

Anglers' Calendar for September

(Salmon and Grilse commence to run up the rivers more freely than in August. Sea-trout angling still good, especially in Scotland)

- 1 WILLIAM YARRELL, naturalist, died 1856.
- 3 OLIVER CROMWELL, died 1658.
- 5 ROBERT FERGUSON, poet and angler, born at Edinburgh, 1750.
Dr. PATRICK NEILL, writer on Natural History, and skilled angler, died at Edinburgh, 1851.
Dr. WILLIAM MACGILLIVRAY, distinguished naturalist, and an angler, died at Aberdeen, 1852.
- 7 GEORGES LOUIS LECLERC (Count de Buffon), naturalist (French), born 1707.
Dr. JOHN ARMSTRONG, poet and angler, died 1779. [See "Musa Piscatrix."] Last day of angling for trout or char on Tyne.
- 9 JAMES THOMSON, poet, angler, born in Roxburghshire, 1700. [See "Musa Piscatrix."] Last day of salmon angling in Hope and Polla, Scotland.
- 11 LORD METCALFE, trout angler and best cotemporary observer of fish in Test and Itchen, Hampshire, died 1846.
- 13 MOSES BROWNE, poet, angler (published "Complete Angler," in 1750, died 1787.
- 14 Last day of salmon angling in Drogheda district (Boyne, etc.), Ireland.
- 15 Last day of salmon angling in river Moy and Ballina district, Ireland.
Char and trout fishing closes in Derwent, but on Buttermere and Crummock char may be angled for till October 31.
Close time for salmon commences on Thurso, Scotland.
- 16 JAMES F. STEPHENS, entomologist, a careful observer of Ephemerids, and the insects found by streams; born at Shoreham, 1792.
Sir FRANCIS SEYMOUR HADEN, surgeon, etcher, angler, born 1818.
- 17 WALTER SAVAGE LANDOR, scholar, writer, and angler, died 1864.
- 18 WILLIAM COLLINS, artist and angler, born 1787.
Dr. SAMUEL JOHNSON, born 1709.
JOHN GAY, baptized 1685. [See "Musa Piscatrix."] Last day of season (trout), on Tas and Ely.
- 19 Rev. WILLIAM KIRBY, entomologist and angler, born 1759.
Bishop SANDERSON, born 1587. WALTON wrote his life.
- 21 Sir WALTER SCOTT, Bart., writer and salmon fisher, died 1832. [See "Musa Piscatrix."] J. F. HERRING, painter and angler, died 1865.
- 22 Rev. W. L. BOWLES, writer, born 1762.
- 24 CHARLES BRADLAUGH, Radical leader, M.P., and angler, born 1833.
- 26 Last day of trout fishing on Claddy.
- 28 Angling on Ogmoo ends; also salmon angling in Lismore district, Ireland.
- 29 HORATIO NELSON, Admiral, a keen angler, born 1758.
- 30 Last day of salmon angling in Waterford, Bangor, and Sligo districts, Ireland; and of trout angling on Teign, Ayron, Teify, Avon, Stour, Camel, Fowey, and in West Cumberland.