

Grand March Past of the 125th. Battalion Next Wednesday at Tatoo

Fort Will be Erected on the Grounds, and at the Evening Performance Platoons of the 125th Will Defend It From Attacks of Other Platoons.

Grand March
If the weather man will only be- have himself, Brantford will have a military carnival on Wednesday afternoon, and evening, that will surpass anything of the kind ever at- tempted in this city. The event will be a farewell celebration for the 125th Battalion, which will be leav- ing for camp in the course of a cou- ple of weeks, and a varied and most entertaining program has been ar- ranged. The carnival is being given under the auspices of the Women's Patriotic League, and the proceeds are to be expended for another field kitchen for the battalion. In the afternoon, in front of the big grand stand there will be a grand march past of the battalion, by platoons, followed by a program of military drills, exhibitions of bayonet fight- ing, signalling, etc., interspersed with some army sports and comics. At the close of the afternoon per- formance, in front of the grand stand, the grand Midway will open, which will include in its attractions, refreshment booths, side shows, vaudeville performance, Monte Car- lo, Fortune Telling, etc. The Mid- way Tatoo in which four massed bands will take part, will commence. A feature of the evening perfor- mance will be the attack and defence by the platoons of the 125th bat- talion, of a fort, which will be erected on the grounds. In the engagements, the machine guns will be used. A magnificent display of fire-works will conclude the evening's performance.

"NORTH AMERICAN ALPS AND ALASKA."

Is Handsome New Booklet
The attention of the public is di- rected to the new publication just issued, dealing with the wonderful Alpine Playgrounds in the Rockies served by the Grand Trunk Pacific Ry., and with the route of the Grand Trunk Pacific Steamships through the "Norway of America" to Alaska. This new booklet is of 48 pages and has striking cover de- signs in color with gold embossed lettering. The booklet contains more than 40 half tone illustrations and carries maps of Jasper and Mount Robson Parks, of the Grand Trunk System and its connections and the routes of the Grand Trunk Pacific Steamships in the North Pa- cific coast waters. It is a worthy re- presentation of the "Route of Char- acter Service."

Copy of this book can be obtain- ed on application to T. J. Nelson, C.P. & T.A., or C. E. Horning, D.P. A., Toronto.

"ONE RECRUIT FOR EVERY EGG LAID" IS MOTTO

Bantams Have a Hen to Set the Pace in Obtaining New Men.

A new slogan has been adopted by the local recruiting depot of the 216th battalion. In their window at 108 Colborne street, three bantams are on view, one of them a hen, and the motto of the local Bantams now is "One recruit for every egg laid." To the present, the average has been maintained, for since Fri- day three eggs have been laid in the window, while one recruit was secured on Friday, and on Saturday two more men availed themselves of "the small men's opportunity." The Bantam platoon attended di- vine service at the headquarters of the 216th battalion yesterday morning. The Bantam's new office at 108

Colborne street assumes every day a more and more attractive aspect. The show window is a masterpiece of its kind, containing three caged bantams, their coops surrounded by a mass of green foliage. A large number of flags and recruiting pos- ers also adorn the window, calling the attention of all to the inducements of the 216th Bantam bat- talion.

The newest recruits of the local squad were measured for their uni- forms to-day. The men present wore a fine appearance when on parade, and will have an even better aspect when all are thoroughly outfitted with uniforms and all essentials.

Laid at Rest

David Golding
The funeral of David, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Golding, 24 Nelson Street, took place from Reid and Brown's undertaking parlors last Thursday to Greenwood. Rev. L. Hawkins officiated.

Andrew Fonger
The funeral of the late Andrew Fonger took place on Thursday afternoon from his father's residence, Pine Grove to Mt. Hope cemetery and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Shepherd conducted the services at the house, the Masonic Order from Lynden taking charge of the services at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. Norman Houlding, D. Van- sicker, Dr. Gibson, M. Knox, J. Archer, H. Miller.

During the services the choir from Lynden Methodist Church, of which deceased was a member, sang, "Some day we will understand" and "Across the River Jordan."
The floral tributes were as fol- lows:—Wreath, Our Boy, parents; wreath, Earl and Eric; Compass and Square, No. 5, his lodge; wreath, Lynden young people; wreath, Mrs. Catherine Johnston; wreath, from Hattie; sprays, Lynden Methodist Choir, Pine Grove church and Sun- day school, Uncle Harry and Aunt Gertrude, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fonger, Mr. and Mrs. E. Porteous, Miss A. Gram, E. B. Matthews, Uncle Bill and Aunt Isabel.

To keep her father from spending so much time and money there, an Oklahoma girl burned down a liquor joint.

People more Particular

THE demand for package goods grows greater every year.

Why?
Because the world is ever growing more and more particular about foods.
Packages keep the goods in wholesome, sanitary condition. They keep out dust, flies, moisture and odors, preventing deterioration.
They preserve flavor, freshness and strength, insuring value for the money.

In sealed packages only.

To The Editor

"A THEORY OF ZONES."
To the Editor of the Courier:
Dear Sir,—Here is a plan, if taken up by the Government, ought to settle this daylight fad. To divide Canada up into zones, either named or numbered. The line between each zone running direct north and south and so many miles apart of equal distance, and establish a sun- dial anywhere north and so on, in the exact centre between the east and west line of each zone. And when the sun registered due south on each dial that to be the legal 12 o'clock noon hour in that zone. By this means it would suit all traffic and commerce, as well as legal and local purposes, and thus measuring time by distance, wouldn't matter what zone a person was in, they could tell the time in any other zone. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your space in your valuable journal.

VON MOLTKE IS DEAD, FORMER HUN ARMY CHIEF

Nephew of Famous Leader of War of 1870 Dies of Apoplexy.

Amsterdam, June 19, via London, —Lieut.-General Count Helmuth von Moltke, chief of the supplementary general staff of the army, died of heart apoplexy yesterday afternoon during a service of mourning in the Reichstag for the late Field Marshal von der Goltz, says a Berlin telegram last night.

Lieut.-General von Moltke was a nephew of the late Field Marshal von Moltke, the great strategist, who directed the victorious movements of the German armies when they achieved their memorable triumph in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870. During the fall of 1914 announcements of Gen. Moltke's illness were followed by reports that he had been superseded as chief of the general staff. These, however, proved unfounded, but in December of that year he retired from the post, his failing health, it was said, preventing his return to the front. He was succeeded by the present head of the general staff, Gen. von Falkenhayen. In January following he was appointed chief of the supplementary general staff.

ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE OF A.O.F.

Rev. Mr. Wrighton of Park Baptist Preached to Men of Order.

AN APPEAL TO COME TO CHRIST

Number of Russians at Af- ter-service Worship in Native Tongue.

The annual church parade of the local courts of the Ancient Order of Foresters took place last evening to Park Baptist church, where service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Wrighton. Accompanied by visiting brethren from Hamilton, Paris and St. George, the Foresters assembled at their lodge rooms, proceeding from there to the church, via George, Colborne, L. and Darling streets. The members of Sherwood Forest of Hamilton, a uniformed branch of the order, performed fancy drill en route to the church. Mr. Arch. Martin, of Hamilton, the High Chief Ranger of the A.O.F. was in attendance.

Before commencing his sermon, Rev. Mr. Wrighton paid tribute to the ideals which the Ancient Foresters strove to maintain—sympathy, never needed so much as at the present time, in order to dispel the gloom and alleviate suffering by fol- lowing the path of duty. He said that could be rendered only when Christ was made our help; the visiting of sick, the fatherless and the widows, for which an unspotted life was necessary.

To Be Cleansed of Sin.
Mr. Wrighton chose his text from Isaiah i: xviii, and delivered a most eloquent appeal to all to hasten to be cleansed of their sins, while the opportunity presented itself. In Adam, we received the taint of sin, and fell; yet, if we died eternally, it was because of what we ourselves did, because we refused to avail ourselves of the remedy sent to us by Christ. The stain of sin, the spot of iniquity, could be cleansed only in one way, through the precious blood of the Redeemer.

"God," declared the speaker, "is a God of divine urgency. He knows how to time His actions, in the uncertainty of life, many may be snatched away not knowing Christ. The world moves rapidly, and we do not know when Christ may return to establish His kingdom. Now is the only time to seek salvation; we have no pledge that the future will be ours, that we will live for another month, for another year."

An Appeal to Come.
The very joy and peace experienced by those who followed Christ should be sufficient to induce all to do the same. God desired to talk with us, to reason with us, to point out the reasonableness of salvation. "Let us come to the Lord," urged Rev. Mr. Wrighton, "and the blood- stained hand of Christ shall blot away the stains upon our face of life, so that this may not be read by the angels of God. None who come to Christ will be refused; He will receive and keep us. But he that believeth not, the lips of Christ Himself tell us, is condemned already. Our lives have been pur- chased at a great price by the Lord our Redeemer, and through Him we may be brought back to the purity of Eden, and to a closer and devout union with God."

"The Story of Jesus Can Never Grow Old" was beautifully rendered in the course of the service by Mrs. Baird and Miss Dorothy Baird.

Russians at Service.
At the close of the service, the usual informal half hour was spent in the school room in prayer and social intercourse. A number of Russians were present here, who prayed and sang in their native tongue. Quite a number of Russians attend service at Park Baptist church.

The parade was in charge of Mr. Percy Farnsworth, Chief Ranger, Court Endeavor. There were 200 Foresters turned out. There were present the Knights of the Sherwood Foresters of Hamilton, in charge of their captain, the High Chief Ran- ger, A. Martin. The District Chief Ranger, A. Salpe, also accompanied them. Upon the return to the lodge room from the church, several speeches were made by the High Chief Ranger and others.

The Cook Quit

And we were "up in the air" about it because the wife knew nothing about cooking. She tried her best and meant well, I guess, but her first attempt at a meal convinced me.

So we had just about decided to eat in restaurants when suddenly my wife struck a bright idea. "Why don't you call 139 and insert a help wanted ad for a cook in The Courier?" she said. And

I did—

and the next morning there were many to choose from

CUBS TAKE THE LEAGUE BATTLE TO ACHEIVE F

Stars Bit the Dust so the 215th Baseball at Being Rather Very Even.

The Cubs took the lead City League as a result of Sat- urday's two games when they defeat- ed the Stars in a close encounter, 6-5. The 215th went down to defeat the hands of the Alerts by a score of 12-9, both games being featur- ed by prominent base stealing and considerable loose playing with lifts and detracts from the inter- est of the games, which, nevertheless, patronized by a fair-sized crowd.

Delay at Start.
The start of the first game delayed for a few minutes by the Stars being one man short, vacancy being filled by Bill Jo who covered second base and field satisfactorily during the game. He also had two runs and two hits in his credit.

Hits and Errors.
The Cubs took the lead in the third inning, when Tim Slattery and Summerhayes walked and scored. Slattery's error, however, was not a factor in the game. Slattery singled, one more added by each team in the making the score 3-1, which the Cubs promptly boosted to 5-1 sixth.

Nearly Lost Out.
The Stars came back with more in their seventh, but in the eighth inning, Slattery's error, however, was not a factor in the game. Slattery singled, one more added by each team in the making the score 3-1, which the Cubs promptly boosted to 5-1 sixth.
