

BETTER LIGHT L OIL (Kerosene)

McGill University, Montreal, on leading oil-burners... Better light than gas or electricity.

TY IN ST. JOHN

The work of excavating the hill is being carried on rapidly and the hill in front of the municipal home is a very busy spot.

WATER AT COURTESY BAY.

The work of excavating the hill is being carried on rapidly and the hill in front of the municipal home is a very busy spot.

HUGE STEEL PLANT FOR THIS CITY?

Fredericton Report Is That It Is to Employ 1,000 Men and Take 3,000 Tons of Iron Ore Daily.

W. F. C. Parsons, chief engineer for the Drummond Iron Mines, arrived in the city last evening from Middleton (N. B.) and is at the Barker House.

While Mr. Parsons declined to make any statement regarding the subject, it is generally understood that the Messrs. Drummond, who are leaders in the development of the iron industry in Canada, are interested in the proposed steel works.

VICTORIA CIRCUIT COURT

Anderson, Sept. 25.—The circuit court reopened at 10 o'clock this morning. The evidence in the case of Armstrong vs. Wright was concluded last night and today the jury returned their verdict in fifteen minutes this morning and after an hour and a half deliberation they brought in a verdict of $350 and costs for the plaintiff.

MAYPOLE SOAP Dyes Perfectly

Cotton, wool, silk or mixtures can all be quickly and easily dyed to just the right shade with Maypole Soap.

FLEMMING AND MORBISSY BACK FROM WESTERN TRIP

Hartland, N. B., Sept. 24.—Hon. J. K. Flemming returned today from his trip to the Pacific Coast.

Hon. Mr. Morrissey expresses himself as well pleased with the West, but at the same time says that, after seeing the west, he is more confident than ever that the future has great development in store for New Brunswick.

TWO WALLACE MEN WAIT FOR PROSECUTION ON RAYAL DEFENSE

Thomas Flynn in Critical State

Henry Gracie, Companion, Severely Wounded, But Will Recover

Victims Started in Row Boat Saturday Night to a Creek Up Wallace Bay When Fusillade from Behind flay Stack Laid Them Low—Police After Assaultants.

Amherst, Sept. 24.—The quiet town of Wallace was thrown into a high state of excitement on Sunday morning last when the news spread that two of its most prominent and well known citizens had almost come to an untimely end by being rapidly leveled with buckshot on the previous evening.

The story of the shooting, as related, is as follows: Thomas Flynn, the superintendent of the Wallace fishing quarry, accompanied by Henry Gracie, the engineer in the employ of the company, went up to the head of Wallace Bay in a boat on Saturday evening last. They coasted into a small creek near the head of the bay and while there they were suddenly surprised by being fired upon by parties hidden behind a rocky stack.

Mr. Gracie was wearing a sheepskin coat, and the coat seems to have been of sufficient thickness to have resisted the shot but he has several severe wounds in his legs.

The shooting party took place about three miles from the town and Gracie, although severely wounded, rowed the boat back to Wallace, summoned assistance and both he and Flynn were conveyed to their homes and medical aid summoned.

Mr. Flynn's condition is reported today as very serious, and there are serious doubts entertained with regard to his recovery. Gracie, however, is doing as well as can be expected.

The authorities in Amherst were notified of the shooting today, and Mr. Hanway, the crown prosecutor, sent Provincial Constable J. A. Simpson and Constable Andrew McDonald to investigate the matter.

SHAUGHNESSY HOPEFUL ABOUT WESTERN CROP

Mr. Thomas, Beck from Trip, Says Delays May Occur, But Railways Will Do Their Best to Move Harvest.

Montreal, Sept. 24.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy returned from his annual inspection trip to the west today, and he is very much pleased with the crop.

"I do not anticipate the difficulties some of our friends are predicting regarding the movement of the western crop. Of course there will be a tremendous rush—I trust we will always have that—but with my eyes on the matter, I believe that a reasonable degree of patience everything will work out all right in the end."

"There will be difficulties, of course, as there are always difficulties in connection with the handling of so much grain during the short season before the close of the navigation, but I do not anticipate there will be anything of a serious nature."

MISSING CAMPBELLTON MAN FOUND DROWNED

Body of James Cantwell Recovered from the Harbor Waters—An Inquest Being Held.

Campbellton, Sept. 24.—James Cantwell, who had recently been employed in the electric light station here, and had lately been employed on concrete work on the Intercolonial Railway, disappeared mysteriously last Wednesday, and yesterday his body was found in the water where it was known as the lower wharf.

He had also recently been working in Fredericton on I. C. R. work, and returned to Campbellton and was paid off last Wednesday morning with the other I. C. R. employes. Then he mysteriously disappeared on Wednesday night at the lower wharf.

Canada Should Do Her Duty President of Canadian Manufacturers' Association Outlines Views in Address to Convention—Mr. Curry Sees No Great Need of Wider Markets.

DEATH REMOVES A GREAT CANADIAN

Sir Richard Cartwright, the Nestor of Parliament, Succumbs Following Operation—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Other Leaders Pay Marked Tribute to His Worth.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 24.—Sir Richard Cartwright is dead. He died in the General Hospital a little after eleven o'clock this morning. He took a bad turn during the night, and although he rallied during the early hours of the morning, he began to sink steadily and passed away suddenly.

A consultation of doctors at ten o'clock decided that the aged knight could not survive the day.

Lady Cartwright and members of the family were at the death bed. His funeral will be private.

Mr. Cartwright was a statesman rather than a politician. He was a member of the government for many years, and his name was a household word in Canada.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

His death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of high character and high ability, and his services to the country will be remembered for many years to come.

ULSTER UNIONISTS AGREE TO 'OR DIE'

Fight to Bitter End, Says Carson

Four Hundred Anti-Home Rule Stalwarts Meet in Secret Conclave

London, Sept. 24.—The fateful Monday has passed. The Ulster secret commission is still kept waiting without the expected draft of Ulster's provisional constitution to take effect on the morning of the king's signature to the home rule bill.

Ministerialists and Nationalists scoffingly describe yesterday's events as "another Ulster let-down," but those best able to penetrate the secrets of Sir Edward Carson and the Earl of Londonderry, say that Ulster's provisional government is fully drafted and provides a government yet to be presented to the House of Commons.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

"We want no separate parliament," he declared. "We will take nothing less than a part of the United Kingdom."

His declaration brought the whole audience to their feet, and in round after round of cheering they pledged their loyalty to the crown and the United Kingdom and outlined the machinery of government to be set on foot in the event of the Ulster let-down.

FRANCE TO BUILD ARMED AERIAL WAR FLEET

Paris, Sept. 24.—France has decided to build an squadron of swift armed dirigibles for its aerial war fleet in addition to the swarm of aeroplanes already possessed by the army.

Four great balloons of the non-rigid type have been ordered by the government. These are to have a speed of about 43-2 miles an hour and are to be armed with machine guns. Their gas capacity is to be about 600,000 cubic feet.

WORLD PEACE IN HANDS OF BUSINESS MEN

U. S. Immigration Commissioner Nagel Tells Chamber of Commerce That Trade Controversies Lead to Most Wars.

Boston, Sept. 24.—Brotherhood as an essential in perfecting international trade relations and world peace was dwelt upon today by Secretary of Commerce and Labor Charles Nagel, in an address of welcome to the visiting delegates to the fifth international congress of chambers of commerce.

"What we want to establish," said Mr. Nagel, "is such a relation, so intimate commercially, and subsequently socially, that no country, a part to your congress, will permit controversy, because it cannot afford to have the results of such congresses as these are far more important than agreements arrived at as a result of diplomatic negotiations. You represent legitimate self-interest. The questions raised through the world are largely industrial. Controversies that arise will originate from that interest and if you succeed in establishing rules of the game, the main cause of friction and controversy will have been removed."

Speeches were also extended to the congress by Governor Fox in behalf of the state; Mayor Fitzgerald, for the city; Harry A. Wheeler, of Chicago, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States, and Edward A. Foster, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

With a report on the reform of the currency, particularly in the establishment of a fixed day for Easter, read by President Cannon Legrand, the formal programme was taken up.

PARLIAMENT LIKELY TO OPEN NOVEMBER 14

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Notices are being sent out by the secretary of state to all the departments, asking them to expedite their reports so that there will be no delay in printing and they will be ready for the opening of the house. Even as it is, reports were never so far advanced as at the present time.

The auditor general's bulky report is nearly ready for publication. All of the departments are making preparations for the opening of the house, and estimates for the year are being prepared. The house, it is now generally expected, will open November 14.

SWIFT CALL TO WESTMORLAND MAN

Seckville, N. B., Sept. 23.—Tragically sudden was the death of Irregular Spence, of Murray Corner, one of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of the eastern part of the county.

Mr. Spence had been duck shooting on the marshes on Saturday, and when found he had bagged several birds, and from appearances had just opened the breast of one of the birds for another shot when he dropped dead.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.

He was fifty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, one son, Walter, at home in Fenholm, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Helen Spence, of Cape Spar, and Mrs. Miss Millidge, Fenholm, and Mrs. Leana Fenholm, of Cape Spar, are sisters. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. P. O. Hartman, and many friends attended.