Editor: Eric Drummie Asst. Editor: Patrick McCarthy Deadline: Tuesday Noon Sports Desk: 453-4983

DAL TOPS BLOOMERS

- Lordon named All-Star / Palmer Rookie of the Year

by Mark Savoie

For the third year in a row the way back into the game with striking for 37 points. Her sister, UNB Red Bloomers met defeat at strong offensive efforts from Jill Trish MacCormack, contributed to the hands of the Dalhousie Tigers Jackson and Lynn Christiansen. the Dalhousie effort to the tune of in the semi-final round of the By the end of the half UNB trailed 18 points. The effectiveness of AUAA playoffs. This year's loss by only one (32-31). In the second Kathy on the outside and Trish on was by an embarrassing 82-60 half Lynn Christiansen scored the the inside was sufficient to turn score. Joining UNB on the first basket to give the Red the Bloomers defence to a sidelines after the semi-finals were Bloomers their first and only lead shambles in the second half. the Acadia Axettes, who were of the game. Dalhousie answered defeated handily by the UPEI Lady this basket by rattling off the next bulk of their points from the Panthers. In the finals UPEI eight points, and from there turned inside Kara Palmer and Lynn managed to capture the AUAA the game into a rout. title for the third consecutive year The main cause of Dalhousie's hoop by Jill Jackson, who by virtue of a 70-58 victory over success in this game was the managed a team high 20 points.

The Bloomers started the game MacCormack, who lived up to her slowly but were able to fight their billing as League MVP by

The Red Bloomers scored the Christiansen or on drives to the performance of Kathy The part of the Bloomer offence

Pauline Lordon and Jennifer Hale were unable to get open to take and Jennifer's effectiveness on offense was minimal.

Despite the early exit from the playoffs this season has to be considered a positive one for the Bloomers. The team of eleven players managed a 12-2 record with six freshmen, three of them starters. For managing this record Coach Claire Mitton was awarded AUAA Coach of the Year. Other awards went to Pauline Lordon which Dalhousie was able to stop and Kara Palmer who were maned was the outside shooting, as to the first and second all-star teams respectively. Jill Jackson was named to the tournament allclear shots. As a result Pauline star team for her effort against Dalhousie. Kara Palmer was in addition named Freshman of the

> I would like to take this opportunity to thank Claire Mitton, Keith Comitz, the managers and trainers, and especially the players for being as co-operative as they have been

1990

allot

n

The UNB Red Rebels in action from last weekends A.U.A.A's held Photo by Jayde Mockler entertaining. here at UNB.

This past weekend the UNB Rebels hosted the AUAA Championship at the Lady Beaverbrook gymnasium. Among the teams there were U de M, MUN, and Dalhousie.

UNB has played tough volleyball all season and were ready for the AUAA's. However, Dalhousie was also ready. Dal is currently ranked eighth in Canada overall. This means that UNB had tough competition if they were going to take Dal for the title.

Unfortunately, UNB was not up to Dal's challenge. The UNB Rebels lost the final match to Dal by 3 games to none. This was no surprise since Dal has been in first place all season with an undefeated the Rebels have been working on trading Leblanc and a fifth-round Milwaukee is first place in their playing consistent volleyball. draft choice in this years division and second in the I.H.L.. UNB played this season with upcoming draft to the Oilers for They had hoped to beat Dal in the Doug Smith.

some of their goals for the season. moving on to the Fredericton They played entertaining volleyball and worked on their offensive game. Coach Belanger worked to speed up the offense and work on one-on-one blocks. These goals seemed to be shaped up by the end of the season.

Unfortunately, they weren't enough to stop the Dalhousie Tigers from clenching the volleyball AUAA title. Next weekend, the 16th, 17th, and 18th, the Dal Tigers will go out to Calgary to press their luck against Canada's finest. Good luck is extended to the Dal Tigers. Also, congratulations to the UNB Rebels for a super season of volleyball that was very

FORMER RED DEVIL TRADED

- John Leblanc

Former UNB Red Devil John Express, the Vancouver Canuks All season, Coach Belanger and trade consisted of the Canuks the I.H.L. - Milwaukce .

UNB did manage to accomplish in 85/86 and 86/87 before to some of their players.

LeBlanc, U.N.B. MVP 85/86 & Farm club in the A.H.L. (a joint 86/87, A.U.A.A. First team All- venture with the Quebec Star and C.I.A.U. All-Canadian Nordiques). With the break up of first Star and M.V.P. 86/87 was the Express and Quebecs traded on Tuesday by the departure to Halifax last summer, Vancouver Canuks to the Vancouver chose not to stay in Edmonton Oilers. Tuesday was Fredericton and maintain a club, the last day of league trading. The but to join a Triple farm team in Undoubtedly John will be improvement in every game. left wing Greg Adams and center playing for the Cape Breton Oilers for the rest of the season. John Leblanc played for UNB Unless the Oilers sustain injuries

SPORTS SCIENCE

by Martin Kruus

with athletes in this, "the year of muscle mass percentage. The the coach".

Basically Dr. Smith cooperates With the focus on high level with the coach to provide a sound amateur sport these days, the role training program for the national of the sport scientist in Canada is team athletes. He and his lab sure to be discussed. Dr. David assistants perform various tests on Smith, a noted sport scientist the athletes in experimental working out of the University of conditions (like on a treadmill) or Calgary, visited UNB recently to just prior to, during, and after speak about his work with the actual competition or training. Canadian Olympic effort. He felt This may include measurement of it especially appropriate to inform oxygen intake, heart rate, power the public about some of the in the joints or more specialized behind the scenes work being done tests such as blood samples or

Continued on page 30