HEADACHES AND RUSHING OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

APPETITE WAS GONE.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS CURED

MRS. WALTER MANTHORNE, BROOKLYN, N.S.

She says: "I suffered for three years with terrible headaches and rushing of blood to my head. I lost my appetite and became very thin and weak. I tried many different remedies and consulted doctors, but all in vain until I started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I had not taken more than two bottles when I began to feel better, my appetite improved wonderfully and I increased rapidly in weight. I took altogether four bottles and am now as well as can be, for which I owe my thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I can recommend it to all those suffering as I did."

FAMOUS HYMNS.

Interesting Facts About the Authorship of Church Music—Many Hymns Greatly Changed From the Original.

Everyone, perhaps, has his or her favorite hymn. Yet few know its author and under what circumstances it was composed. Take the Christmas hymns, for example, "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing," when originally published by Charles Wesley in 1739, began, "Hark, How All the Welkin Rings." "Christians, Awake!" was composed by John Byrom, in 1745, as a carol for his little daughter Dolly, "for her and for no one else." In the original the manuscript is headed "Christmas Day for Dolly." It was first published in 1746, in Harpur's Manchester Mercury, and was set to music by the organist of the Manchester parish church, Mr. John Wainwright. "While Shepherds Watched," another carol, was written by Nahum Tate 200 years ago.

Abide With Me, was written by the Rev. H. E. Lyte in 1847, at Brixham. He had become so ill that he was ordered to bed. On the Sunday evening prior to his leaving he walked by the seashore alone for half an hour after he had spoken to his congregation for the last time. When the sun had set he went back to his study, and an hour later the hymn was finished. Dr. Monk composed its beautiful setting in an inspired ten minutes. Can you tell us the story of "Saviour, on Ellerton's points so common to women, young and old. Sold by all dealers or sent post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Rock of Ages, is well known.

"Rock of Ages"—probably the most popular hymn in the English language—was written by Toplady when caught in a thunderstorm near Bladon in the Mendips. As the London went down in the Bay of Biscay in 1866 the doomed passengers sang this hymn. It was once translated into Hindustani by an enthusiastic native convert and his rendering, literally translated, read thus:

Very old stone, split for my benefit, Let me absent myself under one of your fragments.

Many stories are told of the hymns of Isaac Watts. It is said that he wrote "Not All the Blood of Beasts," after a visit to Smithfield Market, while the charming hymn "There is a Land of Pure Delight," was suggested by the view of Southampton water as seen from the Isle of Wight. He is believed to have written 500 hymns; many are mediocrity, few will last as long as the English language.

One of Wesley's First

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul" was suggested to Charles Wesley by a seafarer flying to him for protection during a storm. It was one of the earliest that he wrote. A good story is told of Keble and Dr. Neale, both writers of hymns:

Dr. Neale was invited by Mr. Keble and the Bishop of Salisbury to assist them with their new hymnal, and for this purpose he paid a visit to Hinsley parsonage. On one occasion Mr. Keble having to go to another room to find some papers was detained a short time. On his return Dr. Neale said, "Why, Keble, I thought you told me that the 'Christian Year' was entirely original?" "Yes," he answered, "it certainly is." "Then how comes this?" and Dr. Neale placed before him the text of one of Keble's hymns. Keble confessed himself utterly confounded. He protested that he had never seen the original. After a few minutes of quiet enjoyment Neale relieved him by owning that he had just turned it into Latin during his absence.

He was for Brixham.

The now popular wedding hymn "O Perfect Love" was written in 1880 by Mrs. Dorothy Gurney, for her sister's marriage, to be sung to the tune "O Strength and Stay."

Sir Joseph Barnby set it to music for the wedding of Princess Louise of Wales. Canon Ellerton's "O Father, All-Creating," was composed at the request of the late Duke of Westminster for the marriage of his daughter to the Marquis of Ormonde in 1876. "From Greenland's Icy Mountains" was written by Heber in twenty minutes in 1819, and the only correction he made was to substitute "heaven" in the second verse for "savage."

A most interesting chapter is that on children's hymns. Charles Wesley wrote the best known of all, "Gentle Jesus, Meek and Mild," in 1740. It has been said that he wrote it for his own children, but this is a mistake, for he did not marry until some years afterword.

"There is a Happy Land" was written by Mr. Andrew Young in 1888, at Rothsay, to go with a tune which he had heard a little girl playing.

Juvenile Hymns.

"There's a Friend for Little Children" was written by Mr. Midlane near Newport, Isle of Wight, near the house where Thomas Binney composed his verses beginning "Eternal Light! Eternal Light!" The charming child's hymn, "Now the Day is Over," was written in 1865 by the Rev. S. Baring-Gould, author of "Onward, Christian Soldiers." The magnificent "Eternal Father, Strong to Save," was composed by Mr. William Whiting.

One of the most curious stories in this admirable volume relates to the hymn beginning "O Happy Day That Fixed My Choice." This was once sung at the confirmation of one of the royal children by the late Queen's desire. The next day a leading London paper announced that the hymn had been specially written for the occasion by Tennyson, with a scathing criticism that if the poet laureate could do no better it was time objection was raised to his receiving national pay. It was really written by Dr. Doddridge, who died in 1761—London, England.

THE WAY TO BE WELL

The Blood Must be Kept Rich and Pure and the Nerves Strong.

Good health is the most precious treasure any man or woman can have. But good health can only be had by keeping the blood rich and pure, and the nerves strong. If the blood is allowed to become weak and watery, the whole system is weakened, and falls an easy prey to disease. There is no medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in keeping the blood rich and pure, and the nerves vigorous and strong. Every dose helps to create new blood, and by a fair use of the pills, pale, sickly people are made bright, active and strong. Here is proof, Mr. Robert Lee, New Westminster, B. C., says:—"Before I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, my blood was in a very impure state, and as a result pimples that were very itchy, broke out all over my body. My appetite was feeble, and I was easily tired. My wife urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got half a dozen boxes. By the time I had used them I was completely restored to health, my skin was smooth and clear, and my appetite good. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not purge—they simply make pure, rich blood. That is why they cure such troubles as indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism, anaemia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, scrofula, erysipelas, and the skin eruptions so common to women, young and old.
