Thou Wilt Never Grow Old. Thou wilt never grow old, Nor weary, nor sad, in the home of thy birth My beautiful lily, thy leaves will unfold In a clime that is purer and brighter that earth. Oh holy and fair, I rejoice thou art there

In that kingdom of light with its cities of gold Where the air thrills with angel hosannas, and where Thou wilt never grow old, sweet-Never grow old.

I am a pilgrim, with sorrow and sin Haunting my footsteps whereever I go ; Life is a warfare my title to win ; Well will it be if it end not in woe ! Pray for me, sweet ; I am laden with care ; Dark are my garments with mildew and mol Thou, my bright ange!, art sinless and fair, And wilt never grow old, sweet-Never grow old !

Now, canst thou hear from thy home in the skie All the fond words I am whisp'ring to thee ? Dost thou look down on me with the soft eyes That greeted me oft ere thy spirit was free So I believe, though the shadow of time Hide the bright spirit I yet shall behold Thou wilt still love me, and, pleasure sublime, Thou wilt never grow old, sweet !--Never grow old !

Thus wilt thou be when the pilgrim, grown gray Weeps when the vines from the hearth are riven ; Faith shall behold thee as pure as the day Thou wert torn from the earth and tran planted in heaven. O holy and fair, I rejoice thou art there, In that kingdom of light, with its cities gold, Where the air thrills with angel hosannae, and where Thou wilt never grow old, sweet-Never grow old !
