AT THE GRAND

A Minneapolis paper has the fol- A GREAT RAILROAD WRECK lowing regarding "Omar, the Tent Maker," which will be at the Grand Opera House shortly:production of 'Omar the Tentmaker," of railway drama-that we shall give with Guy Bates Post starred in the only an outline of the plot. title role, is paying its second and son of poor parents—the other the dis-States and Canada. Its popularity shows no sign of waning and the reason given for its discontinuance at a righteous, fearless district attorney. the end of the present season or early Both again worship the same girlpart and that Richard Walton Tully counterpart. has such a part for him in a new drama now nearing completion.

"'Omar the Tentmaker,' while not a prefect drama, is one that furnishes

"And now imagine the girl on a fearless philosophers who ever lived; if human kindness is overshadowed in its agitated action by human hate, just bigotry and greed it is a tribute to its accurate reflection of the time region it depicts. covers too great a lapse of time in disconnected episodes to be clearly consecutive, but the powerful link which connects and blends them all is that of the drunken poet and philosopher, Omar, played with magniartistic actors. The only way really to disarm Fate and to beat Destiny at the funny game called life, is to be able to laugh at both of these allegorical ladies. No one ever laughed at them more effectively then Omer Khayyam and Omer Again you see the girl. Again her tively than Omar Khayyam, and Omar, himself, in all probability did it fatherno better than does Guy Bates Post

"A PAIR OF SIXES." There has probably never been a play produced in New York City that production of Edward Peple's farce, as a Feature Film. A Pair of Sixes," at the Longacre For once the writers allowed themselves to indulge in superlatives of praise without stint, and they showed that even the critics had enjoyed themselves. The opening paragraph of the criticism of the New York Times (that lave scowled at "Seven Days,' sobbed rified by the unwelcome attentions at Officer 666' and wept outright at 'Seven Keys to Baldpate.' * * * other hand, does all in his power to There are not many adjectives left protect the blind waif. Meanwhile 29th, Matinee and Night.

AT THE BRANT

ON BROADWAY Everything we should say about the story of The Juggernaut is so pale and poor and thin compared to the tre-"Tully and Buckland's sumptuous mendous climax of this, the Colussus

Two young men-one the brilliant manager, James G. Peede, to be that —one with a father's deep affection; Mr. Post is ambitious to play a fresh the other because she is her mother's

The district attorney bitterly attacks the railroad in the courts. His former to intercept it.

You see all this. See the girl's sweet face at the window of the flying train—feel the swaying of the automobile as it skids desperately around sharp turns—and the bounding of the motor boat slashing through rough waters.

Both men and the train come crashing into the picture at the same in-

For a moment that seems an eternity, you feel yourself sitting almost under the tottering trestle as the enunder the tottering trestle as the enficent gusto and irresistable sardonic brumor by Guy Bates Post, one of steel—leaps thundering and quivering high. America's most capable, talented and into the empty air and falls shrieking to the swirling river.

Again you see the girl- Again her

Again-THE MAN-The car of Juggernaut rolls on. But who are the victims?

received such glowing, bubbling criticisms as that given by the ordinarily vision of Albert E. Smith and J. Stuart vision of A very-hard-to-please metropolitan crit-ics to Manager H. H. Frazee's Blackton, tells the story of its quality

The Juggernaut, direct from Vitagraph Theatre, New York. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

THE TWO ORPHANS. Adapted and Produced by Herbert

most conservative of metropolitan (Jean Sothern) are the two orphans. papers) was so unusual that it is Henrietta is vividly beautiful, and worth quoting: "When the curtain Louise, while equally fair to look upfell at the end of the first act or the new farce that came to the Longacre ents in a French province they are Theatre last night, it seemed too sent to Paris, where an uncle has good to be true that playwright and promised to provide for them. On rlayers could keep up fun all evening their arrival in the capital, Henrietta, at so fast and furious a pace. But who has attracted the eye of the rasit was true. The audience that waited cally Marquis De Presles, is abducted incredulously for that second act by his orders. Louise falls into the found it crammed full with fun all its hands of Mother Frochard, a profesown, and as for the third and last, sional beggar. Mother Frochard has the people on the stage, shout as they two sons, Jacques, a swaggering, would, could hardly make themselves handsome daredevil, too proud to heard above the howls of laughter that work, and Pierre, a hunchback, who came from the other side of the foot-lights. The playgoer vil:0 cannot tind grinder. In the squalid cellar that amusement in 'A Pair of Sixes' would the Frochards call home Louise is terto adequately describe the heartiness Henrietta has been taken to the Marof its quality as an entertainment." quis' chateau. Frightened by her ex The new farce will be seen at the periences and half mad with apprehen-Grand Opera House with a cast of sion, she appeals to the assembled Saturday, April guests, one of whom, Chevalier De Vaudrey, rescues her after a duel with

Be sure that you get your money's worth—Don't simply ask for a Tungsten lamp-because you may get a cheap,

inferior lamp which will really waste

Next time you buy Tungsten lamps it will be to your advantage

That is why we recommend Hydro Quality lamps—because we know

The Hydro name on every genuine Hydro Quality lamp is a perfect to come to our office. We are interested only in helping you get your money's worth out of every cent you spend for Hydro Service.

that every lamp has been given the utmost care in manufacturing, and guarantee that you are receiving your share of a constant, expert service. This service is devoted to giving you better, cheaper Mydro light-by keeping your lamps up to the Hydro Standard of Quality-

BRANTFORD HYDRO ELECTRIC SYSTEM, 303 Colborne St. Brantford Ont.

has passed the Hydro test before it can be sold to you.

the highest known to the world to-day.

refuses his consent and causes the It is well known that since the begirl to be sentenced to prison and ex- ginning of the war women have been ile. How she escapes this fate and fighting in the European armies. The with her blind sister finds the way to latest and perhaps the most pictures-peace and happiness, makes a story of que heroine is Mile. Emilienne compelling charm and thrilling interest. "The Two Orphans" well desemble of the Moreau, a young French girl only seventeest. "The Two Orphans" well desemble of the Military Medal from General de Sailly Serves the term "photoplay supreme."

Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Military Medal from General de Sailly at Versailles in recognition of her great gallantry under fire.

AT THE APOLLO. Mademoiselle Moreau, says the Lon The Apollo Theatre, Colborne St., don Sphere, formerly resided in Loos, has recently changed hands, Mrs. the town that was captured by the Chilton having disposed of her interests to Mr. A. J. Bloor, from Ingersoll. Mr. Bloor is arranging for an entirely new picture service, and promises some interesting features to Mr. Commencing Monday.

The town that was captured by the British under Gen. Sir Douglas Haig toward the end of last September. During the German occupation of the grown Mademoiselle Moreau lived there with her aged father and mo the establishment of a regular Flying Section for the Indian Army. Twelve last visit to Minneapolis, where it will solute heir of a great railway king, fill the week at the Metropolitan opera house. After a season's run in New York, this atmospheric drama of poor parents—the other the dissolute heir of a great railway king, and the other the dissolute heir of a great railway king, and the solute heir of a great railway king, and the week. Commencing Monday, and the solute heir of a great railway king, and the solute heir of a great railway

Royal Medals

tribution to Ex-

World's Altitude Record.

comparative safety were several families, including old men, women and children. She herself refused to rein the next is given by Mr, Post's daughter of the old sweetheart of both manager. Iames G. Peede, to be that —one with a father's deep affection; King Has Approved of Their Disdriven back. As soon as the British entered, Mademoiselle Moreau sallied out into the streets and during the plorers.

out into the streets and during the ensuing struggle assisted the wounded to places of safety. Although not physically strong, her determination physically strong, her determination army, General Michielsen, lost his increased her strength tenfold. graphical Society announced that the increased her strength tenfold. To > of the Amazon. Col. Fawcett has ly over her charges. ploration of the Tsangpo-Dihang with a will, singing Rouget de Lisle's river in the hitherto almost unoccuundying lines with the greatest en-

> A few days later this French army many miles of the River Tsangpo order was issued:-

"Mlle. Emilienne Moreau, aged 171/2 years, living at Loos (North France) On September 25, at the taking of the illage of Loos by the British troops she organized a first aid station in her house and was employed the London, April 29.—Harry G. Hawker made a world's altitude record in an aeroplane at Brooklands Wednesday, according to an announcement day, according to an announcement made by the aero club here. Hawker ascended to a height of 24,408 feet. But who are the victims?

Come and see this tremendous spectacle.

That it was Vitagraphed by Ralph
W. Ince, under the personal supervision of Albert E. Smith and J. Stuart vision vision of Albert E. Smith and J. Stuart vision vis was presented to Monsieur Poincare

Francis Gratton, who arrived at Simcoe on Monday as Sergt-Major of the 133rd Battalion, was placed in confinement on receipt of advice from Regina that he is wanted there for the Canadian Red Cross Society. on a charge of bigamy. Gratton has 5,000 cases of supplies for the French served with the Princess Pats.

William Fox presents "The Two Orrhans," adapted from Hurst's edition and produced by Herbert Brenon with Theda Bara, William B. Shaw and Jean Sothern. At the Brant Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Honored Bishop

Friends Will Provide Residence For Him if He Will Stay in Japan.

Tokio, April 29.-Unusual honors were paid to Bishop Merriman C. Harris, of Korea, before his departure from Japan for the United States. It is understood that the Bishop, who is the head of the American Methodist Episcopal mission in Korea, will retire, but friends and admirers have agreed to provide a residence at months. Kamakura-by-the-sea, if he will return the town, however, lasted only about o live there permanently. Among the prominent men present burg, during the Civil War, lasted less at a farewell dinner were Baron Ishii, than a month and a half. minister of foreign affairs, Geo. W. Guthrie, the American ambassa- has been described as one great siege dor and Viscount Kaneko. Baron it has not produced many notable Ishii in the name of Emperor Yoshihito conferred upon the Bishop the second order of the Sacred Treasure and at the same time eulogized the veteran missionary's work in Korea.

Ambassador Guthrie likewise made a Russian investment But the siace Ambassador Guthrie likewise made a a Russian investment. But the siege speech of appreciation of the Bish- of Kut-el-Amara already holds the op's labors.

Agreement Reached.

Special Wire to the Courier. London, April 29 .- An agreement has been reached between the Danish chamber of commerce and the British Government by which cablegrams from Denmark to the United States and England, concerning business transactions in accordance with the Anglo-Danish agreement are allowed to pass the British censorship without Sheepshead Bay is to have a 200,- where he is looked upon as the foundon which $900,000 er of a new era in the study of poli acre golf course will be expended.

FOR INDIAN ARMY

planes From U.S. to Add to Establishment.

opera house. After a season's run in New York, this atmospheric drama of the Medieval Persia of Omar Khayyam, vitalized by his figure and those of his associates and poetized by many well-placed quotations from the Rubaiyat, has been played almost continuously throughout the United States and Canada. Its popularity.

become friends at College.

One thinks he has accidentally kill-entitled "Fatherhood," he is arranging for new features that are sure to be of or new features that are sure to be purchased in the commission will be charged with the Sky serial will be shown, and on Friday and Saturday next week Mr. Bloor is arranging for particularly good films.

Second feather, the children of Loos who remained in the town were in her charge. Her old father died not long ago after the Germans occupied the town.

When the great attack was begun, Mademoiselle Moreau waited in eager support of the aero-planes. Five trained airmen, including not on the cellars and in other places of his poverty.

Years later one becomes president to the seaplane of the seaplane of the town remained in the town were in her charge. Her old father died ont long ago after the Germans occupied the charge. Her old father died in the town were in her charge. Her old father died not long ago after the Germans occupied the charge. Her old father died on the commission will be charged with the Sky serial will be shown, and on Friday and Saturday next week Mr. Bloor is arranging for particularly good films.

Hitherto there have been only two flying machines in Java. They are main under shelter when it became reaplanes of American manufacture, on which the first military flights were made at the beginning of November last. Unfortunately, the flying record in the Colony has since reward. She went forth amongst them planes in Yunnan province and have armed only with revolvers, and, with the aid of a few British soldiers dischines at the aviation school near Peking.

Chinese Government Uneasy Over Modern Equipment of Rebel Army.

Recently the department of military affairs has issued instructions to provincial officials concerning the protection of their districts against aero-planes. The instructions provide that a search shall be made throughout the mountains and forests to discover possible hiding places for aeroplanes. It has ordered that watch-towers be built on high hills for the purpose of observing approaching aircrafts, and roofs of all important buildings and all watchtowers are to be covered with water to a depth of six inches.

The Siege of Kut-el-Amara

The siege of Kut-el-Amara promises to take a place among the long sieges of history.

It is now nearly four and a half months since a British force, retreating from the vicinity of Bagdad, was shut up at Kut-el-Amara. During most of that time General Townshend and his men have been within hearing of the guns of a British force trying to advance up the Tigris to their re-lief. The latest news from Mesopotamia indicates some progress for this econd British army. The siege of Paris, during the Franco-Prussian war, was the most striking and perhaps the most desperate siege of modern times. It lasted from September 19, 1870, to January That is just about the 28 1871. length of the Kut-el-Amara siege up to the present time.

The British at Ladysmith, during the Boer war had to endure another of the great sieges of modern times The Ladysmith siege lasted from November 1, 1899, to February 28, 1900.

During those four months the garrison suffered severely from want of food, but not as severely, of course, as the French had suffered at Paris.
The fighting around Plevna, 1877 a period of about five The actual investment of three months. The siege of Vicks-

While the present war in Europe time record for sieges in this war, The British force engaged at Kutel-Amara is not large—but the moral effect of the relief or capture of that force will be felt all over the East.

Tablet to Bagehot. London, April 29-Viscount Bryce, former ambassador to the United States, unveiled a memorial tablet to Walter Bagehot over the doorway of the political economist's birthplace at Langport recently, and among other things said: "Nowhere is he more appreciated than in the United States

CANADIAN BEAVERS BUILD BOMBPROOF HUT.

After strenuous labor the new pair of beavers at the London zoo have a prefect drama, is one that furnishes plentiful entertainment for all sorts and conditions of the area possibly stand its weight. Both are rushing in pleasantly instructive in regard to one of the most picturesque poets and tearless philosophers who ever lived:

And now—imagine the girl on a king has approved the award of Royal Medals as follows:

And now—imagine the girl on a King has approved the award of Royal Medals as follows:

And now—imagine the girl on a King has approved the award of Royal Medals as follows:

And now—imagine the girl on a King has approved the award of Royal Medals as follows:

And now—imagine the girl on a King has approved the award of Royal Medals as follows:

The Founders' Medal to Lieutenant-Colonel P. H. Fawcett, for exploration and stimulants, and she dressed as best she could the wounds of others.

When the British soldier increased her strength tenfold.

To those who needed them she gave drink and stimulants, and she dressed as best she could the wounds of others.

The Founders' Medal to Lieutenant-Colonel P. H. Fawcett, for exploration and stimulants, and she dressed as best she could the wounds of others.

When the British soldier increased her strength tenfold.

To those who needed them she gave drink and stimulants, and she dressed as best she could the wounds of others.

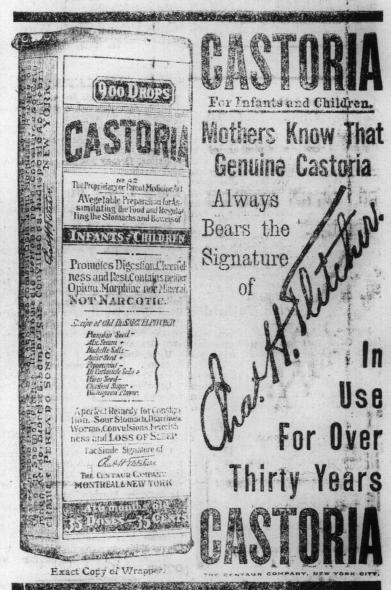

When the British soldier increased her strength tenfold.

The Founders' Medal to Lieutenant-Colonel P. H. Fawcett, for exploration with a conjunction with the wood and mud and will be used as a nursery for the family increased her strength tenfold.

And now—imagine the girl on a king has approved the award of Royal Medals as follows:

The Founders' Medal to Lieutenant-Colonel P. H. Fawceth.

The founders' Medal to Lieut

A Handsome Couch by Day

That's what our Davenports are. Give you an extra bedroom at a minute's notice. Make a handsome article of furniture by day. Come see them. They vary in design, finish and price, but in every case the latter represents very big

A. G. HACKETT, 139 Market Street

Classified Advertising PAYS-

The waste paper basket in some offices is emptied once a day, sometimes twice a day. Besides scraps of paper and envelopes it usually contains many circulars addressed to the man who seldom

Thousands of dollars are wasted by circular publicity. There is no surer method of reaching-the people you want than through the CLASSIFIED COLUMNS OF THE COURIER. There is no waste publicity in CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING. You can reach a greater number of possible buyers at a cost far below that of sending circulars, and the only time needed is to write your copy.

Eliminate office basket waste and turn your money into CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING.

FEMININE FO

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a girl, 19 years old, and many people say I am good looking. I know, myself, I am not homel; Can you tell me why I can't get any boy friend? I am so worried I am going to be an old maid. I am very particular who I make up with. Now, dear Annie Laurie, can you if me where I can meet some nice, refined young man? I'd be so glad to go there if I only knew where. I go to few dances, because whenever I go ledon't enjoy myself, because I don't like that class of boys. I dress ver nice. WORRIED BLUE EYES.

PORRIED BLUE EYES: Have yo Wever thought that beauty really foesn't count very much in making friends that are worth while? seems to me, my dear, that if you gave less thought to your good looks and more attention to the things you should hore attention to the things you should learn, both at school and at home, that you would find yourself attracting a better class of young men and many more of them. Why don't you try this plan for a while?

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am a young girl of 18. I have solden hair, a fair complexion, rosy cheeks and soulful blue eyes. My friends all admire me, and the young men especially seem to think me Now I am very much in love with a fine-looking young man who works at -. He is married, and has several small children. He calls me up real often. Do you think he loves me, and do you think it wrong for me to love him? Please do not tell me to give him up. It would break my heart, for I love him dearly.

BROWN-EYED SUSIE. BROWN-EYED SUSIE: You know it is wrong for you to possition is wrong for you to permit the attentions of a married man. I way down in your heart you did no know this you would not have felt the stings of the guilty conscience which suggested your bringing your proble to me. But the very fact that you have tell how wrong your actions have been proves there is much good in you. Just follow the dictates of your conscience and everything will come out all right