"THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

DR. HALSEY'S FOREST WINE.

DR. L. A. HALSEY, a celebrated Physician, in a long experience of 14 years, has found that in all the complaints for which Forest Wine is recommended, all doubts of the great efficacy of the Forest Wine in GENERAL DEBILITY, NEURALGIA, AFFECTIONS OF THE SPINE AND KIDNEYS;—

This is to certify, that I have used Dr. Halsey's Forest Wine in my practice with the most perfect success. My wife was badly afflicted with Neuralgia, affections of the spine and Kidneys, and general Debility, for which she used my office, and regulated by the use of the Forest Wine.

Having had a good knowledge of this excellent medicine, I confidently recommend it for the good of others who may be suffering with similar complaints. It is the best medicine with which I am acquainted, and those who are afflicted with the above, or any similar diseases, may safely rely on its virtues.

Cobourg, March 8, 1850. E. G. MURRAY.

Dr. G. W. HALSEY:—DEAR SIR,—My wife had salmon was reduced to a low state of Debility. My family Physician advised her to take your Forest Wine. Accordingly I went to Mr. Terry's, our Agent for the town, and procured a bottle of it, which restored her in a very short time to perfect health.

HENRY DONALDSON.

Cobourg, April 12, 1850.

The testimony of upwards of three hundred individuals, some of whom were afflicted with dreadful diseases, and considered incurable, may be seen at Dr. Halsey's principal Office. The following are some of those residing in this city:—

Mr. Asa B. Ball, 187, Fourth Street, Office or Wall Street, has been severely afflicted with a disease of the kidneys and bladder. The first medicine did not seem to do him any good, but he continued still encouraged to persevere. He tried the Forest Wine, and it met his case, and he was completely cured by the use of four bottles and a box of the Forest Pills.

Mr. Josiah Bell, Merchant, in Pearl Street, was for four years a martyr to severe Rheumatic Pains, and could find no relief until he tried the Forest Wine and Pills, and recommends by talking to Rheumatic sufferers to try the Forest Wine.

The remarkable efficacy of the Forest Wine is very striking in the case of the Hon. R. L. Brown, of Virginia, who was cured in a few hours' time of a severe attack of Bilious Diarrhœa and great prostration of bodily energy. On the arrival of this gentleman in New York in March, he was so weak and nervous, from the effects of his illness, that he could not write, and required assistance to walk into his lodgings. The Wine was procured for him, and he took a wineglassful every two hours, and before the expiration of the third bottle he was in a different person, and was able to commence business again, entirely cured, by taking the Forest Wine for the benefit of those similarly afflicted. Yours, &c.,

HEMPSTEAD, Dec. 1, 1847.

DR. HALSEY:—A bottle of your Forest Wine and a box of Pills, which I procured of Mr. Jones Cary, (your Agent for this place,) has done wonders for me. I had been in a state of misery, for more than a year, I blieved with a dreadful cough, pain in the breast, general debility, and had been unable to leave my room for more than two months; my appetite left me and I had the Consumption, and despaired of my recovery. I could not obtain any permanent relief from any medicine I had taken, or any assistance from any physician I had employed, until your Wine and Pills were procured for me. The first dose of the Pills brought up from my stomach much phlegm and greenish matter, and my stools were perfectly black. From this time on, my appetite began to return, immediately, my cough left me, and in less than two weeks I was almost well. I now feel better health than I ever did before, having passed twenty five years of my life without. Your Forest Wine and Pills are highly valued in this vicinity, and I owe my recovery entirely to their virtues. Yours, respectfully,

MARTIN CALDWELL.

The following Certificate, voluntarily given by Mr. E. G. Murray, a respectable and well-known citizen of Cobourg, New York, is no evidence which we must remark will doubt of the great efficacy of the Forest Wine in GENERAL DEBILITY, NEURALGIA, AFFECTIONS OF THE SPINE AND KIDNEYS:—

"This is to certify, that I have used Dr. Halsey's Forest Wine in my family with the most perfect success. My wife was badly afflicted with Neuralgia, affections of the spine and Kidneys, and general Debility, for which she used my office, and regulated by the use of the Forest Wine.

HALSEY'S CURE-ALL.

THIS Article is a delightful Aromatic Liniment, of extraordinary power for the cure of Outer-ly Complaints and painful Disorders. Such is its efficacy to the Rheumatic, Asthmatic, and pain subduing Gout, Fever Wounds, Accidents, and Old Sores, that it defies, and throws at defiance, any human power to cope with it. It is used internally as well as externally, and is an unfailing Family Remedy.

The great concurring authority, extant from Horse, Sheep, Swine, and other animals, are as much relished by it, and entirely cured in a few days' time.

Two or three drops only required. Therefore is cured by it in a few minutes.

Swelled Face and Sore Throat, produced by bad water, are quickly cured by the use of this Liniment.

It is highly efficacious in Sick Headache and Tinderness, speedily banishing the pain.

The Liniment are some of the Complaints in which the Cure-All is most conspicuously, for its great efficacy as an outward application.

Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout, Lame Back, Pains in the Side, Bones and Back, Numbness, Colic, Bruises, Sprains, Tumors, Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Glandular Tumors, Enlargement of the Joints, Rickets, Spinal and Nervous Affections, Chilblains, Tic-Doloreux, Headaches, Pains and Swellings of the Face, Mumps, Sore Throat, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Old and Fresh Wounds, and Injuries of every description.

Testimonial Notice.

"When first applied to by Mr. Lyman, for my opinion of the Plantagenet Water, I was not aware that I could say more than I had already said in favor of the Waters of Lake Ontario, and the Spring Waters of the neighborhood of Toronto; but on the analysis of the Plantagenet Water, I have found a combination of ingredients, which, for the cure of many diseases, is superior to any Spring Water, or to all other Waters with which I am acquainted."

Extract from a letter to Wm. Lyman, M. D., V. S. Col., &c., &c., dated Toronto, 1851.

"Whatever superiority in the use of the Plantagenet Water in my practice may fairly ascribe to it, I attribute to its containing a greater proportion of Iodine than is contained in any other Spring Water with which I am acquainted. I find that they neither disagree with the stomach, and always act as a gentle aperient and diuretic, and that they have sometimes, when taken for a length of time, a slightly tonic power."

Certificate published in the Toronto Patriot, 1851.

"Having had occasion to analyze the Plantagenet Water, I have found it to contain a greater proportion of Iodine than is contained in any other Spring Water with which I am acquainted."

"Many months experience in the use of the Plantagenet Water in my practice has fully convinced me of its superiority over all Spring Waters with which I am acquainted, and I have no reason to regret that I was induced to make trial of it. I find that they neither disagree with the stomach, and always act as a gentle aperient and diuretic, and that they have sometimes, when taken for a length of time, a slightly tonic power."

"Certainly, too much has not been said in their favor, for they are, probably, the most valuable Waters on this Continent."

"THE FARMERS' GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE."

By Henry Stephens, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, Author of "The Book of the Farm," &c. &c., Fellow of the Highland Society, &c. &c.

This Mighty volumeis Work will comprise over twenty large octavo pages, containing over 1,000 pages of letter-press, and more than 600 Engravings on Wood. In the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every conceivable subject connected with agriculture, and rendering it the most complete work of the kind ever published. In point, the literary and mechanical execution of the work, it will be unsurpassed by any publication issued in this country. The Work is issued in Monthly Numbers, each containing one of the Great Divisions of the Work, and will be completed in Twenty-four Numbers, forming Two Volumes, uniform with the Library Edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and will contain at least 1,200 pages.

The British Periodicals are as follows, viz:—

The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative.)
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig.)
The North British Review, (Free Church.)
The Westminster Review, (Liberal.)

AND

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.)

Although these Works are distinguished by the politics of which each is the type, they treat general matter of literature, science and art, in a manner more exhaustive than is usual in periodical publications, and are devoted to no party politics further than every gentleman who gives them their due attention may readily form a correct judgment for himself. In this communication he has been generally successful in selecting the ablest articles from the Periodicals of all parties, and by this means has presented a work of standard character, and one which will not only interest the scholar, but will be found highly remunerative to the tradesman and mechanic.

Second him cast the steeple at him. Tell us all, sir, and by the rope I'll hang you.

Where are they who went to battle, Hastings, Mowray, sworn to you?
Where are they, my brethren, children? Have they Left you to fight alone, unfriended? Is it wise,
Or is it
Like a corpse the feebly warrior looks from out his Helm of steel?
But an worst he speaks in earnest, only with his sword
Chides his weary mood, and covered up the city streets
Of their rich
Fathers, matrons, children, shrieking, praying
For his aid.
"By the God that made thee, Plantagenet! tell us what Assistance hath come?"
Then the life-like trumpet answer, and the other's voice is Heard.
