"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. A memorial to the late Dr. Harvey Goodwin, Bishop of Carlisle, who was Dean of Ely from 1858 to 1869, was unveiled in the south aisle of the choir of Ely Cathedral recently. The memorial, which is erected by the family, consists of a copper tablet with medallion in bronze, executed by Mr. Conrad Dressler. The inscription has been written by Dr. Butler, Master of Trinity College, Cambridge. The memorial was unveiled by the Rev. W. A. Spooner, Warden of New College, Oxford, (son-in-law of the late Bishop).

It was a happy idea that occurred to the Bishop of Manchester to invite to Bishopscourt voluntary church workers in the diocese who had more than fifty years' service to their credit. At the unique gathering, sixty veterans accepted Dr. Knox's invitation. Their ages totalled 4,038 years; one had worked in one Sunday School for 76 years, while another could boast of 70 years. The oldest present was aged 86 and the youngest 57.

Learn to say "No" with decision, "Yes" with caution—"No" with decision whenever it meets a temptation, "Yes" with caution whenever it implies a promise. A promise once given is a bond inviolable. A man is already of consequence in the world when it is known that we can implicitly depend upon him.

Self-confidence.—There are certain obstacles in every path that can be overcome only by the presence of self-confidence. There are outward hindrances to encounter, opposition to meet, difficulties to surmount, prejudices to sweep away, the very presence of which will terrify and appall the wavering and despondent, while they melt away before the firm dignity of self-respect and self-reliance. There are also innumerable obstacles from within, inclinations to curb, passions to restrain, desires to guide, temptations to resist; these also need only the power to deal with them, but a confidence in that power that can alone make it effective.
