Special Telegram to the Tribune. HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

FREDERICTON, April 1.

Mr. Wedderburn resumed his speech after recess yesterday. The Government should enforce the School Act, to which a large and respectable minority were opposed, in a kind and eonciliatory way. No man should be disfranchised while met at Mr. Fred Blakslee's house, Parathe bill is still pending in the Courts. If dise Row, last evening, it being the 25th the Act were sustained by the Privy anniversary of Spiritualism. Messrs. Council it would then be right to enforce Fales, Babbitt, Ansley, and about forty its penalties. Dr. Palmer would oppose others, were present. After supper there the bill. The taxes might be paid under was singing, dancing, speeches, and an protest, and, if the Act were disallowed, the money should be returned. The water and ring a bell while he was tied. Attorney General moved that the bill be tponed three months. Carried-22 to 12. Wedderburn and Covert voting with

No wonder there are people in New England who wish to prohibit the sale of cider. We should ourselves be strongly in favor of prohibiting the Connecticut variety of that beverage. A man was lately tried in New Britain for selling

A melancholy death occurred in Saint falsehoods; but, upright, honest man Paul about a week ago, the sequel of a that he is, he does not dare to contradict sad story. There was a priest named Schmiver, who greatly sympathised with a friend, also a priest, who had been deposed. He kept up a friendly correspondence with the disgraced man, and for this he was deposed by the Bishop. He immediately fell into a very critical condition of nervous excitement, which recurred upon every allusion to his disgrace; and this finally resulted in paraly. sis and death, just as arrangements for his reinstatement had been acceded .o by his Bishop.
