

white, finely blended together, and should look firm and soft.

"The ear should be rather small, well folded, and have an agreeable tinge of red.

"The nose should be placed so as to divide the face into equal parts; should be of a moderate size, straight, and well squared, though sometimes a little rising in the middle; which is just perceivable; may give a very graceful look to it.

"The mouth should be small, and the lips not of equal thickness; they should be well turned, small, rather than gross, soft even to the eye, and with a living red in them. A truly pretty mouth is like a rose-bud that is beginning to blow. The teeth should be middle-sized, white, well ranged, and even.

"The chin of a moderate size, white, soft, and agreeably rounded.

"The neck should be white, straight, and of a soft, easy, flexible make; rather long than short, less above, and increasing gently towards the shoulders; the whiteness and delicacy of its skin should be continued, or rather go on improving, to the bosom; the skin in general should be white, properly tinged with red; and a look of thriving health in it.
