber lands, alleged by Mr. Fleming to be due him.

Miss Sawyer, of St. John, who has been in Woodstock for a month, filling the position of instructing operator at the N. B. Telephone Co., has completed her duties here and left for Andover on Wednesday.

The finance committee of the town council, at its last meeting, was authorized to arrange with the Bank of Montreal to overdraft the account authorized by law, $5,000, for a sum not to exceed $3,000.—Chatham Commercial.

The Nepsiguit Lumber Co., lately in liquidation, has resumed operations. The old Stacy mill above the station, and shipments of lumber have been commenced from the new mill near Carleton Station.—Newcastle Advocate.

The marriage took place Monday of the residence of Charles N. Douglas, 160 Main street, of Wilfrid Hughes Huggard and Miss Elsie Irene Trubert, both of Springfield, Kings county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. C. B. Apple.

Harry Frink has returned from Sussex, where he had the losses adjusted in connection with the recent fire. The loss on the Dupon House was appraised at $9,000 with $1,500 on the furniture, on the property of Isaac DeBoie $125, and on that of Dr. White $112.

James Jones, a former resident of this city, who suffered a partial loss of reason during a severe attack of the grippe in Boston, was brought home by his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Jones, of Autumn street, Saturday and is now making rapid progress towards recovery.

George L. Kelly, for fifteen years in the employ of Robertson, Foster & Smith, as a commercial traveler in partnership with Mr. Hall, has purchased the large general store at Drummond Mines, Gloucester county, owned by T. M. Burns, and will carry on business there.

The body of Edward Mallet was taken through here Monday en route to Tracadie, the former rhombus of deceased, occurred at Crono (Me.), during an operation which was being performed by local doctors. A wife and family survive. A brother was in charge of the body.

The two Abernethy, father and son, who were placed in the isolation hospital some time ago, being held as smallpox suspects, have not yet been given their discharge. It is expected, however, that their case will be considered at the monthly meeting of the board of health this afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Aide, wife of Mr. S. J. Aide, west side, is taking suit against the city, claiming a right of way across the city's property at Spruce Lake. This claim is disputed by the city. Mrs. Aide has time ago purchased the Steeves property at Spruce Lake and it is understood that there is a right of way from it across the dam to the highway.

James C. Hutchinson, marine engineer, has sold his home in Bridge street, and with his wife and family left evening for Chatham (B. C.), a few miles from Vancouver, where he has secured a position. Mr. Hutchinson has long been a resident of Indian town, and the departure of himself and his family is regretted by their friends.

Work is being carried on slowly on the site of the new sugar refinery. It is very difficult, however, owing to the fact that the frost has penetrated four feet into the ground at the Ballast wharf. Preparations are being made to clear the ground on the drill hole site. There are four buildings there now. Three of these will be moved, and the fourth torn down.

By the will of the late Charles Byrd, of Moncton, who died leaving a large estate, the balance of $89,000 goes to charity, and the balance to relatives, Mrs. Dr. G. G. Corbet, of this city, and Mrs. Dr. J. L. Dugal, of Carleton, who are nieces, receive $3,900 each. The late Mr. Byrd was well known in this city.

Dr. Edward Dudley, a graduate of London University, will take up the practice for the late Dr. J. H. Grey, of Fairville, Dr. Dudley came to New Brunswick five years ago and has been living at Hoyt Station, but recently sold his large property to another Englishman, John Edford, who will devote himself exclusively to farming.

The recovery of Mrs. Ann Davidson, who was assaulted at Willow Grove last Thursday evening, is now looked upon as certain. She was resting comfortably last evening and showed signs of improvement. It is expected that the trial of George Hector, who is charged with the crime of assaulting her, will be commenced within the next few days.

WEDDINGS

Allen-Craig.

Thursday, March 16. In St. Andrew's church yesterday at 5 o'clock a pretty wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. D. H. Barré, when he united in marriage Miss Bessie Craig and George C. Allen. Miss Craig was attended by little Helen Hammond, who acted as bridesmaid, wearing a gown of white and carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The bride wore a handsome brown traveling suit. Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Allen left for Toronto and Niagara Falls on a honeymoon trip, and on their return will reside in Moncton, where the groom is baggage-master for the L. C. N. B. Railway. Both bride and groom are well known to many friends here, having served as a nurse and on the general hospital staff for some time. Many beautiful remembrances were received by them.

Reddy-Pooley.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., March 15.—Dr. H. Reddy, superintendent of the Women's Hospital in Montreal, was married here yesterday to Ethel B. Poole, eldest daughter of L. M. Poole, retired lumber merchant, who resides in this city. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. H. E. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Reddy left for Atlantic City and New York on a honeymoon trip.

Scriven-Pooley.

The marriage took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in St. Luke's church, of Alfred G. Scriven to Miss Mary Alice Pooley, both of Clones, Queens county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. McKim, who acted as officiating minister. The couple left on the 6 o'clock train for their home.

BIG PAINT VALUE—RAMSAY'S PAINTS.

Established seventy years ago, the leading brand, Ramsay's Paint, for good paint value is Ramsay's Paint. The name is a household word throughout Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and is the standard by which all other paints are judged. They are of such durability, beauty and tone that they are unequalled in giving lasting satisfaction to all who use them. While these Paints are thoroughly tested and the product of years of experience, they are positively pure, wear fullest paint life, and at the same time they are certainly giving great pleasure and satisfaction to thousands of homes throughout the country.

Cold water should be poured on grease, as soon as it is spilled on the floor, as it will harden the grease and prevent it from being removed.

For the Coronation.

A selection has been made from among the men of the 62nd regiment, St. John Fusiliers, for the representation of that body at the coronation in June, and the lucky no-coms, chosen by Lieut. Col. J. McCreary are as follows:—Walter J. Lamb, Regiment S. M. Corp.; Minard G. Foster, "D" Co.; and Corp. Joseph Addison, "C" Co.

STRONG REMARKS OF ORANGE LEADERS

Dr. Sproule Condemns Catholic Right to Dissolve Mixed Marriages

Smith's Falls, Ont., March 15.—A strongly worded report to the Orange order to oppose reciprocity, the advocacy of a change in the criminal laws of the province to dissolve mixed marriages, and the prohibition of bilingual schools and home rule in Ireland were the features of the plenary which was held here tonight in connection with the annual meeting of the Orange grand lodge of eastern Ontario. The Orange house was the scene of one gathering and crowded to the doors. A large number of grand masters, Col. Sam. Hughes, M. P., of eastern Ontario, Kingston, grand master of Kingston, grand chaplain of the local Black Preceptory, and others.

At the meeting in the town hall, after a formal dinner, the Rev. J. C. B. Apple, Thomas Gilday, grand master of the local Chapter of British North America, was called upon. After telling of the growth of Orangeism in the province, he urged the Orange men to attend a grand lodge, Mr. Gilday was to speak of the political aspect of the Orange order. He said, "The Orange was Tory, was so because it had always believed in what was best for the country and there was no such thing as a party."

"I can conceive of no worse thing than to be ruled by a Roman Catholic Pope, than being ruled by an Orange Pope," said Col. Sam. Hughes in discussing an political leaning in the Orange order. "Twenty years from today Rome will be twenty years from the face of the earth by the power of the Orange order against the Catholic Church."

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

Mr. Gilday, in his address, said that the Orange order was a French Canadian, but desired his children to learn English. He said that the Orange order was the ultimate annexation of the latter country.

VOL. PARLIAM. REVOLT HAZE

Is Also Against Bi-lingual Schools and Home Rule for Ireland—Col. Sam Hughes Sees Church of Rome's Finish in Twenty Years.

Scores of His With Five Liberal Me Great Enthusias of Affairs—F. Campaign This Other Membere

Special to The Telegraph

Fredericton, N. B., March 20.—The opposition campaign for George F. Burden began evening with splendid meetings in the city. Perhaps the most important was that in Millville, where W. A. Hay was Mr. Burden, Hon. W. P. Geo. W. Upham, M. P. E., an audience. The greatest enthusiasm.

Speaking over the long distance phone tonight, Mr. Burden said that the success he had with wherever he went, so many changes, scores of had supported the Hazen government at the last election, as that they would work and candidates for him.

Messrs. Copp and Phinney splendid audience at Barby C. Mr. Moorehouse had his good night.

N. W. Brown and C. N. Good a great meeting at Beanie's. Mr. J. F. Tweeddale, M. P., Peter J. Hughes and other men ranks at the eagerness of position has entered the fight. The good fighters in York. At Pennac the meeting was ever held in that place. Many who expressed a willingness to

NEWCASTLE HONOR MAX A

Former Native of the Greeted by Band and Officials, and Ban in the Evening.

Special to The Telegraph

Newcastle, N. B., March 20.—Mr. M. P., on his arrival at home this afternoon, was met by a band and council, board of officers at the station, and escorted to the Opera House, and escorted to the Opera House, accompanied by Mayor and other officials, with the freedom of the town.