

Ottawa, August 25, 1916.

Sir,-

Answering your telegram of the 24th instant, it is not considered necessary to paint the saddle board and ridge roll of Edmonton Indian houses.

Should the roof be stained at a later date, the ridge will then be painted.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

J. B. McIntyre, Esq.,

Building Inspector,

10805 - 100th Avenue,

Edmonton, Alberta.
