ings would be less informal" Mr. Leadbeater said. The motion passed 25-0-3.

A motion that David Leadbeater send a letter to U.S. President Richard Nixon criticizing the bombing of Amchitka Island was defeated by council. The explosion has no relevance, after the fact, said council.

It has been an important con-cern, council also said, that the gap between universities, technical institutions and colleges is not decreasing. This was brought up in a motion to adopt changes to the Universities Act. Universities should not be separated from other post-secondary institutions, as now the case, councillors said.

In the same motion it was suggested that University Commission meetings be left open to the
