Ottawa, Aug. 10, 1925.

Sir Henry Drayton, M.P.,
Albany Club,
Toronto.

Dear Sir Henry:

I attach herewith copy of letter received this morning from the Chief, and also copy of letter from Frank Stanfield. I *phoned your house this morning but could get no information as to when you are expected back in Ottawa. I am therefore sending these copies to you so as to avoid any danger of your getting away East before seeing them.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary.
