Wernicke Elastic Book Cases.

ONE BOOK was a bigger library than most people had before the invention of printing. They used to chain a book in a public place, and the populace consulted it like we do the directory in a corner drug store.

But in these days of many books at low prices, every intelligent person has a few. Some may think they have too few to justify a bookcase.

That is because most bookcases are intended only for quite a large number of books.

No matter if you have but few books you can start your Wernicke now. It will protect what books you have, keep them clean, easily accessible, and is always attractive.

No matter how many books you add to your library, the Wernicke will always accommodate them.

And aside from its adjustable features, it is the best you can buy.

If you don't want it after you have seen it, say so and get your money back.

Chinese Christian Endeavourers are said to number over 10,000.

The congregation of Brechin East Free Church has resolved to present a call to the Rev. Edmund Thomson, Abington Free Church, Lanarkshire.

The Rev. THOMAS CRICHTON, assistant, Dumfries, has been unanimously elected minister of Logie and Gaudry Free Church, in the Presbytery of Cupar.

There appears to be a general impression that Dr. John Watson will be selected for the Moderatorship of the next Synod and that he will accept the appointment.

By appointment of Dingwall Presbytery a day of thanksgiving for the harvest has been held. There was an almost complete cessation of business in the town of Inverness.

The Rev. Mr. M'Conn, late of the Secession Church, Kirriemuir "Thrum", has been appointed locum tenens in the parish of Blair Athol during the absence of the Rev. Mr. Fraser in Australia.

The customs of Turkey do not permit of mixed societies of Christian Endeavor, but in the Central Turkey college there are two flourishing societies, one of over a hundred young men, and the other of about fifty young women.

The committee of Ferryhill Free Church, Aberdeen, are to recommend that a call be given to Rev. R. B. Taylor, from the Presbytery of Irvine, as successor to Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick, now a professor in Manitoba College, Winnipeg.

Dr. John Watson preached in St. Columba's Church, Liverpool, at the ordination of Rev. A. J. Gossp to the pastorate. The new minister was introduced to the congregation on Sunday morning by Dr. Alexander Whyte, of Edinburgh.

At a free fight which took place last Friday among a number of students in Edinburgh in connection with the contest for the Lord Rectorship, a West Indian student sustained a fracture of the leg, and had to be removed to the Royal Infirmary.

The remains of Mr. Grant Allen were cremated at Woking. Mr. Frederic Harrison delivered a eulogy. No disease, no care or anxiety, he said, could stifle the intense earnestness of the deceased to follow out his own ideas and push on the work in hand.

Dr. Robert Blair urges that a great amount of missionary work might be undertaken among the fashionable residents in Edinburgh. There were many who thought it more manly to take to their bicycles on Sunday, or to the game of golf, than to go up to the house of God.

Last week a public meeting, under the auspices of the Free and United Presbyterian Churches in the town, was held in the Chambers Institute Hall, Peebles. Dr. John Connell presided, and on the platform were the Rev. Principal Wainy, Rev. Professor Orr, and Professor Simpson.

The London School Board contemplates providing dinners for underfed scholars. Out of an average daily attendance of 419,945 children, 55,060 are said to be underfed. If provided, the dinners would be open to all the scholars and would be paid for by tickets sold to parents able to pay, and given to those unable to do so.

By a narrow majority the U. P. Presbytery of Hamilton agreed to recommend "The Presbyterian Church of Scotland" as the name for the United Church in preference to "The United Free Church." It may be noted that the question of name has already been discussed by a number of U. P. Presbyteries. The "Frees" have not yet seriously faced the matter at all.

An interesting meeting took place in the Royal Institute, Glasgow, when Rev. John Henderson, recently ordained by the three presbyteries as pastor to the deaf and dumb, was presented with a purse containing £100, a writing table, and other gifts. Mr. Henderson, in acknowledging the gifts, spoke by word of mouth and the sign language simultaneously.
