ONE HUNDRED LOST

ON HOSPITAL SHIP
British Steamer Rohilla Wrecked
on Rocks Off Whitby—Broke in Two.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—It is believed that at least one hundred persons have perished through the running of the rocks early yesterday morning near Whitby of the steamer Rohilla, which was being used as a hospital ship. Including the hospital unit and her crew there were about 200 persons on board the vessel.

A despatch to the Evening News from Whitby late yesterday said the ship had broken in two and her stern lay down. The life-savers got a line across the floating part of the Rohilla, but communication between it and the shore could not be established.

Early yesterday morning four seamen were found among some wreckage thrown up on the coast, they having evidently tried to swim ashore. Among the wreckage was the name, "Rohilla, of Glasgow." One of the seamen still is living. Tremendous seas are breaking over the vessel, and the members of the crew can be seen in the rigging.

The Rohilla was bound from Queen's Ferry to Belgium to bring back wounded from France. She ran on the rocks half a mile south of Whitby, 17 miles northwest of Scarborough, at 4 o'clock in the morning during a violent southeast gale and rainstorm. The vessel carried four nurses and several doctors, and the hospital equipment. All the women aboard were saved. Every one of her boats, except the last one launched, was smashed by the sea and washed ashore. The remaining boat was swamped near shore, and the people in it waded to safety.

Lifeboats with extreme difficulty brought ashore two loads of the vessel's passengers, after which further attempts at rescue with the boats were abandoned. Fifty-eight persons were still clinging to the vessel.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it falls dry, wispy and scraggly just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

Nuptial Notes

NEWHAM-ATTRIDGE
A happy event took place in the city this afternoon when at 2:30 p.m. the Rev. Mr. J. J. Rose, pastor of the St. Paul's church, officiated at the wedding of Miss Elva Attridge, a popular young lady of this city. The knot was tied at the parsonage, Rev. Mr. Snider officiating. After receiving the good wishes from their many friends, the happy young couple left in the motor car for their new home at 14 East avenue north. The bride was wearing a gown of pale green silk and carried a basket of roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Charles Stevenson of Toronto. The groom's gift to the bride was a very pretty cameo ring; a cameo necklace to the flower girl; to the bridesmaid he gave a cameo tie pin, and to Mr. Stanley Addison, who played the wedding march, and after the ceremony sang with good effect, "Until" he gave a pair of monogram cuff links.

The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of amethyst charmeuse, with gold lace and Persian trimming. Mrs. Robert Stevenson, mother of the groom, wore a black silk gown.

A charming luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson left on their honeymoon to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia. The bride wore a handsome suit of violet broadcloth and a hat of violet velvet, with shaded ostrich mount. She also wore a beautiful set of ermine furs. After their return they will reside at their new home, 310 York street, in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson were the recipients of a large number of very handsome gifts.

German Spies in the District Near Lynden?

A story of alleged German spies comes from the Governor's road near Lynden, some six miles from the city of Brantford. The farmers of that peaceful district have recently been much alarmed at the action of two men in the district. They have been taking photographs and surveying the land and as they will not explain, the inhabitants of that part are scared and have come to the conclusion that the men are German spies.

Some days ago Mrs. Chatterton who resides upon the Governor's Road, first noticed one of the men standing upon a small hillock, jotting notes down with regard to the surrounding country. She looked at him and passed on thinking he was a surveyor. Several times she saw him in various parts of the country, always with a camera and always making notes, often he had with him an instrument which she took to be a surveyor's. As the two men did not typically Canadians or English she one day asked one of the two what they were doing and he made no sign and answered no word. Her suspicions were now thoroughly aroused and she questioned the other. He spoke fairly good English and although he was curt, he was much more affable than his companion. The men were very fair haired and both are big and broadly built, the one being taller than the other. Together they visited the Green bridge and took photographs of it from various positions. Every farm house which they were allowed to photograph was snapped. They endeavored to obtain a picture of Mr. Armstrong's farm and they merely said nothing when he refused to allow them to take it. They have inspected the railroads at that part, they have photographed them and have made notes upon them also.

The men were suspected of being spies they have been kept under observation by the farmers of the district. Yet they keep quiet and do not speak of their mission. When taxed with being Germans they denied it but they did not deny not being Canadians. The men are making their way as fast as they can toward Lynden and may by this time be there. They have certainly aroused the farmers of the Governor's Road, be they what they are.

Mystery Unravels

The above article gives a pretty fair idea of the condition stirred up in the minds of the residents of the farming districts over the war. They have read so much about German spies and the like, that they have become distinctly suspicious of all strangers doing business in the country. The Courier has been successful in ferreting out the story of the "alleged German spies." There were two gentlemen photographing farmhouses in the Lynden district, and they are both well-known Brantford residents of Terrace Hill.

Mr. W. W. Carter, who resides at the corner of St. Paul's Avenue and St. George street, has been an outdoor photographer for twenty years. He has made it his business to take photographs of them, always asking the family to be "snapped" in front of their homes. He rarely asks for the names of the owner, never takes orders and brings the pictures around when finished for their inspection and purchase. He always makes a note of something about the place or situation to identify it. He does this merely because he considers it good business not to ask too many questions. How anyone could say he was not a Canadian, is amusing to him because he was born in Norfolk Co. about 25 miles from Brantford has relatives in Burford, and a great many in Brantford; in fact he married a Brantford young lady, Miss Alberta Isaac, who has many relatives around Lynden, Copetown and Jerseyville, Rev. John Isaac being an uncle. He gave out the information when he returned from the scene of his labors that he was suspected of being a German spy. While greatly amused he was likewise disgusted because, as he puts it, it is not pleasant to be thought a traitor to your country. His assistant is also a Canadian and a resident of this city.

BERLIN DENIES REPORT

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The report that Germany has made peace proposals to France, offering special concessions, was repudiated to-day by the German Consul-General at Amsterdam as completely unfounded; says a despatch from Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Co.

Vienna City Faces Famine and Pestilence

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
VENICE, via Paris, Oct. 31.—Reports received here from Austria say that cholera is increasing to an alarming extent throughout Austria-Hungary, and that there is not a single crown land in Austria and scarcely any in Hungary, where fresh cases are not reported daily.

The epidemic is said to be the worst in Galicia, where about one hundred deaths are said to occur daily among the troops in the field. The bodies of those dying from the scourge are cremated immediately.

The Hungarian minister of the interior has issued a notice saying that doctors are urgently needed in infectious disease hospitals. The ministry offers to pay doctors the equivalent of $6.25 a day in addition to their board and travelling expenses.

The reports say that the wounded everywhere are suffering intensely because of the shortage of surgeons in the field. Many of the wounded, who have arrived in Vienna and Budapest are in a terrible condition, their injuries are being poorly dressed at the front.

Vienna is sheltering considerably more than a hundred thousand Galician refugees and is feeling the strain. The burgomaster has visited the premier several times urging the government to send the refugees back to their homes. The government, however is helpless, because a majority of the refugees decline to go into the country, where the cost of food is enormous.
