Average of 55 lbs Honey Per Colony.

The Crop Report Committee of the Ontario Bee-keepers' Association met on Wednesday, August 4. Three hundred members reported from all parts of Ontario, showing an average of 55 pounds per colony. There is about an average crop, and the quality is excellent. The buying power of the public is below the average, however, and it is likely that prices will range slightly lower than those recommended by the committee last year. In fact, some honey has already changed hands at prices recommended below. Selling should be brisk at these prices as the market is clear of old honey and the high prices of sugar is causing householders to turn to honey as a substitute for canned fruit; considering that it requires no preserving, but can be stored in a dry place regardless of temperature without even removing it from the tin. One case was reported where berries were allowed to waste, and sixty pounds of honey purchased to save the expense of picking and canning the berries. The prices recommended by the Committee are as follows:

No. 1, light, extracted, wholesale, 19c.
to 11 1/2c. per lb.

No. 1, light, extracted, retail, 12 1/2c.

No. 1, comb, wholesale, $2 to $2.75
per dozen.

No. 2, comb, wholesale, $1.50 to $2
per dozen.

These prices are f. o. b. in 60-lb., 10-lb. and 5-lb. tins; the former being net weight with the tin thrown in, the two latter being gross weight. The difference in time and trouble of filling the small tins about equalizes the price. In selling to the wholesale merchant, the lowest wholesale price should be asked, while the retail grocer should pay the highest wholesale price. The retail price to the customer might vary according to the quantity he takes in any one purchase, and whether he supplies his own package.

A BIG HOLSTEIN SALE.

We draw attention to the advertisement in this issue of the big dispersion sale of Sunnybrook Holsteins to be held Tuesday, August 31, at the farm of James and Cecil Nevill, Stratfordville, Ont. This sale comprises 33 head, 29 females and 4 bulls. Some good horses and choice hay will also be sold. These cattle are tested R. O. M. performers, and should draw a large crowd of bidders. See the advertisement for full particulars.

There is one huge industry in the production of munitions of war for both Canada and the Empire in which not even the suggestion of graft can be associated. That industry is in connection with the production of wheat. When the war broke out, above all else, the nations engaged asked about their food supply. Britain naturally turned to Canada, and the wheat producers in the farmers of Western Canada have not failed. The wheat will be sold to Britain in the open market at Britain's prices. But the sincerest expression of patriotism and loyalty is the gift of an acre of wheat from each farm that the organized farmers of Western Canada are preparing to give to Britain when the crop is harvested. Behind the plow and driving the binder the men on the farms of Western Canada are doing as great a service for the Empire at this time as the men in Britain's factories turning out war supplies. This donation, coming on the heels of a meagre crop, speaks for itself. Well does it come in contrast to the looting in other departments, and shows that Canada is sound at heart in her basic industry.—Farmer's Advocate and Home Journal, Winnipeg, Manitoba.
