Cawthra takes tourney

Cawthra Cedarview Mobile Homes peewee A lacrosse team was a rude surprise to Huntsville last weekend.

Expected to win its own Invitational tournament, Huntsville was upset by Cawthra 9-2 in the semi-final. Cawthra rallied behind a strong defence to defeat Elora in the final 4-2.

In the first round of the 12-team tournament, Cawthra defeated Orillia 12-2.

Paul Otis was the goaltender of note, allowing six goals over three games.

The team is coached by Dave Johnson and Boris Swedak.

Ramblers down Oakville

Mississauga Ramblers Cricket Club batted first and made 144 runs for 8 wickets to down Oakville's score of 113 for 10 wickets in the Hamilton and District Cricket League last week.

Top scorers for Mississauga were Mohan Boodhai with 44 runs and Jay Donaldson with 52 runs, to bring the team's record to 30 points.

Next game is this Sunday at home at Jack Darling Park.

ed out, he wasn't really needed.

Streetsville had little trouble disposing of Richmond Hill Dynes 7-2 at Streetsville Memorial Park. On Sunday they dropped a 7-4 decision to Fred's Sports at Kew Beach Park to run their record to 6-4.

Their secret weapon was a product of their statistics and publicity department, even though he was dressed like a fastball player for the occasion.

Ron Foxcroft, who also wore number 14 for the Streetsville club, wasted little time making his presence known.

As a pinch runner for Rod Stuart, Foxcroft scored from first on Vic Burak's long single.

"That's the last time I do that," he said after crossing home plate.

But as soon as Stuart got back on base, in went Foxcroft.

It appears that Foxcroft will be doing a lot more running during the season than he planned on.

Stuart is still affected by a pulled muscle and all-star infielder Dave McDowell injured his knee in the first inning of Sunday's loss and will be out for the season.

Four Streetsville errors, including three in the fifth inning allowed Fred's Sports to score four unearned runs.

Bill Salmon took the loss. He gave up four more runs on a bases-loaded single.

On Wednesday, Stuart was on the mound for the win, striking out nine. He helped his own cause with a pair of singles.

Dave McDowell had a triple and a single for Streetsville, while Mike Leslie and Burak had two singles each.

Charlie Miller, Tom Risko and Wayne Ellis each chipped in with singles.

Citadel takes out slo-pitch policy

Citadel Insurance picked up two big wins in Mississauga Slo-pitch softball league play last week.

Citadel, the Fleetwood Division leaders, edged the top club in the Huron Division, Mavis Tavern, 4-3 and handed Jolly Miller, last year's champion, their first loss of the season — a 7-4 decision.

John Maddock picked up both wins for Citadel.

Jim Baxter and Norm Pert had three hits each against Mavis while George Belanger and Guy Lamoreaux had three and two hits respectively in the Jolly Miller game.

The Sox, who have beaten Streetsville three times this year, are in town at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Streetsville are slated to play in the Waterdown tournament this weekend.

Soccer

Neerlandia wants fans

Neerlandia hopes to win some fans the only way they know how — by winning soccer games.

The local side chalked up its fourth straight Toronto District Soccer league win of the season last Friday, with a 6-1 decision over Bitola.

Ray Ellis banged in four goals for Neerlandia, running his season total to eight. Tony Leonardi and Roy Ellis finished off the scoring.

On Tuesday at St. Clair field in Toronto, Cope-Otton's goal late in the second half, gave Neerlandia a 3-2 win over Toronto Nationals.

Peter Lekkas and Ray Ellis scored Neerlandia's other goals.

Neerlandia's next home game is 7 p.m. tonight (Wednesday) at Hansa Field.

Two for Hughes

Steve Hughes scored two first half goals as Clarkson Ruscher Realty Under 21s defeated North York Cosmos 3-2 in the Ontario Developmental League last week.

Peter Poulsen scored the winning goal.
