As to the evidence of the accused, the Prosecution, and this maybe unusual, sir, agrees with the defence that due to the head injury he has sustained, the consumption of liquid affects him in a possibly different manner than individuals who have not received such an injury, and the Prosecution readily admits that the accused may not have known exactly what his actions were. This condition being caused through the combined effects of head injury and intoxicating liquid.
While the Prosecution is not unwilling to accept the plea that the accused ~~did~~ did not know what action he took, the Prosecution ~~and~~ nevertheless says that the accused did commit the offence with which he is charged, and that it has proved its case to that effect.

Finally, gentlemen, with regard to the keys evidence has been given that the keys for a vehicle known as the jeep, may fit a lot of other jeeps. I have clearly said that in the case of 15 hundred weight vehicles or and up only some keys fit other vehicles, and the Prosecution feels that the Court would have to stretch its imagination very far to believe that a set of keys found in the possession of the accused should not be the keys belonging to the truck ~~at~~ which was standing outside the 4th Mess. It is more important that the keys should fit the vehicle than that they should be fitted merely by coincidence
