

Herald, and also to several Can. periodicals. Politically, he is a Lib., and ardently hopes for Can. Ind. with the consent of the Motherland. He m. July, 1892, Miss Mary Adelaide King. This lady has edited for some yrs. a Christmas publication called "Green Holly." —Brockville, Ont.

MARSH, Alfred Henry, Q.C., is of U. E. L. descent, and was b. near Brighton, Ont., May 30, 1851. Ed. at Brighton Grammar Sch., and at the Univ. of Toronto (B.A., 1874), he graduated in law at the same institution, and was called to the bar, 1877. In the same year he entered into partnership with the late Sir John A. Macdonald, and maintained that connection for many yrs. He was afterwards a partner of Wm. Lount, Q.C. Mr. M. has devoted himself almost entirely to the equity and real property branch of his profession. He was apptd. Equity lecturer in the Law Sch., Osgoode Hall, 1883; and was reapptd., on the reorganization of the sch., 1889. He was created a Q. C. by the Earl of Derby, 1889. He has written frequently on legal subjects for the Can. Law Times, the Am. Law Review and the Can. Law Journal, some of his papers on internl. law exciting favourable comment. In 1888 he published a "History of the Court of Chancery and of the rise and development of the doctrines of equity," the volume being mainly a reproduction of some of his Law Sch. lectures. Mr. M. has throughout held himself entirely aloof from politics. He m. Aug., 1880, Augusta, dau. of Hon. W. Proudfoot, Toronto.—103 Avenue Rd., Toronto; Toronto Club.

MARSHALL, David Henry, educationist, was b. in Edinburgh, Scot., of Eng. and Scottish parentage, 1848. Ed. at Edinburgh Univ. (M.A.), he was asst. to Prof. Tait, of that univ., 1870-73; and Prof. of Math., 1873-78, and Prof. of Physics, 1878-81, in the Imp. Coll. of Engineering, Tokio, Japan. Since 1882 he has been Prof. of Physics in Queen's Univ., Can. He is a Fellow of the Royal Soc., Edin., and has contributed papers on scientific subjects to the Trans. of that Soc. and of the Asiatic Soc. of Japan. He is likewise author of works on Math. and Physics. He has been 3 times round the globe, and is one of very few who have seen 2 transits of the planet Venus across the sun's disc. In 1892 he was apptd. a del. from Queen's Univ. to the Tercenary festival of the Univ. of Dublin. A Presb. in religion, he is, politically, a strong free-trader, an ind. voter, and supporter of the Brit. Empire and Imp. Fed. He m. 1880, Miss Annie Campbell, Rothesay, Scot.—"Elmhurst," Kingston, Ont.

MARSHALL, Robert, broker and insurance agent, is the s. of Alex. McNaughton Marshall, whose father emigrated from Dumfries, Scot., to N. S., 1773. B. in Pictou, N.S., Apl. 27, 1832, he was ed. at the Chatham (N.B.) Grammar Sch., and first entered mercantile life at Miramichi. In 1859 he removed to St. John, where he was apptd. Accountant of the Intercol. Ry., and organized a system of returns and accounts prepared from personal inspection of systems prevailing on Am. and Western Can. rys. Relinquishing this appt., after some yrs., he entered business on his own account, as an ins. agent, broker and notary public, in which he now continues. In addition to holding various other similar positions, he is a dir. of the St. John Prot. Orphan Asylum, and of the St. John Relief and Aid Soc., and a life mem. of the Y. M. C. A., of that city. He has been Presdt. of the St. Andrew's Soc., and has served as 1st lieut. in the 62nd Batt. St. John Light Infy. Mr. M. holds high rank as a Freemason. He is Depty. for N. B. of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry; Intendant-Genl. of the Red Cross of Rome and Constantine, Grand Imp. Conclave of Eng.; Knight Commander of the Temple, and Provl. Grand Prior for N. B. of the Sovereign Great Priory of